Front: Inside linebacker Mike Petko (99), middle guard Pat Engelbert (97) and free safety Tyrone Byrd (8) are three of Nebraska's five returning starters on defense. Engelbert was a second-team academic All-American and second-team All-Big Eight selection in 1990. Petko and Byrd have each started the last two years, and both were honorable-mention All-Big Eight last year.

Back: Outside linebacker Travis Hill (93) and cornerback Tyrone Legette (3) are two of Nebraska's top honors candidates in 1991. Junior Mike Stigge (47) has been the Husker punter the last two years, and is a two-time academic All-Big Eight pick.

Ed Weir 1903-1991

Lyell Bremser 1917-1990

In Memorium . . .

The University of Nebraska athletic family lost two of its most-beloved members within the last year, with the deaths of Ed

Weir and Lyell Bremser.

Weir, who died in May at the age of 88, was Nebraska first two-time All-American, as a tackle in 1924 and 1925, and in 1951 became the first Cornhusker to be inducted into the National Football Hall of Fame. Following a three-year pro football career, he returned to Nebraska in 1929 as an assistant football and track coach, then served as head track coach from 1939 until his retirement in 1954. After his retirement, he continued to be a fixture at NU athletic events until a few months before his death.

Although not an athlete or a coach, Bremser's name and voice will always be synonymous with Cornhusker football. Shortly after enrolling at Nebraska in the fall of 1939, he landed a job as the play-by-play announcer for Husker football on radio station KFAB (then located in Lincoln), and called every Nebraska regular-season game for KFAB for the next 45 years. His last season, 1983, was the first for the Nebraska Football Network. Bremser died last September at the age of 73.

Noting the 1991 Huskers

ABC Slates Huskers for Two 1991 Telecasts: Months before the season ABC-TV informed Nebraska athletic officials that it had chosen the Cornhuskers for two nationally-televised games in its 1991 College Football Association (CFA) package. The Huskers are scheduled for a prime time appearance on Sept. 21, when they host defending Pacific-10 Conference and Rose Bowl champion Washington in a 7:05 p.m. (CDT) game in the fourth night game in Memorial Stadium's 69-year history. NU will host another nationally-televised ABC-CFA game on the day after Thanks-giving, Nov. 29, when the Huskers take on arch-rival Oklahoma at 12:30 p.m. (CDT).

Osborne Again Tops "Winningest" List: Veteran Husker head man Tom Osborne heads into his 19th campaign at the NU helm once again listed as the winningest active coach in major-college football. Dr. Tom stands 177-41-2 for an .809 winning percentage after 18 years, and not only has Big Eight head-coaching records for games won (177) and games coached (220), but is fourth among active Division I-A coaches in coaching victories and is 12th on the all-time winning percentage chart.

Nebraska Leads the Nation in "Today's Top Six" Winners: Since 1973, the highest honor the NCAA has given to student athletes has been to honor them as one of "Today's Top Six" (Top Five through 1985) at the annual awards banquet at each January's convention. Nebraska has had five winners in the last three years, including two each in 1990 and 1991, to increase its total to eight and move ahead of Southern California (six) as the school with the most honorees. Last year's Husker winners were gymnast Patrick Kirksey and football player Pat Tyrance and Tyrance's selection made him the fifth Husker griddier to win the honor—in turn making the Nebraska football program the nation's most highly-honored individual sports program in terms of Top Six honorees. Tyrance was preceded by Randy Schleusener (1981), Dave Rimington (1983), Mark Traynowicz (1985) and Jake Young (1990). Ironically, the first four were offensive linemen and all but guard Schleusener were centers.

Huskers Lead in Academic All-Americans, too: When center David Edeal, linebacker Pat Tyrance and offensive guard Jim Wanek all made the GTE Academic All-America first team in 1990, they increased Nebraska's total of academic All-Americans chosen by the College Sports Information Directors of America to 39, six more than any other school. Edeal and Tyrance also were both winners of NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships. They and Wanek headed a list of seven Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight picks from Nebraska in 1990, giving the Huskers 129 in the Osborne era, an average of 7.2 a year.

To Japan in '92: Next year, Nebraska is scheduled to play its first-ever game overseas, as the Huskers will travel to Tokyo, Japan, to play Kansas State in a Dec. 6, 1992, game. The contest was originally scheduled to be played at Manhattan, Kan., on Oct. 17.

Streaking: Going into the 1991 season, Nebraska has the following strings running: 1.) an NCAA-record string of 29 consecutive winning seasons; 2.) an NCAA-record string of 22 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins; 3.) an NCAA-record string of 175-consecutive home sellouts since Nov. 3, 1962; 4.) a Big Eight-record string of scoring in 209 consecutive games; 5.) a nation-leading string of 22 consecutive bowl appearances; 6.) a string of 61-straight wins over Big Eight teams other than Oklahoma and Colorado since a 35-31 loss to Missouri in 1978.

Position Changes: Senior Curtis Cotton, from strong safety to cornerback (he'll also change jersey numbers, from 24 to 9); Tyrone Hughes, from wingback to split end; and possibly Scott Baldwin, who switched from fullback to I-back at the start of spring practice, but went back to I-back at the end and may stay there.

The Record: In its first 101 years, the Nebraska football team won 644, lost 284 and tied 39 for a .686 winning percentage. NU ranks sixth in the NCAA Division I-A in victories, ninth in winning percentage.

Huskers Win NCAA Return Title, Just Miss Another Rushing Title: Nebraska won the 1990 NCAA kickoff return title as the Huskers averaged 27.8 yards on 26 returns, led by sophomore Tyrone Hughes, who was third individually at 29.06 on 18 returns for a school-record 523 yards. It was the first time Nebraska has led the nation in a kick-return category, including the Johnny Rodgers era, 1970-72. While the 1990 Huskers were winning that NCAA stat crown they just missed taking a third-straight rushing title, finishing second to Northern Illinois, 344.6-340.0. In other NCAA team stats, Nebraska was sixth in scoring offense (37.5 ppg), seventh in total defense (263.5 ypg) and scoring defense (13.4 ppg), eighth in punt returns (13.6 ypr), and ninth in net punting (38.2 ypp). The Huskers led the Big Eight in seven of 11 team statistical categories, but had only one individual leader—Hughes in kickoff returns.

Odd Draft: The 1991 National Football League draft was a successful, if unusual, one for Nebraska. Six Husker players were chosen, including cornerback Bruce Pickens and outside linebacker Mike Croel as the third and fourth picks overall (going to Atlanta and Denver, respectively). Later rounds saw defensive tackle Kenny Walker go to Denver in the eighth round (and become the first deaf player ever chosen in the NFL draft), linebacker Pat Tyrance go to the Los Angeles Rams on very next pick, cornerback Tahaun Lewis go to the Los Angeles Raiders in the ninth, and defensive tackle Joe Sims go to Atlanta in the 11th. All six were defensive players, a record number of NU defenders, and it marked the first time since the advent of two-platoon football in 1965 that no Husker offensive players were chosen.

One Game on Grass: After playing every regular-season game on artificial turf the last two seasons, Nebraska does have one game on grass this year—the Sept. 28 game at Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium. Ironically, the last time Nebraska won a game on grass was at Arizona State, 35-28, in 1987. Since then the Huskers have lost four in a row on grass, including a 41-17 defeat at the hands of Florida State in the 1988 Fiesta Bowl.

Jayvee Program Ends: Citing a lack of NCAA I-A opponents, increasing numbers of incoming scholarship freshmen taking redshirts, and pending mandatory cuts in the size of coaching staffs, Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne announced early in 1991 that the Huskers' freshman/junior varsity program was being suspended. Outside of the service academies, the NU program was believed to be the last full-time jayvee program in Division I-A. In its 35-year history, the program posted a 120-17-1 record, including 4-1-0 last year under Coach Bill Weber.

Quick Notes...

- Nebraska led the Big Eight in total offense and scoring offense eight times each in the last 11 years, and averaged at least 6 yards per offensive play in eight of those seasons.
- In the last 11 years, the Nebraska defense has given up 263.9 yards per game and 3.97 yards per play, both figures the lowest in the Big Eight during that period.
- Nebraska owns NCAA records for consecutive winning seasons (29) and consecutive seasons with at least nine wins (22), and both strings are current.
- Nebraska has had 36 football academic All-Americans selected by the college Sports Information Directors, the most for any school. Thirty-two have played for Tom Osborne.

*The Nation's Winningest
19th year at Nebraska*

Having won more games (177) and coached more games (220) than any other coach in Big Eight Conference history, Tom Osborne also ranks as the winningest active coach in NCAA Division I-A as he heads into his 19th year at the Husker helm. In his first 18 years after Bob Devaney, Osborne has posted a 177-41-2 record for a winning percentage of .809. Only eight coaches in the history of college football have ever won more games at one Division I school.

By finishing the 1990 season at 9-3, Osborne's Huskers extended Nebraska's NCAA record for consecutive winning seasons to 29, its string of consecutive bowl appearances to an NCAA-leading 22 with the 1991 Florida Citrus Bowl, and its NCAA record for consecutive nine-win-or-more seasons to 22. Only a loss to UPI national champion Georgia Tech in the Florida Citrus Bowl kept the Huskers from a fifth-consecutive 10-win season. One of NU's other losses in 1990 was to AP national champion Colorado.

Osborne's 1989 team finished 10-2, with the only losses at then-second-ranked Colorado, and in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl to a Florida State team that may have been the best in the country. It was the 10th Osborne team to win at least 10 games. The 1989 Huskers also led the nation in rushing at 375.3 yards per game, Nebraska's sixth NCAA rushing crown in the 1980s.

The 1988 Huskers went 11-2-0, and won the Big Eight title, the seventh time in Osborne's tenure that Nebraska at least shared the crown, having done so previously in 1975, 1977, 1981, 1983 and 1984. With that, Osborne was named Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year by both wire services and by his conference peers for the fourth time. He had previously received the honor in 1975, 1976 and 1980.

In 220 games under Tom Osborne, Nebraska has been ranked in the AP top 10 187 times, or 85 percent of the time. Osborne's Huskers have gone into a game unranked only three times in 18 years.

Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne

The American Football Coaches Association and Kodak also named him District VI Coach-of-the-Year for the sixth time. He had earlier received that honor in 1978, 1979, 1980, 1983 and 1987.

In his 18 seasons, Osborne is 39-31-0 against teams ranked by the Associated Press, easily the best record for a Nebraska coach, and he's the only Husker coach to ever beat a No. 1-ranked team—the 17-14 win over Oklahoma in 1978. (His Hall of Fame predecessor, Devaney, was 12-12-2 against ranked teams during his Nebraska career, while all previous NU coaches were a combined 7-35-0).

Adding even more luster to Osborne's coaching career is the fact that the Cornhuskers made history by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Dave Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Tom's career, the Huskers have produced 35 All-America players, including seven two-time selections, and 27 academic All-Americans, including six two-time selections. In 1990, defensive tackle Kenny Walker earned consensus All-America honors, while center David Edeal, linebacker Pat Tyrance and guard

Jim Wanek were all academic All-Americans. Tyrance received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes when he was named one of Today's Top Six, becoming the fifth Osborne player to receive the award, the most for any program in any sport in the country. In addition, Tyrance became the 11th of Osborne's charges to be named a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete, while Tyrance and Edeal became the 19th and 20th of Osborne's Huskers to receive NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships. In 1989, safety Mark Blazek was named the CBS/Toyota Leader of the Year.

In 1978, Osborne was named Bobby Dodds National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarter-back Club and Delta Air Lines for his efforts toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching. In 1983, the Football News named him its national coach-of-the-year.

He was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskaland Foundation in 1982, and in 1983 he was named national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He's also an author, having published a book entitled More Than Winning in 1985.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid-1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska prep athlete-of-the-year, then passed up major-college scholarship offers to attend hometown Hastings College, where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. He became a star quarterback and basketball player for Coach Tom McLaughlin, and in 1959 was named state college athlete-of-the-year, becoming the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honors.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Hastings in 1959, Osborne played three seasons in the National Football League, two with the Washington Redskins and one with the San Francisco 49ers, where his roommate was Jack Kemp, the former Congressman and presidential candidate who is now Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

In 1962, he contacted newly-hired Nebraska Coach Bob

Devaney, and obtained a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he received a master's degree in 1963, then maintained a triple role of student, teacher and part-time coach at the University. He earned a doctorate in educational psychology in 1965, then elected to pursue coaching as a career in 1967, becoming the Huskers' full-time receivers coach—a decision NU fans have applauded since.

Over the next five years, Osborne was in charge of the Husker passing game, and, in his last four seasons as an assistant coach, developed a wingback named Johnny Rodgers, who would become Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972.

When Devaney announced after the 1972 Orange Bowl that he would retire from coaching at the end of the 1972 season, he elevated Osborne to assistant head coach and director of recruiting for his final campaign, and hand-picked the then-34-year-old as his successor.

Osborne, who was born Feb. 23, 1937, is married to the former Nancy Tederman. They are the parents of a son, Mike, and two daughters, Ann and Susie. Mike followed in his father's footsteps by playing quarterback at Hastings College, and graduated in May 1987.

Profile:

Years at Nebraska: Starting 30th overall, 19th as head coach, 13th as assistant athletic director. Nebraska's record with Osborne as head coach is 177-41-2, the Cornhuskers' record in his 29 years on the staff is 278-61-4. Osborne served on Coach Bob Devaney's staff from 1962 to 1966 as a graduate assistant, then became full-time receivers coach in 1967 and was named to assistant head coach in 1972 when Devaney selected him as his successor.

Previous Coaching Experience: None, prior to joining Nebraska staff in 1962.

Playing Career: High school—three years at Hastings, Neb., High School, where he was an outstanding athlete in several sports and was named Nebraska High School Athlete of the Year. College—four years as star quarterback for Hastings (Neb.) College; was twice named State College Athlete of the Year, becoming first person to win both prep and college awards. Professional—three years in NFL, two with Washington Redskins, one with San Francisco 49ers as flanker.

Education: Hastings, Neb., High School, 1955; B.A. from Hastings (Neb.) College in 1959; M.A. in 1963, Ph.D. in 1965, from the University of Nebraska.

Military Service: U.S. Army, and sergeant in the Army National Guard.

Born: Feb. 23, 1937.

Family: Married to the former Nancy Tederman and is the father of three children, son Mike, daughters Ann and Susie.

Office phone: 402-472-3116.

Nebraska has led the NCAA in an annual team statistical category 14 times in Tom Osborne's career, including six rushing offense titles in the last 11 seasons.

—Dave Rimington,
Lombardi and Outland
Trophy winner,
Former NFL center

"Coach Osborne was a great inspiration to me during my years at Nebraska. Not only is he the best coach in the country, but a great teacher as well. Playing for him has been a great experience."

1983 Heisman Trophy winner,
Atlanta Falcons, running back

Frank Solich

Asst. Head Coach

Year at Nebraska: 12th, 8th as the Huskers' running backs coach. First as assistant head coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: Head coach at Holy Name High School, Omaha, Nebraska, 1966-68; head coach at Southeast High School, Lincoln, Nebraska, 1968-79; four years as Nebraska's head freshman coach, posting a 19-1 record.

Playing Career: High School: Three years at Holy Name High School in Cleveland, Ohio, where he won all-city, all-state, and All-America honors. College: Three-year varsity letterman for the Nebraska Cornhuskers, earned first team All-Big Eight honors in 1965 as fullback, co-captain of Nebraska's 1965 undefeated team, named outstanding senior back following 1965 season, held Nebraska's single game rushing record (204 yards) until 1975. Solich was also a Nebraska baseball letterman.

Education: High School: Holy Name High School in Cleveland, Ohio. College: B.S. from University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1966), M.Ed. from University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1972).

Family: Solich is married to Pamela Wieck of Beatrice, Nebraska. They have two children, Cindy and Jeffrey.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: To increase the athletic development of a player by teaching the skills and developing the attitude necessary for a player to reach his full potential. To help each player understand that reaching his goals as an individual and a student is just as important as developing his athletic ability.

All-Conference Players: I.M. Hipp, I-Back, 1977; Jarvis Redwine, I-Back, 1979-80; Andra Franklin, Fullback, 1980; Roger Craig, I-Back, 1981; Mike Rozier, I-Back, 1981-82-83; Jeff Smith, I-Back, 1984; Doug DuBose, I-Back, 1984-85; Tom Rathman, Fullback, 1985; Keith Jones, I-Back, 1986-87; Ken Clark, I-Back, 1988.

Academic All-Conference Players: Micah Heibel, Fullback, 1987.

All-America Players: Jarvis Redwine, I-Back, 1980. Mike Rozier, I-Back, 1982-83; Pro Stars: Roger Craig, San Francisco 49ers; Mike Rozier, Houston Oilers; Tom Rathman, San Francisco 49ers; Jeff Smith, Tampa Bay Buccaneers; Keith Jones, Cleveland Browns.

Mike Rozier's Honors: 1983 Heisman Trophy Winner; UPI-National Player-of-the-Year; AP Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Year; UPI Big Eight Player-of-the-Year; All-American, UPI, AP, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football Writers, Football News, Sporting News, All Big Eight, 4-Time Big Eight Player-of-the-Week, 1983; 1983 Maxwell Award.

Charlie McBride

Defensive Coordinator and

Year at Nebraska: 14th, 9th as defensive coordinator.

Previous Coaching Experience: McBride served six years (1970-1975) as offensive line coach at the University of Wisconsin under coach John Jardine before becoming the Badgers' defensive line coach and defensive coordinator in 1976. Prior to his years at Wisconsin, McBride coached three seasons (1967-1969) at Arizona State under head coach Frank Kush. Before that, he was a graduate assistant at Colorado and a prep coach at Fenger High School in Chicago.

Playing Career: High School: Four-letterman (football, basketball, baseball, and track) at Morgan Park High School in Chicago, Illinois, where he earned prep All-America honors in football and baseball. College: three years with the Colorado Buffaloes as end and punter. McBride was an All-Big Eight selection in 1962 when the Buffs won the title and played in the 1962 Orange Bowl. Professional: one year with the Denver Broncos.

Education: High School: Morgan Park High in Chicago, Illinois; College: B.S. from the University of Colorado (1962).

Family: Married to Deborah Anne Denniston of Barrington, Illinois, McBride has three sons: Mike, Jeff, and David; and two grandsons.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: Each player is as different as their faces. They have different feelings and different goals. I believe that it is important to recognize the feelings of every player I coach and work as hard as I can to see that he reaches his goals. I also believe that if you chew a player out you also better be ready to hug his neck.

All-America Players: Jim Skow, Tackle, 1985; Danny Noonan, Middle Guard, 1986; Neil Smith, Tackle, 1987; Kenny Walker, 1990.

All-Conference Players: Rod Horn, Tackle, 1978-79; Kerry Weinmaster, Middle Guard, 1979; David Clark, Tackle, 1980; Jim Skow, Tackle, 1985; Danny Noonan, Middle Guard, 1986; Chris Spachman, Tackle, 1986; Tim Rother, Tackle, 1987; Neil Smith, Tackle, 1987; Lawrence Pete, Middle Guard, 1988; Willie Griffin, Tackle, 1988; Ken Wells, 1989; Kenny Walker, 1990.

Ron Brown
Receivers Coach

Year at Nebraska: 4th.

Previous Coaching Experience:
Semi-Pro: defensive coordinator for New Jersey Rams, 1982. College: head freshman coach at Brown University in 1983, then assumed duties as defensive back coach, 1984-86.

Playing Career: High School: lettered in football and basketball at Martha's Vineyard Regional High School in Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts; selected All-Eastern Massachusetts in both sports. College: defensive back at Brown University (1975-78); two-time First Team All-Ivy League, All-New England, and First Team All-East Athletic Conference as a senior.

Education: High School: Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts (1975). College: B.A. in Sociology from Brown University (1979), Master's in Health Administration from Columbia University (1982).

Family: Brown is married to Molvina Carter of San Diego, California.

Basic Coaching Philosophy:
What's most important to me as a coach is to assist each athlete in maximizing every God-given talent that he has. Each person that I coach has at least some level of talent in character, academics, and athletics, with a very unique blend of the three that no one else can duplicate. It matters not so much of what level of ability it is, but more so, my desire to help each young man to understand that true success is based upon this principle of maximization of ability—and not on how he compares with everyone else.

All-Conference Players: Dana Brinson, 1988; Todd Millikan, 1988; Johnny Mitchell, 1990.

George Darlington

from the University of Nebraska-
Lincoln (1979).

Family: Tony and his wife Diane have three children: Travis, Serena, and Phillip.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: To learn as much as possible about the game and pass that knowledge on to the players and help them develop personally as well as athletically.

All-Conference Players: Broderick Thomas, 1986-
87-88; Jeff Mills, 198; Mike Croel, 1990

Harvard High School. College: B.S. from Sterling College in Sterling, Kansas; graduate work at Kansas State, Adams State, and Western State.

Family: Tenopir is married to the former Terry Richardson. Tenopir is the father of five children: Kim, Todd, Pamela, Dana, and Daniel.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: As an offensive line coach at Nebraska, we try to get across that each individual must learn all of the fundamental aspects (footwork, aim points, change of direction, and mental alertness) so that he can operate with confidence and exactness. We don't like to put a lineman on the field against the Big Eight Conference foes unless he is physically and mentally ready to play. We operate as a team of five and try to develop closeness as a unit.

Football Office Staff

Mary Lyn Wininger
Head Coach's Secretary

Mary Lyn Wininger is in her ninth year as secretary to Husker head coach Tom Osborne. An alumnus of the University of Nebraska, with an associate degree, Mary Lyn and her husband, Dwight, are the parents of a 3-year-old son, Thomas Dwight, and an infant daughter, Brooke.

Kathi Woody
Football Secretary

The newest member of the office staff is Kathi Woody, who will be in her third season in 1991. She and her husband, Mike, have two sons, Jason and Travis.

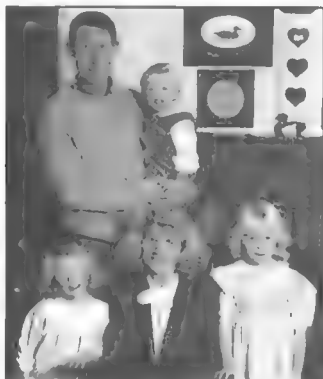

Pat Sudman
Recruiting Secretary

Pat Sudman is in her 12th year as the football recruiting secretary. She received a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Nebraska in 1989.

Dave Finn
Video Coordinator

Beginning his fourth season as the video coordinator for the Husker football team, Dave Finn is no stranger to the Husker program. He has been a photographer for the football staff, worked closely with the strength program and has assisted with the recruiting brochure since 1979. He heads a video crew which includes Tony Davis, Floyd Sorley, Vince Ullman and John Bousek. An alumnus of Wayne State College, Finn is married to the former Kathy Hayes and they have two sons, Daniel, 10, and Kevin, 8, and a 3-year-old daughter, Angela.

Joni Duff
Football Secretary

Joni Duff is in her 11th year on the football office staff. She is married to Craig Duff.

Facilities

Cook Pavilion

Sapp Recreation Facility

Opened in the fall of 1989, Cook Pavilion provides the Husker football team with an indoor practice area which features a full-length field and a roof high enough to allow practices to include all facets of the kicking game. The Pavilion is part of the brand-new, $17 million, Lee & Helene Sapp Recreation Facility, which includes modern offices, a training room and locker rooms, in addition to the latest in recreational equipment. The Sapp Facility will also include a remodeled Coliseum, which will provide Nebraska's nationally-ranked volleyball team with a sparkling, 5,000-seat arena when it reopens in 1992.

Strength

One of the pioneers in the development of strength and conditioning as a key part of a football program, the University of Nebraska expanded its Strength Complex in the West Stadium to 30,000 square feet in 1989, making it the largest on a college campus in the country. Husker strength and conditioning coach Boyd Epley heads a staff of four full-time strength coaches who use their own knowledge and a wide array of equipment and tests to provide one of the top strength training programs in the country. Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and the state-of-the-art facilities help Husker athletes become bigger, stronger, faster and more flexible.

Hewit Center

The Hewit Center, opened in the West Stadium in 1985 and expanded in 1989, houses Nebraska's outstanding academic support unit, the year-round training table which provides lunch and dinner for

NU athletes, and offices for the Athletic Department's fund-raising arm. Dr. Roger Grooters, director of academic programs, heads a staff of five full-time academic and career counselors dedicated to helping student-athletes make the adjustment to university curricula and guiding them toward solid career choices.

Husker Locker Room

Training Room

Nebraska's locker room and training room facilities on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building are among the best-equipped in the nation, as are the recently-remodeled office and meeting areas on the second floor of the building. Head trainer and physical therapist George Sullivan heads a team of six full-time trainers, including three registered physical therapists and a physician's assistant, while six doctors are also available to treat Cornhusker athletes.

N Club Lounge

Located on the ground floor of the South Stadium Building, the N Club Lounge serves as an unofficial "Hall of Fame" for Husker players, with portraits of each of NU's 68 football All-Americans hanging on the north wall, as well as separate portraits of the two Heisman Trophy winners, Johnny Rodgers and Mike Rozier, and four Outland and Lombardi winners. The N Club Lounge also serves as the site of Coach Tom Osborne's Tuesday news conferences during the season, and, located directly upstairs from the locker room, it's used as the Huskers' interview room following Nebraska home games.

Press Box

Nebraska's three-level press box sits atop the West Stadium, and provides seating for 124 reporters, statisticians and other staffers in the main press area, plus 23 booths for radio, television, photographers, scoreboard operators, security personnel and others. The most media credentials ever issued for a Nebraska home game was 950 for the 1987 Oklahoma game, which matched the top-ranked Huskers vs. the No. 2 Sooners.

Mike Peiko (99), Pat Engelbert (97) and Travis Hill (93) return to lead the Blackshirts.

Optimism Again in the Air as Huskers Prepare for 1991
By Don Bryant

Spurred by late-season disappointments in 1990, there is a solid air of optimism and enthusiasm in the camp of the 1991 Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Tom Osborne, the nation's winningest active coach after 18 years at the Husker helm, puts it this way:

"We feel we have a decent chance to be in the race for the Big Eight championship, and we think we have the potential to be a respectably-ranked team by the end of the season."

Stung by losses to Colorado, Oklahoma and Georgia Tech during the 1990 windup, Osborne and Co., took heart in the fact that defeats were dealt them by co-national champs Colorado and Georgia Tech, and a fine (and healthy) Oklahoma team that pounced on the Huskers after starting quarterback Mickey Joseph was severely injured in the first quarter of the final game.

Fine Tuning in Store

But the Husker high command also took to heart Osborne's decision to launch an upgraded program. Not that much was needed, mind you, since the Cornhuskers have traditionally been among the nation's top statistical teams, as well as a perennial challenger for top-10 honors. So don't look for a whole "new look" when the Huskers take to the field in September.

With a flock of outstanding running backs, Nebraska won't discard its running game that has been one of distinction for years under Osborne. Still, Osborne points out that several new wrinkles may be utilized to take advantage of particular skills that appear plentiful on the 1991 team.

Offense Boasts Experience

In general, Osborne points to the Husker offense and flashes a faint smile. "We will have a lot more experience on offense this year," he says. "Last year, we lost all our ball-handlers, and this year we have all our ball-handlers back—and that's a big plus." He also lists another big plus: "Our offensive line should be stronger and bigger."

Always one not to count chickens before the shells begin to crack, Osborne sees the offense as the strong point of the 1991 team, and there is a sense that, if everything falls into place as indicated in spring practice, the Nebraska offensive potential may approach that of the famed 1983 unit.—Such optimism is understandable in light of the personnel returning. After all, starters return at split end, right guard, right tackle, tight end, quarterback, fullback, I-back and wingback. There are a lot of experienced backups at the skill spots, too.

Depth and Talent in Receivers Corps

Tight end, for example, has Daryl Leise, Johnny Mitchell (All-Big Eight and the conference's co-offensive freshman of the year in 1990), two-year vet William Washington, and three-year vet Chris Garrett on hand. All have logged starting time.

The split ends have similar credentials with Jon Bostick, Dan Pleasant and Tyrone Hughes, who moves over from wingback. Ditto wingback, which features two established standouts in Nate Turner and Mark Dowse.

... and in the Backfield

Depth at I-back is impressive, too. Derek Brown heads the list after a fine freshman season (6.4 yards per carry and five TDs), and pressing him will be senior George Achola and redshirt freshman Calvin Jones, a 210-pounder with speed and moves. All three had outstanding spring performances. At fullback NU returns Omar Soto, Lance Lewis and Scott Baldwin, who starred at I-back a year ago as a sophomore.

Line Should be Bigger, Stronger

Erik Wiegert, a 6-5, 275-pound two-year letterman, takes over at left tackle, while 6-4, 285-pound junior Dave Jensen is the leader for the left guard spot. Junior letterman Jim Scott, 6-2, 250, came out a notch ahead of senior letterman Bill Ziegelbein (6-4, 255) and junior letterman Terris Chorney (6-1, 275) at center.

Veteran Quarterbacks

No offense can operate without a quarterback and the Cornhuskers have experience there, also. Fall camp will determine who starts against Utah State, and it will be either Tom Haase or Mickey Joseph, both seniors, while senior Keithen McCant will stand ready for relief duty. Joseph won the starting job from Mike Grant midway in the 1990 season, but early in the Oklahoma game, he was the victim of an out-of-bounds hit that drove him into the Sooner bench where he suffered a severe, career-threatening leg laceration.

But Mickey battled back during the winter and came through spring practice in good shape, so he's definitely in the picture. Haase, a reserve throughout his career, did a fine job in relief of Joseph and Grant in the Florida Citrus Bowl against Georgia Tech, and flashed signs of being another Gerry Gdowski of 1989 fame. Both are capable of running the high-powered Husker offense. Grant, by the way, is a fourth senior quarterback, but unlike Joseph, Haase and McCant, has not redshirted, and Osborne said he plans to use Grant's redshirt year this season to save him for 1992.

Defense Must Replace Six Draftees

Defense is the reverse of offense, Osborne points out, saying, "We are probably more concerned about our defense this fall than we are about our offense." Reason? "Last year we had eight starters back and this year a lot of experience has departed and we lost six players to the NFL draft."

There's good news and bad news on defense, according to Osborne. "We may be stronger up front and have better size and more strength," he says, "but we may not have the lateral speed we had with (All-American) Kenny Walker at tackle last year."

There is considerably more good news than bad, however, because there are a number of outstanding defensive players on hand and as the newcomers progress the Blackshirts could become formidable.

Hill, Petko Head Linebacking Corps

Travis Hill, 6-2, 230-pound junior outside linebacker, is a solid All-Big Eight and All-America candidate, while nose guard Pat Engelbert, a 250-pound two-year letterman, is an established standout who earned second-team academic All-America honors last year. Trev Alberts, the Big Eight freshman defensive player of the year in 1990, is coming off shoulder surgery and appears set for a fine soph year at right outside linebacker. There, too, is David White, a two-year junior letterman, who also has recovered from shoulder surgery.

Inside linebacking is in capable hands, with senior Mike Petko, a two-year starter, and Mike Anderson, a lettered sophomore, leading the field. Both are 230 pounders with punch and experience. If junior Matt Penland bounces back well from knee surgery, linebacking could be a very solid position.

Engelbert Returns at Middle Guard

In addition to Engelbert, the defensive line will feature John Parrella (6-5, 280) and Jamie Liewer (6-4, 250) at left tackle, with Brian Brown (6-6, 275) and Kevin Ramaekers (6-4, 285) at right tackle. Parrella, Liewer and Brown all have lettered, while Ramaekers is a redshirt sophomore. David Noonan (6-3, 270) is the younger brother of former Husker All-America middle guard Danny Noonan, and he's slated to back up Engelbert at the nose.

Despite Losses, Secondary Has Talent

The Husker secondary was hit hard by the departure of four of the top five cornerbacks, but Tyrone Legette is back at the right corner with two letters. Free safety boasts junior Tyrone Byrd, a two-year starter, and sophomore John Reece, who returns after sitting out last year with a knee injury suffered late in an outstanding season as a true freshman in 1989.

Steve Carmer, a junior letterman, is slated for strong safety duty, while Curtis Cotton, senior two-year letterman at strong safety, moves to the left corner.

Kicking Game Looks Good

Punter Mike Stigge, a two-year letterman junior, is back, as is lettered place-kicker Byron Bennett. Osborne says the kicking game will be a dependable part of the Husker game plans for 1991.

"Our kicking should be good," Tom says. "Mike punted well for us and has a lot of experience. Byron has more range than Gregg Barrios had last year and accuracy in the field-goal department will be a big factor with narrower goal posts. Tyrone Hughes and Nate Turner are excellent return people, so we feel that part of our kicking game should be good."

All in all, the 1991 Cornhuskers shape up as a blend of outstanding veterans joining with some talented newcomers—and the results could be a very good football team before the season concludes.

One final note of caution, however. Critics tsK-tsked Nebraska's schedule in 1990, but the Huskers of 1991 have their work cut out. Included on the early slate are Rose Bowl winner Washington, Freedom Bowl winner Colorado State, Arizona State at Tempe and Utah State.

And the Big Eight figures to be much improved, as Osborne reminds: "The big difference between 1991 and recent years is the fact that teams like Kansas, Kansas State, Iowa State and Missouri have continued to improve, and Oklahoma State has some fine people back. A lot of people will lean toward Oklahoma, which came on strong last year after some people got well, and Colorado will be strong again after winning the conference the last two years. But we think we will have a competitive team, also. One thing for sure—the Big Eight is not like it was a few years ago. There will be some much-improved, very good football teams in the league this year."

So hang onto your tickets—and your hats!

Quoting Tom Osborne

Offense: "We will have a lot more experience on offense this year, compared to 1990 when we had only two returning starters. Last year we lost all our ball-handlers and this year, with eight starters back, we have all our ball-handlers returning. That is a big plus. Our offensive line should be strong and bigger and that is another plus. However, depth in the line is still a concern going into fall camp."

Defense: "Like offense, defensive experience is a reverse of a year ago. Last year, we had eight starters back and this year a lot of experience has departed. We lost six players to the NFL draft, which means we need to find quality replacements. We may be stronger up front, better size and more strength. But we may not have the lateral speed we had with Kenny Walker at tackle last year. We lost some good secondary players, but we still have some good athletes with some experience. We lost four of our five cornerbacks, so there is some concern about depth there. Linebacking should be reasonably good with a great player, Travis Hill, at the left outside spot, and David White and Trev Alberts on the right side. Mike Petko and Mike Anderson are good, experienced inside 'backers and David Leader has come along well there, too. However, a real key to our depth there will be how well Matt Penland recovers from knee surgery. He is a fine player and could really help the inside for us."

Kicking Game: "Mike Stigge punted well for us in the past and he has experience. Byron Bennett has more than range than Gregg Barrios had a year ago, and accuracy in the field-goal department will be a big factor with the narrower goal posts. Tyrone Hughes and Nate Turner are excellent return people, so we feel that that part of our kicking game should be good, too."

Overall: "We are probably more concerned about our defense this fall than we are about our offense, and our kicking game should be good. We feel we will have a decent chance to be in the race for the Big Eight championship in 1991. I'm sure a lot of people will lean toward Oklahoma, which got some people healed up at the end of last season and came on strong. OU has a lot of talent and will be very good, and so will Colorado after they won the conference the last two years, but we think we will also be a competitive team. The big difference between 1991 and recent years in the Big Eight Conference is the fact that teams like Kansas, Kansas State, Iowa State and Missouri have continued to improve. Oklahoma State has some fine people back, too, and could be a factor. A lot of fans may have gone to sleep and still think the Big Eight teams are like they were three or four years ago. That's certainly not the case in 1991—none of us can take anyone for granted this fall because there will be some improved, good football teams in the Big Eight."

After earning Big Eight Defensive Freshman-of-the-Year honors from the conference's coaches as a redshirt freshman last fall, Alberts is expected to share first-team duties with David White at right outside linebacker. Alberts and White will be called on to fill the shoes of Mike Croel, the fourth pick overall in April's NFL draft, but with them and Travis Hill on the left side, the outside 'backers should again be the mainstay of the Husker defense.

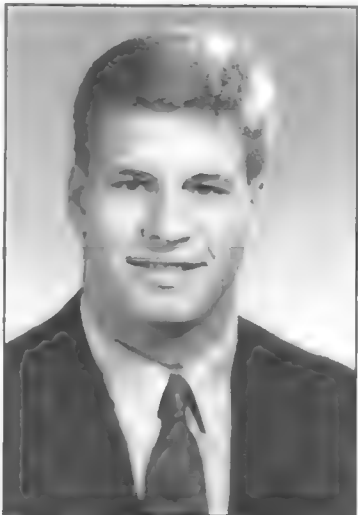

1990: Alberts played in every game except the opener vs. Baylor, and finished with 16 total tackles, 10 unassisted, including four tackles for loss (all sacks) for 33 yards, had one fumble recovery and two hurries. A reserve behind Croel, Alberts had his top tackle game at Iowa State, Oct. 27, when he returned to his native state and recorded eight total tackles, including three sacks for 27 yards. He also had five tackles at Kansas. With a 3.345 cumulative GPA in Business Administration, Alberts was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1989: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Cedar Falls Northern University HS: A two-year Class 1A all-stater and the 1988 Class 1A player-of-the year in 1988, he set the school season tackle record with 107 as a senior. As a running back on offense, he rushed 106 times for 681 yards and scored 14 touchdowns in leading Coach Denny Kettner's team to a 7-2 record and a berth in the state playoffs for the first time in school history. Also an all-state selection in basketball, he led the school to the finals of the state tournament as a senior, and helped Northern University to four-straight state track titles.

Personal: The son of Ken and Linda Alberts, he was born Aug. 8, 1970, at Cedar Falls. He has a brother, Troy, and a sister, Tami.

Scott Baldwin
Fullback
 Honorable-Mention
 All-Big Eight
 Junior, 6-1, 205
 Roselle, N.J. 1L
 Clark

After spending most of spring practice at fullback, Scott Baldwin moved back to I-back when Leodis Flowers left the squad for personal reasons. Baldwin will go into August listed third at fullback behind Omar Soto and Lance Lewis.

1990: Baldwin played most of the season as the Huskers' alternate I-back behind Flowers, but started the Kansas game when the latter was out with a bruised ankle and a turf toe. Against the Jayhawks, Scott ran for a career-high 170 yards and touchdown runs of 67 and 2 yards on 21 carries. He finished the season as Nebraska's second-leading rusher with 579 yards and five touchdowns on 92 attempts. He started at I-back in the Citrus Bowl and had 21 yards on eight carries against Georgia Tech. He was named honorable-mention All-Big Eight by UPI, and was twice named NU's offensive player-of-the-week, vs. Baylor and Colorado. In the season-opener, he came off the bench to spark the Husker offense with a then-career-high 92 yards and scored the game's only touchdown late in the 13-0 Husker win, and was named ESPN's player-of-the-game on his 21st birthday. Against the No. 1 Buffaloes, he led the Huskers with 74 rushing yards off the bench. Other top rushing games included 79 yards vs. Missouri and 76 vs. Iowa State. Baldwin appeared in 10 of 11 games, missing only the Minnesota game because of a turf toe, which nagged him the rest of the season.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: A scholarship recruit, he started at I-back and was the leading rusher for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker JV team, gaining 498 yards and scoring five touchdowns on 82 carries. He saw action in one varsity game, carrying once for 2 yards vs. UNLV.

At Rosell Clark HS: Baldwin rushed for 1,368 yards and led Union County in scoring with 122 points for Coach Louis Grasso as a senior in 1987. He set the school single-game rushing record with 368 yards, scoring five touchdowns against North Plainfield. An all-stater, he also won his conference indoor track 400-meter title in 50.49 seconds.

Personal: Human development major. The son of Hattie Baldwin. Born Sept. 1, 1969, at Elizabeth, N.J. Scott has two brothers and three sisters.

Receiving: 2 for 33 yards in 1990.

Kickoff returns: 1 for 22 yards in 1990.

1991 Florida Citrus Bowl: rushing, 8 att., 21 yards.

One of two returning offensive line starters, with All-Big Eight guard Will Shields, Brian Boerboom will be counted on to be a mainstay on the Husker front five in 1991.

1990: The durable Boerboom started every game at offensive right tackle for the Huskers, and helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). NU ranked sixth nationally in scoring, and second in rushing as the Huskers missed a third-straight NCAA rushing title by 4.6 yards per game to Northern Illinois.

At Colorado Springs Doherty HS: Named to high school All-America teams by Bally and Scholastic Coach, Boerboom was the offensive player-of-the-year in the Colorado Springs area, an unusual honor for a lineman. Three-year starter and two-time all-league and all-area offensive guard for Coach Harold Hamilton, he helped lead Doherty to a 10-2 record and the state quarterfinals in 1986. One of his teammates was defensive back Tahaun Lewis, who started at cornerback for the Huskers in 1989 and 1990 and was taken by the Los Angeles Raiders in the 1991 NFL draft.

Personal: Physical education/elementary education major in Teachers College. The son of Bennet and Joan Boerboom, he was born March 26, 1969, at Hastings, Minn. He is married to the former Stacy Smid of Columbus, Neb.

Jon Bostick Split End

Honorable -Mention
All Big Eight
Senior, 6-2, 185
Bellevue, Wash. 2L

One of the most productive receivers at Nebraska in recent years, Jon Bostick will be a strong candidate for post-season honors in 1991. He goes into his senior season ranked ninth on the NU charts in career touchdown passes (10), 20th in career receiving yards (664) and tied for 37th in career receptions (31), while his 21.4-yard career average per reception ranks second only to Robb Schnitzler's school-record 21.6 set on 30 catches from 1984-86.

1990: Bostick started every game at split end and led Nebraska in both receptions (19) and receiving yards (375), while catching four touchdown passes and averaging 19.7 yards per catch. Four times during the season, he caught three passes (the single-game season high for NU)—69 yards vs. Baylor, 75 yards and two touchdowns vs. Kansas State, for 27 yards vs. Kansas, and for 56 yards in an offensive player-of-the-week performance vs. Oklahoma. He caught at least one pass in all but one regular-season game (Oregon State) as a junior, and in 13 of the Huskers' last 15 games (he did not have a reception vs. Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl). The sure-handed Bostick also saw action on return teams, averaging 14.3 yards on seven punt returns and returning one kickoff 30 yards.

1989: Pulled out of a planned redshirt year four games into the season, Bostick made Coach Tom Osborne's difficult decision pay off as he proved himself to be one of the most-promising young receivers in the Husker program in years. On his first career catch in his first varsity game, vs. Ore-gon State, Sept. 30, Bostick beat the OSU defense deep in the fourth quarter for a 60-yard TD from Gerry Gdowski, giving Nebraska a 28-7 lead which finally put the game out of reach of the pesky Beavers. The following week, he caught three passes for 77 yards and two TD's vs. Kansas State, then caught five passes for 99 yards and two TD's (all career highs) at Oklahoma State, Oct. 21. Despite playing in just eight games, Bostick, whom Coach Tom Osborne describes as a "true receiver," led the Huskers and was second in the Big Eight in TD catches with six. He was second on the team in receiving yards with 289, and third at NU in receptions with 12 for a 24.08 per-catch average, a fraction of a yard short of the then-school record of 24.15 yards per reception set by Frosty Anderson in 1972 (broken by Johnny Mitchell in 1990). Started the Colorado game when the Huskers opened in a two-split end set and didn't catch a pass in the 27-21 loss to the Buffs, but nearly came down with a Gdowski aerial in the CU end zone on the final play of the game. Bostick wore jersey No. 4 in his first six games, switched to No. 31 when IB George Achola (the original wearer of the num-ber) returned from a broken leg, and then to No. 18 his junior year.

1988: The starting split end for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 Nebraska junior varsity team, Bostick led the junior Huskers in receiving with 10 catches for 298 yards and six TD's.

At Bellevue Interlake HS: An all-state selection for Coach Rollic Robbins, Bostick was named Washington player-of-the-year by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Caught 39 passes for 814 yards (a 20.9 average) and 16 TD's, and scored four TD's on kick returns for a school-record 20 TD's in 1987. Had punt-return TD's of 51 and 34 yards, and kickoff-return TD's of 78 and a school-record 99 yards. He three times caught a school-record four TD passes in a game. Also played cornerback and punted for Interlake, which a decade earlier had sent middle guard Curt Hineline to Nebraska. Lettered in basketball and track, setting a school record in the 300-meter hurdles. Visited Washington and Oregon State before signing with Nebraska.

Personal: Speech communications major. Son of Jan and Celia Bostick, he has two younger brothers. Born Oct. 4, 1969, at El Dorado, Kan.

After a fine freshman year, and an outstanding Citrus Bowl performance against Georgia Tech, Derek Brown took over the No. 1 spot at I-back last spring and heads a talented and deep group at that position. Brown should be a top candidate for post-season honors in 1991. One of the Huskers' quick-est players, he had the squad's best time in the pro agility run in testing last March (3.86 seconds). He tied for second in the 10-yard dash (1.49) and was fifth in the 40 (4.48). He also had the team's second-best vertical jump (37 inches), and was fifth on both the strength and athletic indexes.

1990: Brown appeared to be ready to challenge for Big Eight new-comer-of-the-year honors until a separated shoulder suffered against Iowa State knocked him out of the Colorado and Kansas games, and limited him to brief duty in the finale vs. Oklahoma. Despite appearing in only eight games, he finished as the Huskers' fourth-leading rusher with 375 yards, five touchdowns and a 6.4 per-carry average on 59 attempts. He became the first freshman to start at I-back for Nebraska since Monte Anthony in 1974 when he replaced the injured Leodis Flowers vs. Minnesota, and responded with a career-high 120 yards and two touchdowns in the Huskers' 56-0 win. His 375 rushing yards were the most for a Husker frosh since Anthony finished his first year with 587. Brown's totals don't include a team-high 99 yards on 11 attempts in the Citrus Bowl. One of the Huskers' few bright spots in the 45-21 loss to Georgia Tech, he gave NU a glimmer of hope late in the first half when his 50-yard TD run pulled the Huskers within 21-14 half after the Yellow Jackets had jumped to a 21-0 lead. He also had two pass receptions for 12 yards and a 23.8-yard average on four kickoff returns. A true freshman, Brown led Husker backs in receptions with five for 75 yards and a TD, had a 19-yard punt return and averaged 25.8 yards on four kickoff returns. He was third on the squad on all-purpose yards (576) and fifth in scoring (36 points on six TDs).

1989: After signing a Nebraska letter-of-intent in February, Brown was a non-qualifier under the NCAA's Proposition 48 guidelines. He nevertheless came to Nebraska on his own and attended the University as a part-time student. He later met the ACT requirement, and thus was a true freshman the following season, with five years in which to play four seasons.

At Anaheim Servite HS: A first-team All-America selection by Parade Magazine and USA Today, Brown ran for 20 TDs and set an Orange County record with 2,400 rushing yards as a senior in 1988. The third-leading career rusher in Orange County history he ran for over 4,800 yards in his three-year career for Coach Leo Hand. He led Servite (which also produced NU starting linebacker Mike Petko) to a 10-3 record and the CIF semifinals in 1988. He

Tyrone Byrd
Free Safety
 Honorable-Mention
 All-Big Eight
 Junior, 6-0, 180
 Chandler, AZ 2L

A two-year starter and one of the most-experienced players on a Nebraska defense which lost six players to the NFL draft, Tyrone Byrd will be one of the key factors in solidifying a rebuilt Black-shirt unit. After leading the Huskers and ranking third in the Big Eight with five interceptions last year, he goes into his junior year with eight career steals and is on target to break the school record of 15 set by Dana Stephenson from 1967-69. His 130 career interception-return yards are over half of the NU mark of 233 set by Bill Kosch from 1969-71.

1990: Byrd started every game and shared the team lead with outside linebacker Mike Croel in fumbles caused (four), and finished with 41 tackles to tie senior tackle Joe Sims for eighth on the squad, in addition to his interception figures. He had a career-high nine tackles in the Huskers' 27-12 loss to eventual national champion Colorado, one more than the previous high of eight against the Buffs in 1989. He then finished the regular season with seven at Oklahoma. One of his tackles against Colorado caused All-America tailback Eric Bieniemy to fumble in the second quarter, and the resulting 21-yard loss for the Buff senior was the difference in him losing the NCAA rushing title by 14 yards to Oklahoma State's Gerald Hudson. Byrd's interceptions came against Baylor, No. Illinois, Kansas State, Missouri and Iowa State.

1989: After sitting out the 1988 campaign as a redshirt, Byrd was Nebraska's fifth-leading tackler with 46 total stops. He played extensively as the alternate free safety behind Marvin Sanders, a senior, in the first seven games, then took over the starting job when Sanders suffered a dislocated shoulder. Big Eight coaches named him the conference's top defensive freshman and honorable-mention All-Big Eight. Byrd recorded his season high of eight tackles in each of his first two starts, against Iowa State and Colorado, sharing the team lead vs. the Buffaloes. He was named the Huskers' defensive player-of-the-week following the 27-21 loss to the Buffs, a game in which he had two tackles for losses of 3 yards, caused a fumble and intercepted a pass on CU's first possession to set up a 51-yard, Gerry Gdowski-to-Bryan Carpenter touchdown pass on the next play. Byrd's efforts helped Nebraska hold CU to 22 passing yards, the best pass-defense effort of the season in the Big Eight. Against Oklahoma, a Byrd tackle forced a fumble from Sooner quarterback Steve Collins in the opening minute of the game, which teammate Tahaun Lewis recovered to set up a 34-yard Husker touchdown drive. Byrd was second on the team behind All-Big Eight strong safety Reggie Cooper and tied for seventh in the Big Eight in season interceptions with three, which he returned a team-leading 44 yards. His 31-yard interception return in the final minute of the game vs. Oklahoma was Nebraska's longest of the season. He had seven total tackles, including a season-high six unassisted stops, vs. the Sooners. He had five unassisted tackles and a pass breakup against Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl.

1988: Redshirted in his true freshman year.

At Chandler HS: All-state and two-time all-conference performer for Coach Delvin Schutes. The regional defensive player-of-the-year, he intercepted eight passes as a senior in 1987 and had 18 in his career. As a senior, he returned 14 kickoffs 268 yards and, as Chandler's starting quarterback, rushed 105 times for 355 yards and four touchdowns, while completing 59 of 102 passes for 834 yards and eight TD's. Also lettered in basketball and track. Visited Arizona, Arizona State and Colorado State before signing with Nebraska.

Personal: Sociology major. The son of Sabrina Byrd, he has one older sister. Born Feb. 12, 1970, at Phoenix, Ariz.

The only returning starter from last year's starting defensive line, Engelbert will be called on to anchor the front three after both of 1990's starting tackles, All-American Kenny Walker and Joe Sims, graduated to the NFL draft. A strong candidate for post-season honors, he's the Huskers' quickest defensive lineman. In testing in March, he had the group's best times in the 10-yard dash (1.71 seconds) and the pro agility run (4.11), and its second-best 40 time (4.98).

1990: Called by Coach Tom Osborne Nebraska's best middle guard since All-American Danny Noonan in 1986, Engelbert was Nebraska's seventh-leading tackler with 48 total stops, and was third in tackles for loss with 10 for 32 yards. One of NU's bright spots in the Citrus Bowl, Engelbert had seven total tackles, including six unassisted stops, four for losses totaling 21 yards, and one quarterback sack in the loss to Georgia Tech. Engelbert, who carries a 3.587 grade-point average in civil engineering, recorded his career high of eight tackles twice, vs. Oklahoma State and Colorado. Against OSU, he also had a team- and career-high six solo stops. He started all 11 games for the Huskers.

1989: Engelbert played in all but the Oklahoma State game and finished with 17 total tackles, including three for losses totaling 19 yards. He had his season-high of three tackles four times, including the Oregon State game, when he had two sacks for 18 yards. He was one of the Huskers' top pass rushers, as he tied for second on the team in quarterback hurries with 10, just two behind the leader, defensive tackle Kenny Walker. He also had two pass breakups, an interception caused, and a pass interception in the Huskers' 48-0 win at Minnesota. Engelbert received GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District VII honors, second-team Academic All-American, as well as honorable-mention Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight.

1988: Redshirted.

1987: Engelbert started at middle guard for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team and was the squad's second-leading tackler with 25 total stops. Seventeen of those were solo tackles, and he led the team in both tackles for loss (five for 26 yards) and sacks (three for 23 yards).

At Columbus Scotus HS:

Engelbert was a two-year Class B all-state selection and was an all-class all-state choice as a senior in 1986 when he was team captain and MVP. Scotus Coach Jim Puetz said Engelbert received the highest career offensive line rating in the school's history. He also handled place-kicking chores, and averaged 15 points per game for the Shamrocks' basketball team.

Chris Garrett Tight End

Senior, 6-4, 250
Snyder, Texas 3L

The senior member of Nebraska's standout tight end corps, Garrett may also have the nation's highest ratio of touchdowns scored to receptions made. In one-and-a-half years as one of the Huskers' regular tight ends, he has seven career pass receptions, six of which have gone for TDs, including the last five in a row over the last two seasons. If his first 1991 reception is for a TD, he'll tie the NCAA record for most consecutive passes caught for TDs set by Louisiana State's Carlos Carson in two games in 1977. Chris will stay at tight end this fall, although a move to tackle was considered prior to spring practice.

1990: It was a frustrating year for Garrett, who started off sharing the No. 1 spot at tight end with William Washington. In Nebraska's first three games, he caught two passes, both for touchdowns, but in the season's fourth game, vs. Oregon State, he suffered a broken ankle as he went for what would have been yet another TD catch, and was knocked out of the rest of the regular season. He returned for the Florida Citrus Bowl game vs. Georgia Tech.

1989: Garrett caught five passes for 96 yards and tied for second on the squad in touchdown catches with four, including 24- and 38-yard scoring tosses from quarterback Gerry Gdowski in the season-ending 42-25 win over Oklahoma. Earlier, Garrett had caught a 12-yard TD pass in the opener vs. Northern Illinois and a 26-yard TD pass at Colorado. His only non-scoring reception was an 11-yarder vs. Oregon State. Garrett played in all 11 games, and started the Iowa State contest, after missing all of spring practice due to a shoulder injury which required surgery in April.

1988: Garrett played in every game but UCLA, and lettered as the Huskers' third tight end behind All-Big Eight senior Todd Millikan and Monte Kratzenstein, but had no pass receptions after coming back from a dislocated shoulder suffered in the spring game. On special teams, he was credited with one assisted tackle.

1987: Garrett played two games with the freshman team, catching two passes for 21 yards, but then suffered a severe ankle sprain and received a hardship year.

At Snyder HS: A two-time All-West Texas and All-South Plains tight end for Coach Dennis Tomlin, Garrett also started three years in basketball. As a senior, he caught 15 passes for 201 yards and averaged eight tackles per game on the football field, then averaged 17 points and 13 rebounds per game on the basketball floor.

Personal: Consumer science major. The son of Emma Garrett, he was born Nov. 17, 1968, at Duarte, Calif. He'll celebrate his 23rd birthday the day after this fall's Iowa State game.

Tom Haase Quarterback

Senior, 6-0, 185
Aurora, Neb. 1L

1987: After walking on, Haase shared starting quarterback duties with McCant on Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team, completing 29 of 60 passes for 388 yards and four touchdowns, while throwing four interceptions. He was the third-leading rusher on the team with 100 yards and two touchdowns on 32 attempts.

At Aurora HS: Haase played quarterback and defensive back for Coach Jack Guggenmos, and was an all-class, all-state DB, as well as the honorary captain of the Class B all-state defensive unit. He was an all-state basketball player on Aurora's 1987 Class B state championship team, and, as noted above, was one of the state's best-ever track athletes. He made a recruiting visit to Colorado State before deciding to walk on at Nebraska.

Personal: Speech communications major. The son of Charles and Mary Haase, he was born Feb. 15, 1969, at Superior, Neb. He has two older brothers, including Dave, who was a walk-on player and later a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers.

A former walk-on who made good, Tom Haase (pronounced hawz) was one of Nebraska's bright spots in the Citrus Bowl loss to Georgia Tech and went on to share the No. 1 spot at quarterback at the end of spring practice—with returning starter Mickey Joseph. Haase came off the bench against the Yellow Jackets to replace Mike Grant (who started in place of the injured Joseph) to complete 14 of 21 passes, with no interceptions for 209 yards and two TDs in his first extensive playing time. Although his emergence as a collegiate quarterback has come somewhat late in his career, his athletic ability was never in doubt. As a senior at Aurora High School, he long jumped 24-6 1/2, the second-best in Nebraska prep history behind the 24-10 1/2 by another fairly good football player, Gale Sayers of Omaha Central in 1961.

1990: Nebraska's No. 3 quarterback most of the season behind Joseph and Grant, Haase saw action in eight of Nebraska's 11 games, and completed two of seven passes for 8 yards, with one interception. He also rushed 15 times for 101 yards, had a 32-yard non-scoring run against Missouri and scored his first career touchdown on a 6-yard run vs. the Tigers.

1989: Haase missed Nebraska's first four games because of a slight shoulder separation, then saw action against Kansas State and Kansas after his return, rushing twice for 10 yards and throwing one incomplete pass.

1988: Redshirt.

Travis Hill Outside Linebacker

Honorable-Mention
All-Big Eight
Junior, 6-2, 230
Pearland, Texas 2L

After starting all 11 games, plus the Citrus bowl at left outside linebacker as a sophomore, Hill is expected to carry on in Nebraska's great tradition at outside 'backer following Broderick Thomas, Jeff Mills and Mike Croel since 1986.

1990: One of the bright young stars in the Big Eight, Hill saw plenty of action come his way playing on the opposite end of the line from Croel (the fourth selection overall in the 1991 NFL draft) and All-America tackle Kenny Walker. Hill was sixth on the team with 49 total tackles, and tied for third in tackles for loss with 10 for 43 yards. He was also second behind Walker in quarterback hurries with 12 and led the Huskers in fumble recoveries with three. Hill, who has played every game the last two years, finished his sophomore campaign with career highs of 11 tackles and eight solos at Oklahoma, a performance which earned him CBS Nebraska player-of-the-game and NU defensive player-of-the-week honors. Against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl, he had four tackles, including two for losses of 6 yards.

1989: Hill came off a redshirt year to back up the All-Big Eight Mills, and had an outstanding rookie season. He played in all 11 games, recording 25 total tackles (16 unassisted), including six for losses totaling 30 yards, three of those quarterback sacks for 25 yards lost. He had six hurries, one of which resulted in a Husker interception vs. Utah.

He also caused a fumble against the Utes, and had a blocked punt against Missouri which was recovered by teammate Reggie Cooper in the end zone for a touchdown. Hill also recorded his career tackle high at Mizzou with five total stops.

1988: Redshirted in his first year at Nebraska.

At Pearland HS: Hill was a two-time all-district, All-Brazoria County and All-Greater Houston linebacker for Coach Rod Ivy. He helped lead Pearland to the state playoffs as a junior in 1986, but the school fell to 0-10 his senior year. An all-around athlete, he also lettered three times in basketball and twice in track.

Personal: Consumer Science major. Travis has two younger brothers, Trent and Trevor. He was born Oct. 3, 1969, at Texas City, Texas.

alternate at wingback for the Huskers going into the fall. One of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns.

Personal: Consumer science major. The son of Anita Hughes, he was born Jan. 14, 1970.

when Turner was recuperating from a broken collarbone.

1989: Hughes won the Big Eight punt-return title and ranked seventh nationally in punt returns, averaging 15.13 yards on 15 returns to beat out Colorado's Jeff Campbell (14.60) for the conference crown. Hughes had the Huskers' longest punt return of the season, a 59-yard non-scoring jaunt at Missouri, and was also the team's second-leading kickoff returner, with 158 yards on eight returns for 19.8-yard average. He played in all 11 games, including a start against Iowa State, when he caught two passes for 41 yards and the first two TD's of his career. He was sixth on the team in all-purpose yards, averaging 42.7 yards per game.

1988: Redshirted in his first year at NU.

At New Orleans St. Augustine

HS: The Louisiana offensive player-of-the-year in 1987, Hughes rushed 62 times for 845 yards and a 13.6-yard average from his wingback position, caught 20 passes for 601 yards in a run-oriented offense, and scored 22 TD's. He averaged 40.4 yards on nine kickoff returns, three of them TD's, and averaged 14 yards on punt returns. One of his teammates at St. Augustine (pronounced ah-GUST-in) was David White, an outside line-backer and possible starter for the Huskers this fall. Another teammate was Vincent Hawkins, a redshirted junior college transfer who is listed as an

In one of Nebraska's position changes in the spring, Hughes was switched from wingback (where he shared time with Nate Turner the last two seasons) to split end, where he'll go into the fall listed even with Dan Pleasant behind returning starter Jon Bostick. One of NU's fastest players, he had the squad's third-fastest 40-yard time in the spring at 4.42 seconds.

1990: One of the most dangerous return men in the country, Hughes led the Big Eight and was third in the nation in kickoff returns with a 29.1-yard average and set a Nebraska single-season record with 523 kickoff-return yards, breaking the old record of 510 set by Dana Brinson in 1988. The biggest chunk of Hughes' kickoff-return yards came at Kansas State, Oct. 6, when he returned three kicks 151 yards, including a 99-yard touchdown, the Huskers' longest in 41 seasons. His yardage and return average (51.0) vs. the Wildcats set single-game records, breaking the old marks of 140 and 46.7 set by Bob Smith at Missouri in 1951. Hughes also ranked second in the Big Eight and 16th nationally in punt returns with a 12.5-yard average on 18 returns. He was seventh in the conference in all-purpose yards at 92.0 yards per game, including 113 yards on 10 pass receptions and 59 yards on 17 rushing attempts. His 251 all-purpose yards at K-State were the most for Nebraska this year, and equaled the sixth-best game in Husker history. He shared the No. 1 wingback spot most of the year with Nate Turner and started the season opener vs. Baylor,

Mickey Joseph Quarterback

Honorable-Mention
All-Big Eight
Marrero, La. 2L

Mickey Joseph staged a courageous comeback from a season-ending leg injury suffered in last November's regular-season finale at Oklahoma, went through spring practice with only one hitch, a minor shoulder bruise suffered the week of the spring game, and will go into the fall sharing first-team quarterback duties with Tom Haase.

1990: Joseph's season came to a premature end in the first quarter at Oklahoma, when he slid into a metal bench on the Sooner sideline, and suffered a severe laceration to the calf muscles in his left leg. Extensive surgery repaired the muscles and revealed no nerve damage—which, fortunately, turned out to be the case when he tested the leg in the spring. Joseph was the top-rated passer in the Big Eight with a 141.9 rating, as he completed 34 of 78 passes (43.6 percent) for 624 yards, with six interceptions, and shared the conference lead with 11 touchdown passes. He was Nebraska's third-leading rusher with 554 yards, and led the Huskers in touchdowns with 10. A two-time Big Eight offensive player-of-the-week, he received the awards following the Minnesota and Missouri games. Against the Gophers, he was seven of 11 for 117 yards and three TDs, while rushing for two scores. Against Mizzou, he tied a Nebraska quarterback record with four rushing TDs in a 95-yard day, and completed four of eight passes for 65 yards and a TD. His top passing day came at Kansas, where he completed seven of 16 for 165 yards and two TDs. His top rushing game was eight carries for 123 yards at Iowa State.

1989: The Huskers' alternate QB much of the season behind All-Big Eight Gerry Gdowski, Mickey saw action in eight games, completing four of 12 passes for 69 yards and two TDs, with no interceptions. He also finished as Nebraska's sixth-leading rusher with 210 yards and one TD on 39 carries. Joseph had the alternate spot to himself in the first two games, then shared duties for five games with fellow sophomore Mike Grant after the game at Minnesota—where the latter was pulled out of a planned redshirt year. Grant subsequently separated his shoulder in the Oct. 28 Iowa State game.

1988: Playing as the Huskers' No. 3 QB behind All-Big Eight senior Steve Taylor and Gdowski, Joseph saw action in seven games to earn his first varsity letter. He rushed 24 times for 215 yards and three TDs, with his top game coming in blizzard conditions at Iowa State, when he carried four times for 44 yards, and had a 24-yard run to the ISU 3, setting up a Leodis Flowers TD on the next play. His TDs came against Utah State, Arizona State and Kansas.

1987: Redshirted.

At New Orleans Shaw HS: A consensus prep All-American and the Louisiana offensive player-of-the-year for Coach Hank Tierney in 1986, Joseph was the most sought-after option QB in the nation in his senior year. Switched to QB after rushing for 771 yards and six TDs as a sophomore tailback. As a junior, he passed for 1,297 yards and 10 TDs, and rushed for 891 yards and nine scores. As a senior, he completed 62 of 115 passes (53.9 percent) for 1,135 yards and 12 TDs while rushing 153 times for 947 yards and 14 TDs in leading Shaw to an 11-1-0 record. Signed with Nebraska after a down-to-the wire recruiting effort by Oklahoma.

Personal: Human development major. The son of Robert and Linda Joseph, he was born March 5, 1968. His younger brother, Vance, is a candidate to be the starting QB at Colorado this fall.

Tyrone Legette Cornerback

Senior, 5-10, 180
Columbia, S.C. 2L

Personal: Speech communications major. The son of Earl and Annie Legette, Tyrone was born Feb. 15, 1970, at Columbia, S.C. He is the youngest of 10 children.

1989: Playing in all 11 games as a true sophomore, Legette recorded 14 total tackles (including seven unassisted stops), broke up a pass and had a 22-yard interception return vs. Kansas State. His top tackle game came in his first career start vs. Iowa State, a five-tackle effort. He had two tackles in the Fiesta Bowl loss to Florida State.

1988: The starting right corner for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 junior varsity team, Legette led the team in kickoff returns with five for 201 yards and a 40.2-yard average, helped by a 94-yard touchdown against the Air Force junior varsity, which started the junior Huskers to their way to a 35-16 win, Nebraska's first in three tries against the junior Falcons. He shared the team interception lead with safety Steve Carmer at two, returning one 27 yards for a touchdown vs. the St. Thomas (Minn.) jayvees. Finished the year with nine total tackles, eight unassisted.

At Columbia Spring Valley HS: The Columbia Touchdown Club's 1987 player-of-the-year, Legette was an all-area defensive back as a junior, and all-area running back as a senior for Coach Jerry Brown. Led his team to back-to-back 10-2-0 seasons in 1986 and 1987. In his first season as a running back in 1987, he set school rushing records of 210 attempts and 1,580 yards. Also lettered in track. Visited Wake Forest, Clemson and South Carolina before signing with Nebraska.

One of five returning starters from a 1990 defensive unit which lost six players to the NFL draft, including the third and fourth picks overall in cornerback Bruce Pickens and outside linebacker Mike Croel. After beating out eighth-round NFL pick Tahaun Lewis for the starting spot at right corner at the end of last season, he'll be a strong honors candidate in 1991. With Pickens and Lewis both gone to the NFL, Legette could be the top corner in the Big Eight this season. With fine speed at 1.50 seconds in the 10-yard dash and 4.45 in the 40, he'll also be used on kick returns.

1990: A versatile performer, Legette played in all 11 games at both cornerback spots. He started the Oklahoma State game at left corner ahead of Bruce Pickens, a two-time All-Big Eight pick. He again started in place of Lewis at right corner the next week at Iowa State, then started again at right corner the last two games of the regular season, at Kansas and Oklahoma, when Lewis was sidelined with a sprained ankle. Legette then started for the healthy Lewis against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl and equaled his season high with four tackles. He had 22 tackles as a junior, including 11 unassisted stops, caused three fumbles and recovered two others, and had two interceptions, one against Oregon State and one against Missouri. He had a season-high four tackles in each of the last five games, including the Citrus Bowl.

Daryl Leise Tight End

Phillips 66
Academic Honor Roll
Senior, 6-2, 240
Omaha, Neb. 1L
Creighton Prep

After a solid spring, Daryl Leise (pronounced LY-zee) will go into camp in August listed on the first team at tight end along with All-Big Eight sophomore Johnny Mitchell. They'll again be part of what is Nebraska's deepest, most-talented position, as both William Washington (a second-team All-Big Eight pick in 1989) and Chris Garrett also return. One of NU's strongest players, he was third on the team in spring testing with a 386-pound lift in the clean and tied for fourth in the bench press at 381 pounds. His strength index of 1,695 was the third-highest on the squad. A solid blocker, he's still looking for his first career reception.

1990: Leise was part of a three-man tight end rotation, first with Garrett and Washington, then with Washington and the freshman Mitchell after Garrett went down with a broken ankle against Oregon State. Leise was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1989: A non-lettered reserve, Leise saw action in five games.

1988: Redshirted as he switched from linebacker to tight end.

1987: A scholarship recruit, he started at weak-side linebacker for Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team, and finished with 13 total tackles, 10 of them unassisted.

At Omaha Creighton Prep HS: An all-state defensive end as a senior, Leise was one of the leaders on Coach Tom Jaworski's state championship teams in 1985 and 1986. A two-year starter on defense, he also started as a second tight end in the last few games of Prep's 12-0 season in 1986. He recorded 76 tackles as a senior, 52 unassisted, including nine for losses, and recovered a fumble for a touchdown. Daryl is one of three former Junior Jays who figure prominently for the Huskers this fall, joining I-back George Achola and offensive guard Dave Jensen.

Personal: A finance major in business college, Daryl owns a 3.414 grade-point average. The son of Roger and LaVonne Leise, he was born May 15, 1969, at Omaha. He has three sisters, Mary Beth, Michelle and Denise.

One of the best all-around athletes on the Husker team, Lance Lewis heads into his junior season sharing first-team fullback duties with senior Omar Soto. A two-sport star at NU, Lewis joined the Husker track team following the April 27 spring football game, and three weeks later, in his first season of track and field competition since high school, won the Big Eight shot put title with a throw of 58-3.

1990: After sitting out the 1989 season for a medical hardship and having surgery to repair an old high school neck injury, Lewis came back 100 percent and had an outstanding season. He played in all 11 regular-season games, sharing the top fullback spot with Soto. Lewis started six games, including all of the last five, and finished the year with 198 rushing yards on 47 attempts and earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors. Lewis' top rushing game was a four-carry, 32-yard day vs. Missouri, while his blocking helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in three offensive categories, rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). He also caught three passes for 39 yards. An excellent short-yardage runner, he's only been thrown for a loss once in 76 career attempts, and that was a 1-yard loss on a first-and-10 play at Kansas in 1990.

1989: Missed the season with a medical redshirt.

1988: A scholarship recruit,

Lewis moved up to the varsity shortly after his arrival on campus and never played with the junior varsity. He saw action in all 12 regular-season varsity games plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, and finished with 129 rushes for 132 yards. His top game was a 50-yard outing at Kansas, where he scored his only touchdown of the season on a 5-yard run. Lewis began the season as the No. 3 fullback behind Sam Schmidt and Bryan Carpenter, but moved up to the alternate spot for the last seven regular-season games after Schmidt broke a leg at UCLA and an experiment with Tyreese Knox at fullback ended when Knox had to go back to I-back due to a Terry Rodgers knee surgery. On special teams, Lewis had two unassisted tackles, one for a loss of 3 yards.

At Scott City HS: An all-state fullback and linebacker for Coach Dave Dunham, Lewis rushed for 1,600 yards and 24 touchdowns while leading his conference in tackles with 133, 88 of them unassisted. He also recovered two fumbles, caused six others and had an interception return for a touchdown as he led Scott City into the state playoffs for the first time in 13 years. The USA Today player-of-the-year in Kansas, Lewis had a rare triple at the Kansas state track and field meet—sweeping the 100- and 200-meter dashes, and winning the shot put to personally score 30 of Scott City's Class 4A winning total of 60 points.

Johnny Mitchell Tight End

Big Eight Co-Offensive
Freshman-of-the-Year
All-Big Eight
Sophomore, 6-3, 250
Chicago, Ill. 1L

After becoming only the second Husker ever to earn all-conference honors as a freshman (joining Tom "Train Wreck" Novak in 1946), Johnny Mitchell will be a strong honors candidate again in 1991. He'll start the fall sharing, with senior Daryl Leise, the top spot on the depth chart at Nebraska's deepest position—with veterans William Washington and Chris Garrett backing them up. NU's fastest tight end, he ran the 40 in 4.65 in spring testing and had the second-highest athletic index score (3,015 points) on the team.

1990: Mitchell came on strong at the end of the season to win first-team all-conference honors from both the Associated Press and United Press International. The youngster from Chicago, a true freshman, was Nebraska's second-leading receiver, catching 11 passes for 282 yards and a Big Eight-leading seven touchdowns, all in the last six games. He averaged 25.6 yards per catch to set a school record, breaking the old mark of 24.2 set by Frosty Anderson in 1972, and he had a string of five-straight games catching touchdown passes (Missouri-Kansas), the longest string since Johnny Rodgers had a five-game string in his Heisman Trophy-winning 1972 season, and one short of Rodgers' record string of six games in 1971. Mitchell's seven TD catches tied the school season record for tight ends, originally set by All-American Junior Miller in 1979 and tied by Todd Millikan in 1988. Described by quarterback Mickey Joseph as the ideal receiver, "big fella, runnin' fast," Johnny capped his rookie season with an outstanding performance against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl. Against the UPI national champion Yellow Jackets, he caught five passes for an NU bowl-record 138 yards (which would tie for sixth on the NU all-time chart), and scored the Huskers' first TD on a 30-yard toss from Tom Haase. Mitchell was the Huskers' fourth tight end going into the season, and did not play in the opener vs. Baylor, but became one of NU's top three at the position after junior Chris Garrett was lost to a broken ankle in the Oregon State game.

1989: Mitchell worked in Lincoln and attended the University on a part-time basis, then met the NCAA's Proposition 48 requirements.

At Chicago Simeon HS: An all-state tight end for Coach Al Scott in 1988, Mitchell caught 84 passes for 923 yards, in addition to intercepting two passes as a linebacker and returning two kickoffs for touchdowns. He was the starting tight end for Simeon's public league championship team as a sophomore in 1986 (his first year of organized football), then started at tailback as a junior before moving back to tight end as a senior. He was the heavy-weight runner-up in the Illinois state wrestling tournament in 1989.

Personal: A broadcasting major in the College of Journalism, he carries a 3.591 GPA. The son of Johnnie and Yvonne Mitchell, Johnny was born Jan. 20, 1971.

1991 Florida Citrus Bowl: receiving, 5 for NU bowl-record 138 yards, 1 TD.

A three-year starter, Mike Petko is the most-experienced veteran on a Husker defense that must replace six players who were taken in April's NFL draft, plus two others who later signed free-agent contracts. He's also Nebraska's top returning tackler (62) and will be counted on to provide leadership to a rebuilt Blackshirt unit.

1990: Petko was Nebraska's No. 1 strong-side linebacker all season, and finished as the Huskers' fourth-leading tackler, helped by a career-high 15 stops in the season-ending loss at Oklahoma, the most tackles for a Nebraska player since LeRoy Etienne's 15 vs. the Sooners in 1987. He also had three tackles for 7 yards lost, a 5-yard sack, four pass breakups, four hurries, and an interception against No. 1 Colorado, with the interception setting up a short drive to a field goal. He then had four tackles, including a sack, vs. Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl. A big-game performer, his top three regular-season tackle games as a junior came against the Huskers' top three opponents, 11 vs. Baylor, eight vs. Colorado and the 15 vs. OU. He has a 3.36 grade-point average in economics.

1989: Playing as a true sophomore, Petko took over as the starter on the strong-side after the season's first game, and stayed there until he strained knee ligaments late in the Huskers' 27-21 loss at Colorado, Nov. 4. He missed the Kansas and Oklahoma games, but did not need surgery and started in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl game vs. Florida State, recording four tackles, including two behind the line. Despite playing in just nine regular-season games, he tied for sixth on the team in tackles with All-Big Eight defensive tackle Kent Wells. Petko had 36 total stops, 16 unassisted, and one for a loss of 2 yards. His top tackle game was seven against Iowa State, and he shared the team lead with six in the 48-0 shutout of Minnesota. He received honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors from the conference coaches. He was also honorable-mention Lee Jeans Academic All-Big Eight.

1988: Petko started at strong-side linebacker for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 junior varsity team, and tied for third on the squad in tackles with 25, including 11 unassisted stops. He had one tackle behind the line for a loss of 5 yards, recovered a fumble and broke up a pass.

At Anaheim Servite HS: A two-year starter at outside linebacker for Coach Leo Hand, he was a two-time all-league pick and earned All-Orange County honors as a senior, when he was credited with 97 total tackles, two interceptions, three fumble recoveries, two fumbles caused, five sacks and two quarterback hurries. As a junior in 1986, he had 63 total tackles, including 12 sacks. Servite also sent the Huskers their starting I-back, sophomore Derek Brown.

Will Shields

Offensive Guard
All-Big Eight
Junior, 6-1, 280
Lawton, Okla. 2L

After earning All-Big Eight honors as a true sophomore last year, Will Shields should be one of Nebraska's offensive mainstays at right guard the next two years. He's added 15 pounds from his pre-season weight a year ago.

1990: A true sophomore and the Huskers' first player ever from the state of Oklahoma, Shields was named a first-team All-Big Eight guard by the league's coaches to become the first Nebraska offensive lineman since center Dave Rimington in 1980 to be named all-conference as a sophomore. He was the first true sophomore offensive lineman to earn all-conference honors since the advent of two-platoon football in 1965. Shields played in all 11 games and started seven at right guard, including each of the last six and the bowl as he helped the Huskers lead the Big Eight in three categories, rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). Nebraska narrowly missed a third-straight NCAA rushing title, finishing second to Northern Illinois by just 4.6 yards per game. Shields also helped power Nebraska to the two top rushing games of the season in the Big Eight, 557 at Iowa State and 500 vs. Missouri.

1989: A scholarship recruit,

Shields moved up to the varsity squad early in fall camp and played in nine of NU's 11 games to earn his letter. He and defensive back John Reece were the only true freshmen to letter on the 1989 Husker team.

At Lawton HS: A three-year starter at both offensive guard and defensive tackle for Coach Derald Ahlschlager, Shields helped lead Lawton to the state title in 1987, and was an all-state pick and the the Daily Oklahoman's selection as Oklahoma lineman-of-the-year as a senior in 1988. One of his teammates was Oklahoma's standout running back, Dewell Brewer.

Personal: The son of Will and Rosie Shields, he was born Sept. 15, 1971, and will celebrate his 20th birthday the day after the Colorado State game.

All-Big Eight offensive guard Will Shields is one of two starters returning on the Husker line.

After a solid first year at Nebraska in 1990, Soto emerged from spring practice as the Huskers' No. 1 fullback, winning the starting job back from Lance Lewis, who had moved into the starting role for the final five regular-season games last season.

1990: The Miami native played in 10 regular-season games, missing only the Iowa State game due to a strained knee, and started five of the first six games, plus the Citrus Bowl game in his native state of Florida when Lewis was held out for disciplinary reasons. Soto came off a redshirt season to finish as the Huskers' fifth-leading rusher with 288 yards and a 6.1 average on 47 carries. Omar had his career rushing high with 95 yards on 10 carries vs. Oregon State, while his only touchdown of the season came on an 8-yard run against Northern Illinois. His blocking helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in rushing (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game).

1989: Nebraska's only junior-college recruit, he redshirted.

At Western Arizona CC: Soto rushed for nearly 600 yards in eight games as a sophomore in 1988, but Coach Steve Casey said some 420 came after first contact. As a fullback Omar didn't receive all-conference honors, but was the only running back from the Western States Football League to sign with a Division I-A program.

At Miami HS: An outstanding prep fullback, Soto chose the junior-college route out of high school.

Personal: Human development major. The son of the late Omar Soto and Josefina Respeto, Omar was born Oct. 14, 1967, in Miami Beach, Fla. He was married in the spring of 1990 to his high school sweetheart, Bertha "Bee" Monte.

Mike Stigge Punter

Junior, 6-2, 190
Washington, Kan. 2L
Phillips 66 Academic
All-Big Eight
GTE Academic All-District

The Husker punter the last two years, Mike Stigge will be a candidate for post-season honors this year if he maintains the pace he set at the end of his sophomore season. He'll again serve as the holder on place-kicks.

1990: After a shaky start to his sophomore season, Stigge (pronounced STIGG-ee) turned things around and became one of the Big Eight's best punters over the conference season. A Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight and GTE Academic All-District pick, he averaged just 35.9 yards on nine punts in the first four games, but came back with the best day of his career in the conference opener at Kansas State, averaging 47.7 yards on six kicks. He did not punt the following week in NU's 69-21 win over Missouri, and went on to averaged 43.0 on 31 punts against conference teams. Mike had a 44.5-yard average on seven punts in the wind and rain against Colorado, including a career-long 54-yarder, and a 45.3-yard average on seven punts vs. Oklahoma. In the end, he averaged 41.38 yards on 40 punts on the season to rank 21st in the nation and second in the Big Eight behind Brad Reddell of Oklahoma (41.58). Another 9 yards total on his punts would have won him the conference title.

1989: Stigge took over for graduated three-year starting punter John Krocker, and averaged a creditable 39.7 yards on 35 punts, with a long kick of 51 yards. He surprised Florida State with a fake punt four plays into the Fiesta Bowl as he hit Mark Dowse with a 41-yard pass to the Seminole Seminoles' 22. FSU was also hit with a roughing-the-passer penalty on the play, and three downs later, Gerry Gdowski threw a 9-yard TD pass to Morgan Gregory to give the Huskers a short-lived 7-0 lead.

1988: Redshirt.

At Washington HS: An all-state defensive back for Coach Alan Beam, Stigge also played quarterback and handled punting and kicking duties. He lettered four times each in football and track, three times in basketball.

Personal: Pre-veterinary major, he has a 3.615 grade-point average. The son of LaVern and Verlene Stigge, Mike was born Oct. 31, 1969, at Hanover, Kan. He has four sisters.

Nate Turner Wingback

Chicago, Ill. 3L

Turner caught just inbounds at the MU 11. That set up a go-ahead field goal as the Huskers went on to eke out a 26-18 win.

1987: Redshirted.

At Chicago Mount Carmel HS:

A Bally and Parade prep All-American for Coach Frank Lenti, Turner put together an outstanding senior season in 1986, as he caught 35 passes for 544 yards and seven touchdowns, rushed 38 times for 291 yards and three TD's, returned 13 punts 191 yards, including a 76-yard TD, and returned 10 kickoffs 325 yards, including a 96-yard TD. He received the Tony Lawless Award as the most valuable player in the Chicago Catholic League.

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Turner, he was born May 28, 1969.

together some impressive numbers. A wingback in a tight end's body, he rushed 13 times for 119 yards, averaging 9.2 yards per attempt, was the Huskers' fourth-leading receiver with 10 catches for 173 yards, and averaged 19.5 yards on four kickoff returns. His top rushing game was three carries for 34 yards vs. Utah, and his top receiving game was five for 89 yards at Minnesota. Turner started two games (Oregon State and Colorado), but sat out the Kansas State, Missouri and Oklahoma State games with the bad leg. He also missed the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl game vs. Florida State because of a pulled quadricep muscle.

1988: Nebraska's alternate split end behind Morgan Gregory after moving over from wingback in the spring, Turner was the Huskers' fifth-leading receiver, catching eight passes for 150 yards during the regular season, then snared one for 6 yards in the Orange Bowl vs. Miami. He had one multi-reception game, catching two for 23 yards vs. Texas A&M in the Kickoff Classic in his Nebraska debut. Turner's longest reception was one of the biggest of the year for the Huskers. An inspired Missouri team had retaken the lead, 15-14, late in the third quarter of the Oct. 29 Husker-Tiger game, and had Nebraska third-and-14 at the NU 30. Mizzou forced Husker quarterback Steve Taylor out of the pocket, then Taylor let fly with a 59-yard bomb which

One of the mainstays of the Husker offense the last three years, Nate Turner will go into his senior season as Nebraska's No. 1 wingback, ahead of Mark Dowse and junior-college transfer Vince Hawkins. An all-purpose performer who has averaged 13.8 yards every time he has touched the ball in his career as a runner, receiver and kick-returner, he nevertheless is still looking for his first collegiate touchdown. He's also one of NU's best blockers.

1990: After missing three mid-season games as a sophomore in 1989, Turner had to sit out Nebraska's first three games due to a broken collarbone suffered in a non-contact drill on Aug. 12. He bounced back to start six games at wingback, and was the Huskers' fourth-leading receiver with nine catches for 91 yards. Nate also averaged 9.3 yards on eight rushing attempts, 18.3 yards on four punt returns, and had a 20-yard kickoff return. His top receiving game was three catches for 28 yards at Kansas State, and his top rushing game was 51 yards on four carries at Iowa State. Against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl, he had 136 all-purpose yards.

1989: After lettering as a split end as a redshirt freshman in 1988, Turner returned to wingback in the spring. Despite missing three mid-season games because of a badly pulled leg muscle, and sharing time with senior starter Richard Bell and Tyrone Hughes, Turner put

William Washington Tight End

Junior, 6-2, 255
Tyler, Texas 2L

One of four prospects battling at Nebraska's deepest, most-talented position, William Washington is expected to share tight end duties with sophomore Johnny Mitchell and seniors Daryl Leise and Chris Garrett. An indication of the depth is that Washington was a second-team All-Big Eight pick as a freshman in 1989, while Mitchell was a first-time all-conference choice as freshman last year.

1990: Washington missed four games because of injuries and a death in the family, but started six others as he shared in a Husker tight-end rotation with Garrett, Leise, and Mitchell. One of the Huskers' top blockers, he helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in three offensive categories, rushing (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring (37.5 points per game), but he's still looking for his first regular-season career reception—although he did catch a 21-yard TD pass from Tom Haase against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl. William missed the Oregon State game due to a death in his family, then sat out the Kansas, Missouri and Iowa State contests because of a sprained ankle.

1989: Washington saw action in 10 of 11 regular-season games as a redshirt freshman, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. He missed only the Iowa State contest because of a sprained ankle, and started three games (Minnesota, Oklahoma State and Oklahoma). Earned second-team All-Big Eight honors from United Press International and honorable-mention all-league from the conference coaches, despite not catching a pass.

1988: He moved up to the varsity shortly after arriving on campus, then redshirted to save a year of eligibility.

At Tyler Lee HS: A two-way starter for Coach Biff Peterson, Washington was the only player in his district to be a unanimous all-district choice on both offense and defense in 1987. Also a unanimous All-East Texas selection, he caught 15 passes for 300 yards and four touchdowns as a tight end in an option offense, and recorded 72 tackles, broke up two passes and recovered three fumbles as an outside linebacker on defense. He led the school to an 8-2-1 record and into the state playoffs for the first time in 30 years. He was listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students and was a member of the Distinguished Society of American High School Students.

Personal: Finance major in Business College. The son of William and JoAnn Washington, he was born June 22, 1970, at Tyler. He has a younger brother, Roderick.

White sat out spring practice while recovering from rotator cuff surgery performed following the Citrus Bowl, but is expected to be 100 percent this fall. He'll be a top candidate to start at right outside linebacker, where he and Trev Alberts give the Huskers two standout replacements for the NFL's fourth draft choice, Mike Croel.

1990: After playing every game as the alternate right outside linebacker as a redshirt freshman in 1989, White switched to the left side in 1990 and again played in every contest, this time as the alternate behind Travis Hill. He finished with 24 total tackles, including three for losses of 8 yards. He also caused one fumble, recovered two others, had the Huskers' only blocked kick of the season (a partially-blocked field goal at Kansas State), and three quarterback hurries. He equaled his career tackle high with five at Kansas. He carried a 3.14 grade-point average in pre-medicine and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

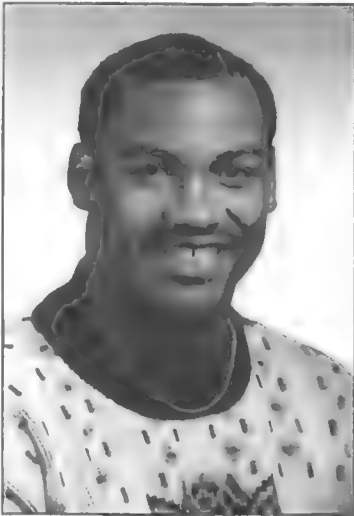

1989: One of five redshirt freshmen who had significant impacts, White played in every game as the Huskers' alternate right outside linebacker behind junior Mike Croel. He finished the year with 20 total tackles, 12 unassisted, including one quarter-back sack for a 7-yard loss. He also had a 5-yard pass interception on the final play of the game at Minnesota (where he had his career tackle high of five) and recovered a fumble on kickoff coverage against Kansas, setting up a 24-yard touchdown drive.

1988: White advanced to the varsity squad soon after practice started in August, then redshirted to save a year of eligibility while he made the change to outside linebacker after from playing offense his last two years in high school.

At New Orleans St. Augustine HS: After earning all-district honors as a sophomore defensive end in 1985, White was switched to tight end for his junior and senior seasons. A fine blocker on a run-oriented team, he caught 15 passes for 225 yards as a senior and earned All-Metro New Orleans honors on a team that was ranked No. 1 in Louisiana until it was upset in the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. At St. Augustine (pronounced ah-GUST-in), one of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns, and one of his teammates was Tyrone Hughes, the Louisiana offensive player-of-the-year in 1987 and now a junior split end at Nebraska. Another teammate was Vincent Hawkins, a redshirt junior-college transfer who is listed as an alternate at wingback for the Huskers going into camp in August.

Personal: Pre-medicine major. The son of LeRoy Jr. and Sheila White, David was born Feb. 27, 1970. His father is a chemical engineer.

Erik Wiegert Offensive Tackle

Fremont, Neb. 2L
Bergan

A part-time starter at both offensive guard and tackle as a sophomore and junior, Erik Wiegert will hold down the No. 1 spot at left tackle in 1991. He had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn knee cartilage in the spring, but is expected to be full speed in the fall. His younger brother, Zach, a promising red-shirt freshman is third on the depth chart at right tackle, and the possibility exists that the two could start together this fall.

1990: Erik started four of Nebraska's first five games at right guard in 1990, but missed the Missouri game because of a jammed neck, then switched to left guard for the final five games and played as the alter-nate behind senior Jim Wanek. Wiegert's blocking helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in three offensive categories, rushing yards (340.0 per game), total yards (444.4) and points (37.5 per game). He also helped NU rush for 557 yards at Iowa

State, the best single-game performance for a Big Eight team on the season, but the Huskers' just missed their goal of a third-straight NCAA rushing crown, finishing second to Northern Illinois by 4.6 yards per game.

A versatile performer, he was listed as the alternate right guard behind senior Bill Bobbora for most of the season, but started two games at right tackle (Utah and Oregon State) while All-American Doug Glaser was sidelined by a broken big toe. Wiegert probably would have started all three games which Glaser missed, but sat out the Minnesota game himself because of back spasms. He played in 10 games, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State, and helped the Huskers lead the nation in rushing for the sixth time in the 1980s at 375.3 yards per game. NU also led the Big Eight in scoring offense at 44.7 points per game (second nationally) and total offense at 513.3 yards per game (third in the NCAA).

At Fremont Bergan HS: Erik was an all-class, all-state defensive end as a senior in 1986 when he led Coach Joe Vojtech's team to a 10-2 record and a spot in the semifinals of the Class C-1 state playoffs. Later, he led Bergan to the Class C-1 state basketball title.

He recorded 122 total tackles as a senior, including 68 unassisted and 17 for loss, while breaking up two passes and recovering two opponents' fumbles. He received the "Gold Hatchet" award as Bergan's top defensive player.

Personal: Finance major in Business College. Last name is pronounced WEE-gert. He's the son of Hedy Wiegert and was born May 6, 1969, at Fremont, Neb.

George Achola
I-Back
 Senior/Grad Student,
 5-10, 195
 Omaha, Neb. 1L
 Creighton Prep

1988: Redshirt.

1987: A scholarship recruit, Achola led the Husker junior varsity team in rushing (506 yards on a record 93 attempts in five games) and scoring (36 points on six touchdowns). His top game was 184 yards, including a 71-yard touchdown run, vs. Waldorf Junior College. Also had two carries for 4 yards in one varsity appearance.

At Omaha Creighton Prep HS:

Two-year all-state performer for Coach Tom Jaworski, Achola rushed for 2,348 yards and 31 touchdowns in 1985 and 1986 as the Junior Jays went 23-1 overall and won back-to-back state titles. George is one of three Prep graduates who figure highly in NU's offense this fall, joining guard Dave Jensen and tight end Daryl Leise.

Personal: Son of Paul and Helen Achola, he was born Sept. 3, 1968, at Nairobi, Kenya, and spoke Swahili in his early years. His father is a professor at the University of Zambia.

After a solid junior year and a fine spring, George Achola will go into 1991 listed with Scott Baldwin as one of the alternates at I-back behind Derek Brown. Achola received his bachelor's degree in integrated studies and will play as a graduate student this fall. He had a summer internship in the Washington, D.C., office of U.S. Rep. Peter Hoagland of Omaha. One of the Huskers' strongest backs, he had a 352-pound bench press in spring testing.

1990: Nebraska's sixth-leading rusher, Achola played in every game and finished with 239 yards and three touchdowns on 36 attempts, averaging 6.6 yards per attempt, the best among NU I-backs. One of four Husker I-backs to record 100-yard games (with Leodis Flowers, Baldwin, Brown), he ran for a career- and team-high 127 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries in the 56-0 win over Minnesota. Achola's other touchdowns on the year came against Iowa State and Kansas. With four tackles on special teams, he tied fullback Tim Johnk for first in tackles among offensive players. He added another tackle against Georgia Tech in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

1989: Achola missed nearly the entire season because of a broken leg, and played only in the Kansas game, when he had one carry for 7 yards.

Mike Anderson
Inside Linebacker
 NU Lifter-of-the-Year
 Sophomore, 6-2, 230
 Grand Island, Neb. 1L

Following a solid freshman season, Mike Anderson moved up to the No. 1 spot at weak-side linebacker in the spring, and is slated to be the replacement for graduated two-time All-Big Eight pick Pat Tyrance. One of Nebraska's strongest players, he tied for first on the team in spring testing in both the bench press (408 pounds) and the clean (391) while his strength index of 1,837 points was second only to Curtis Cotton. For his efforts, his team-mates voted him 1991 Lifter-of-the-Year following spring drills.

1990: One of several redshirt freshmen who made significant contributions, Anderson was the Huskers' alternate weak-side linebacker behind Tyrance. He played in all 11 games and finished with 18 tackles, including a sack for 7 yards lost. Also had a fumble recovery, vs. Oklahoma State, and a quarterback hurry. His top tackle game was four vs. Missouri.

1989: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted in his first season at NU.

At Grand Island HS: One in the latest of a long line of recruits who played for former Husker Kenny Fischer, Anderson was the offensive captain of the all-class, all-state team in 1988. An all-conference linebacker and tight end, he had more than 50 tackles as a senior, while catching 15 passes for 400-plus yards and nine touchdowns.

Personal: Mike is an undeclared major. The son of Roger and Melodee Anderson, Mike was born Oct. 5, 1970, at Sacramento, Calif. He has one sister, Jenny.

#23

Ernie Beler
Strong Safety
Sophomore, 5-11, 220
Plainfield, N.J.
Bayonne

A transfer from Ellsworth (Iowa) Community College, Ernie Beler originally signed a letter-of-intent with Nebraska as a senior at Bayonne High School in 1988, but didn't qualify under the NCAA's Proposition 48 standards. Beler (pronounced BEE-ler) graduated from Ellsworth last December, enrolled at NU for the spring semester and went through spring drills with the Huskers. He adjusted well and worked his way up the depth chart to the No. 2 spot at strong safety, where he'll go into the fall as the alternate behind veteran Steve Carmer.

At Ellsworth CC: All-region and all-conference as a freshman for Coach Lloyd Sisco in 1989, he helped the Panthers reach the junior-college championship game. He then redshirted in 1990 and has three years of eligibility remaining at Nebraska.

At Bayonne HS: Beler was a two-time all-state running back for Coach Don Ahern at Bayonne High School, where he also played linebacker.

Personal: A consumer science major, Ernie is the son of Anna Sargent, and has a brother, Lenard Sargent, and a sister, Cynt Sargent. He was born Dec. 5, 1968, at Bayonne, N.J.

Byron Bennett
Place-kicker
Sophomore, 6-1, 185
Rowlett, Texas
Lakeview Centennial

With the departure of Nebraska's all-time kick-scorer, Gregg Barrios (205 points), Byron Bennett becomes Nebraska's No. 1 place-kicker. As such, he'll become the first Husker kicker to face the challenge of goal posts that have been narrowed from 23-4 to 18-6. The strong-legged sophomore will continue to handle kickoffs, and will be the backup punter behind veteran Mike Stigge.

1990: As a redshirt freshman Bennett handled kickoffs for Nebraska all season long. He was 2-of-2 on PATs in 1990, with both kicks vs. Northern Illinois.

1989: Redshirt.

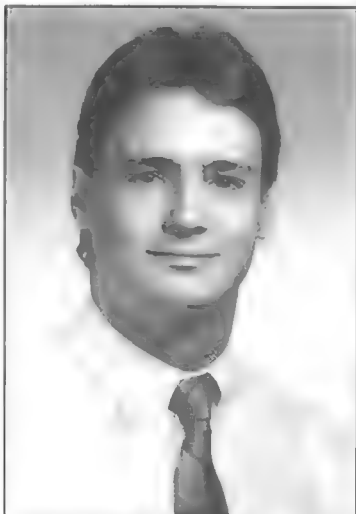

At Lakeview Centennial HS: Bennett was an all-district and All-Metroplex (Dallas/Fort Worth) kicker for Coach Tommy Watkins. He was seven of 10 on field goals of 40 or more yards, and a long of 53, and a narrow miss on a 63-yarder. Bennett averaged 43 yards as a punter. He also played quarterback as a sophomore and junior, then concentrated on kicking as a senior.

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of Ted and Kay Bennett, he was born Dec. 7, 1970, at Dallas, Texas.

#94

Defensive Tackle
 Senior, 6-6, 275
 Indianola, Neb. 1L
 Republican Valley

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of University of Oklahonma grads Ron and Shirley Brown, he was born Feb. 6, 1969, at McCook, Neb.

After lettering as the Huskers' alternate defensive right tackle behind All-American Kenny Walker last year, Brian Brown will go into his senior season sharing the top spot at that position with junior Jamie Liewer. Brown missed the last part of spring practice because of arthroscopic knee surgery to repair torn cartilage on April 18, but he's expect to be at full speed when practice begins in August.

1990: Brown saw action in 10 of 11 games as the alternate behind Walker, missing only the opener vs. Baylor. He finished the year with seven tackles, one for a loss of 2 yards and one fumble recovery.

1989: Not listed on the three-deep coming out of spring practice, Brown nevertheless worked his way onto that chart and earned a letter after seeing action in five games and recording five total tackles.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: An alternate defensive tackle for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team, Brown recorded 16 total tackles, one for a loss of 2 yards.

At Republican Valley HS: Slowed by a shoulder injury in his senior season in 1986, Brian averaged 13 tackles per game while playing in five of his team's 10 games. An all-state selection in spite of the missed time, he was also a three-time all-conference pick for Coach Larry Brown. Also lettered in basketball.

#31

Steve Carmer
Strong Safety
 Junior, 6-2, 205
 Wahoo, Nebr. 1L

After lettering as the alternate free safety behind Tyrone Byrd last year, Steve Carmer moved to strong safety in the spring and will start practice in August as the top candidate to replace two-time All-Big Eight pick Reggie Cooper.

1990: Carmer played in all 11 games, and was a major contributor on special teams. He finished with 25 tackles, including 14 unassisted stops, had two pass breakups, and had one quarterback hurry against Missouri which resulted in a Husker interception. He had a career-high six tackles against Oklahoma State, then had five in the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: Carmer started at free safety for the 5-0-0 junior varsity team and shared the squad lead in interceptions with corner back Tyrone Legette at two, returning his 53 and 20 yards. Carmer tied for third on the team and led the secondary in total tackles with 25, including 20 unassisted stops. He also had four pass breakups. He saw action as a reserve in the varsity's 48-6 win over Nevada-Las Vegas and made one unassisted tackle.

At Wahoo HS: An all-class, all-state defensive back for Coach Dick Tinglehoff, Carmer had 65 tackles (one for a safety), three fumble recoveries and 65-yard interception-return touchdown. On offense, he rushed for 1,077 yards and caught seven passes for 255 yards, while averaging 27.7 yards on kickoff returns. He was also the leading scorer (16.6 ppg) on Wahoo's Class B state championship basketball team and was in on the start of the Warriors' state-record and still-running 90-game win string.

Personal: English major. He's a first cousin of Iowa State Sports Information Director Dave Starr. The son of Phil and Carole Carmer, Steve has two older brothers. He was born Aug. 26, 1969, at Wahoo.

#55Terris Chorney Center

Phillips 66

Academic Honor Roll

Junior, 6-1, 275

Ituna, Saskatchewan, Can. 1L

Saskatoon Holy Cross

After lettering as a reserve center behind academic All-American senior David Edeal last year, Terris Chorney appeared ready to challenge for the starting job in the spring before he was sidelined by a broken hand. When practice resumes in August, he'll be No. 3 at the position behind Jim Scott and Bill Ziegelbein, but could move up.

1990: With a 3.402 cumulative GPA in Civil Engineering, Chorney was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll. He was also a finalist for the team's Lifter-of-the-Year award.

1989: Redshirt.

At Saskatoon Holy Cross HS:

Terris played center and offensive tackle for the large-school provincial champions as a junior in 1986, then was named the outstanding lineman in the 1987 Senior Bowl all-star game. He also played hockey and team handball at the school, and was named rookie lineman of the year for the national champion Regina Rams in junior football.

Personal: A civil engineering major, he carries a 3.402 grade-point average. The son of James and Sylvia Chorney, he was born Nov. 11, 1969, at Ituna. He has two older brothers.

#45Zeke Cisco

Sophomore, 5-11, 190

Monroe, Mich.

A former walk-on, Zeke Cisco will go into camp in August listed third with Brian Pollard on the Husker depth chart at strong safety, where they'll back up Steve Carmer and Ernie Beler.

1990: Redshirted and switched from free to strong safety.

At Monroe Jefferson High

School: Zeke was a three-year letterman as a quarterback and defensive back for his father, Coach Marc Cisco, on teams that went 7-2, 7-3, 8-2. He was a two-time all-league defensive back and was all-state and all-metro Detroit as a senior. An all-around athlete, he lettered four times in baseball and three times in basketball.

Personal: A secondary education-biology major, he has a 3.238 grade-point average. The son of Marc and Donna Cisco, he was born Aug. 23, 1970, at Ann Arbor, Mich. He has one brother, Zack, and three sisters, Kim, Sheri and Jan.

#17

Sedric Collins
Cornerback
 Freshman, 6-0, 185
 Slidell, La.

Personal: Business administration major. The son of Welbert and Sandra Collins. Sedric was born Oct. 15, 1971 at Bogalusa, La. He has a sister, Philicia.

After a spring-long battle, redshirt freshman Sedric Collins will go into practice in August listed as Nebraska's No. 3 right cornerback, behind converted veteran strong safety Curtis Cotton and redshirt junior college transfer Kenny Wilhite. Collins is the Huskers' second recruit out of Slidell, La., in recent years, following in footsteps of his cousin, two-time All-Big Eight strong safety Reggie Cooper. Collins will wear Cooper's old No. 17 jersey.

1990: Collins redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Slidell HS: A four-year starter in the defensive backfield for Coach Wayne Grubb, Collins started as a freshman alongside Cooper in 1986. Collins, who also played wingback, split end and tight end, recorded 53 total tackles as a senior in 1989, including 38 unassisted stops, had three pass interceptions (to give him 21 in his career) and two fumble recoveries, returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown and averaged 38 yards on kickoff returns. Helped Slidell to a 9-3 record and the second round of the playoffs last fall in Class AAAA, Louisiana's second largest class. He was a two-time all-district performer and earned all-state as a senior. He also won the Class AAAA 110-meter high hurdle title in 14.41 seconds last spring after a runner-up finish as a junior with a time of 14.04.

Curtis Cotton
Strong Safety
 Senior, 6-1, 210
 Omaha, Neb. 2L
 Central

After lettering as the alternate strong safety behind All-Big Eight Reggie Cooper the last two years, Curtis Cotton switched to left cornerback in the spring and finished spring drills at the top of that depth chart. He also changed his jersey number, to 9, after wearing No. 24 in 1989 and 1990. Cotton was once again the star of winter conditioning, as he posted the squad's top scores in both the athletic (3,327 points) and strength (1,881) indexes in testing in March. He also had the team's best vertical jump at 40 inches, and was second overall in the 10-yard dash (1.49 seconds), the 40 (4.41) and the pro agility run (3.92).

1990: Cotton saw action in all 11 games and finished the year with 26 total tackles, including 16 unassisted stops and an 8-yard sack. He also had a fumble caused, two pass breakups, and two quarterback hurries. He equaled his career tackle high with five at Iowa State, and had four stops in four other games. He had no tackles in the Citrus Bowl game, but did cause a Georgia Tech fumble.

1989: Cotton played in 10 of 11 regular-season games and started the Kansas game when Cooper was held out because of a knee injury that required arthroscopic surgery a few days later. Curtis finished the year with 20 total tackles, nine unassisted, and had one pass breakup. His season- and career-high tackle game was five against Utah, and he later recorded four at Missouri.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: Sat out the season after not meeting the NCAA's Proposition 48 requirements.

At Omaha Central HS: An all-state performer for Coach William Reed, Cotton originally signed a national letter-of-intent with the University of Iowa, but was released from the letter and enrolled at Nebraska.

Personal: Human development major. Curtis' mother is Johnnie Mays. Born Oct. 15, 1969.

#11

Mark Dowse
Wingback
Senior, 6-0, 175
Broken Bow, Neb. 2L

A two-year letterman and a former walk-on, Mark Dowse shared alternate split end duties with Dan Pleasant last year, but moved over to wingback in the spring and will go into camp sharing alternate duties with junior college transfer Vincent Hawkins, behind veteran Nate Turner.

1990: Dowse played in all 11 games as he and Pleasant shared the alternate split end duties behind the Huskers' leading receiver, Jon Bostick. Dowse had one reception, an 8-yarder against Oregon State (ironically, the only team to shut Bostick out in 1990).

1989: Not listed on the three-deep at the end of spring practice, Dowse moved up the depth chart in the fall and played in 10 of 11 regular-season games (missing only Colorado), then saw action against Florida State in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl. In the regular-season, he ran the ball eight times for 54 yards and two touchdowns, caught one pass for 9 yards and a TD, and scored touchdowns three of the first four times he touched the ball as a college player. Against Florida State, he caught a 41-yard pass from Mike Stigge on a fake punt on the Huskers' first possession. The play carried to the Seminoles' 11 and set up a touchdown that gave Nebraska a short-lived 7-0 lead.

1987: A walk-on, Mark saw limited action as a reserve split end for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team, catching no passes and rushing once for 13 yards.

At Broken Bow HS: Dowse played quarterback, wingback and I-back for Coaches Dan McLaughlin and Nick Dean. All-conference and honorable-mention all-state as a senior in 1986 when he averaged 9.7 yards per carry. He played in the Western Nebraska All-Star Game. An all-conference basketball player, he was a three-time state qualifier in track and set the school triple jump record. Broken Bow's athlete-of-the-year in 1985-86.

Personal: Natural resources major. He was an Eagle Scout with Silver Palm. Dowse was born Oct. 31, 1968, at Broken Bow. The son of Kelvin and Sharon Dowse, he has an older brother and an older sister.

Mike Grant
Quarterback
Phillips 66
Academic Honor Roll
Senior, 6-3, 205 2L
Tampa, Fla. 2L
Brandon

The only one of Nebraska's four senior quarterbacks who hasn't redshirted, Mike Grant is slated to sit out 1991.

1990: Grant was NU's starting quarterback in the season opener vs. Baylor, but suffered a bruised knee against the Bears, and sat out the Huskers' next two contests. He returned to the starting lineup against Oregon State and Kansas State, but then gave way to Joseph, who started the rest of the regular season, before suffering a severe leg laceration in the season-ending loss at Oklahoma. With Joseph sidelined for the Citrus Bowl game vs. Georgia Tech, Grant again got the starting nod as he returned to play in his native state for his first time as a collegian. In the regular season, Grant completed 32 of 69 passes (46.4 percent) for 484 yards and four touchdowns, with four interceptions. He also rushed for 153 yards on 42 attempts, but against Georgia Tech, he had four incomplete passes and lost 2 yards on three rushing attempts. Grant was also named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1989: Taken out of a planned redshirt year in the third game of the season, Grant shared the alternate quarterback job with Joseph behind Gerry Gdowski for six games until he suffered a shoulder separation. He missed the final three regular-season games, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. Mike saw action in five games, rushing 27 times for 166 yards and a 6.1-yard average, while completing eight of 17 passes for 123 yards and two TD's. His top rushing game was a nine-carry, 55-yard outing at Missouri, and his top passing day came against Kansas State, when he completed three of four passes for 40 yards, including a 16-yard TD pass to split end Jon Bostick.

1988: Grant quarterbacked Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team to a 5-0-0 record as he compiled 912 total-offense yards, the second highest figure in freshman/jayvee history, trailing only Turner Gill's record 979 in 1980. He completed 19 of 40 passes (47.5 percent) for 468 yards and 11 touchdowns, with just two interceptions, for an NCAA passing rating of 226.5. The second-leading rusher on the team, he carried the ball 64 times for 444 yards and seven touchdowns to lead the squad in TD's and points scored (42). Did not see action in varsity games.

At Brandon HS: A three-year starter for Coach Larry Bass, Grant led the suburban Tampa school to a 25-9 record from 1985-87 and earned all-conference honors as a sophomore. Brandon ran the I-formation his first two seasons, then switched to the wishbone before his senior year. Grant, who also lettered in basketball and track, made recruiting visits to Alabama, Notre Dame, Purdue and Clemson before deciding to sign with Nebraska.

Personal: Speech communications major. The son of James and Barbara Grant, he has five brothers and one sister. Mike was born Jan. 26, 1970, at Tampa, Fla.

Shane Geiken
Weak-Side Linebacker
 Senior, 6-2, 220
 Gothenburg, Neb. 2L

A former walk-on, Shane Geiken had a solid spring and will head into his senior year listed third on the Nebraska depth chart at weak-side linebacker behind Jeff Anderson and Paul Wightman.

1990: Geiken (pronounced gye-ken) lettered as a reserve strong-side linebacker as he recorded five tackles in seven regular-season appearances, then saw action against Georgia Tech in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

1989: Geiken earned his first varsity letter as he had six total tackles in six regular-season game appearances, then also played against Florida State in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: After walking on, he was a reserve inside linebacker on Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team, and finished as the squad's sixth-leading tackler with 19 total stops, including two behind the line. Also the jayvees' starting punter, he averaged 33.7 yards on 17 kicks.

At Gothenburg High School: Geiken was a three-year letterman as a quarterback, inside linebacker and punter for Coach Pat Novacek, and was an all-state linebacker and conference player-of-the-year as a senior. An all-around athlete, he also lettered three times in basketball and four times in track. As a senior in 1987, he qualified for the state track meet in four events—shot put, pole vault, 400- and 1,600-meter relays.

Personal: He's a business administration major. A baseball card collector, he also plays the saxophone. The son of Norman and Colleen Geiken, Shane was born May 30, 1969, at Gothenburg. He has two brothers, Wade and Todd.

#91

Lance Gray
Outside Linebacker
 Sophomore, 6-1, 215
 Owego, N.Y.
 Free Academy

A walk-on, Lance Gray came on last spring and will enter camp in August listed as Nebraska's alternate left outside linebacker behind All-America hopeful Travis Hill.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Gray became the starting right outside linebacker on Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team in the second half of the season and finished as the team's seventh-leading tackler with 17 total stops (13 unassisted) in five games, including a team-high three sacks for 30 yards lost.

At Owego Free Academy: Gray was a four-year letterman at fullback and linebacker for Coach Mark Decker, and was named to the Souther Tier Athletic Conference all-star team. He also lettered twice in wrestling.

Personal: Construction management major. The son of Nancy Minturn and Tom Gray, Lance was born June 14, 1970, at Binghamton, N.Y. He has two sisters, Suzanne and Allison.

#38

Vincent Hawkins
Wingback

Junior, 5-11, 210

New Orleans, La.

St. Augustine

Spokane Falls (Wash.) CC

After sitting out a redshirt year in his first year at Nebraska, Vincent Hawkins put together a solid spring in 1991 and will go into camp in August listed with Mark Dowse as an alternate to veteran senior Nate Turner at wingback.

1990: Hawkins redshirted after transferring from Spokane Falls Community College in Spokane, Wash.

At Spokane Falls CC: A two-time all-league running back for Coach John Buck, Hawkins rushed for 1,025 yards and nine touchdowns in nine games in 1989, while catching 17 passes for 236 yards and three scores, two of which were last-minute, game-winning TD's. A third-team junior college All-American, Hawkins also had 313 yards on 16 kickoff returns as a sophomore. Originally a walk-on candidate at Washington State in 1988, he was an on-qualifier under NCAA Proposition 48 guidelines and enrolled at Spokane Falls instead, and went on to rush for 1,232 yards and 10 TD's for the Sasquatch that fall.

At New Orleans St. Augustine HS: Hawkins lettered twice for Coach Tony Biagas as a running back on teams that went 7-3 and 11-1. He's one of three St. Augustine grads on the Husker team, joining split end Tyrone Hughes and outside linebacker David White. One of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns.

Personal: Social sciences major. The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Hawkins, Vincent was born Feb. 7, 1969, at Independence, Mo. He has one brother and one sister, all younger, and he has a daughter, Dominique.

#40

Mike Heins Cornerback

Sophomore, 5-10, 185

David City, Neb.

A former walk-on, Mike Heins had an impressive spring and will go into practice in August listed as the Huskers' alternate right cornerback behind returning starter Tyrone Legette.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Heins became the starting right corner for Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team, and was sixth overall on the team in tackles as he led the defensive backs with 19 total, including 14 unassisted stops and one for a loss of 13 yards. Heins was one of six jayvees with one interception.

At David City HS: Mike was a Class C-1 (third of seven) all-state defensive end as a junior in 1987 and an all-state linebacker in 1988, while also playing fullback on offense as a four-year letter-man for Coach Kevin Kopecky. He lettered three times each in basketball and track.

Personal: He's an agri-business major. Mike is the son of Dean and Connie Heins and was born Nov. 29, 1970, at Columbus, Neb. He'll celebrate his 21st birthday when the Huskers close the regular season at home against Oklahoma this fall. He has two brothers, Dustin and Jake, and a sister, Gretchen.

#63

Middle Guard
Sophomore, 6-2, 250
Libertyville, Ill.

Bill Humphrey emerged from spring practice listed as the Huskers' No. 3 middle guard behind returning starter Pat Engelbert and fellow sophomore David Noonan.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Humphrey was the starting guard on Coach Bill Weber's Nebraska junior varsity team and was the team's fourth-leading tackler with 21 total stops—the most for a defensive lineman. He was also second on the team in tackles for loss (five for 11 yards) and in sacks with two, while recording a fumble caused, fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

At Libertyville HS: A two-way performer, Humphrey earned all-area and All North Suburban (Chicago) Conference honors in leading Coach Dale Christensen's team to the second round of the Illinois state playoffs. As a defensive tackle, he had 54 unassisted tackles, including 13 for loss and four sacks. Humphrey earned four letters in football and played five different positions. He also lettered in baseball.

Personal: The son of Bill and Rose Humphrey, he was born March 17, 1972, at Cincinnati, Ohio. He has a brother, Steve, and a sister, Anne. A general studies major, he has a 3.192 grade-point average.

#69

Dave Jensen
Offensive Guard
Junior, 6-4, 285
Omaha, Neb. 1L
Creighton Prep

A former defensive line recruit, Dave Jensen figures to be a major figure in retooling Nebraska's offensive line in 1991, as he shared first-team duties with Ken Mehlin at left guard at the end of spring practice. The Huskers' alternate right guard behind All-Big Eight Will Shields last year, Jensen could replace graduated academic All-American Jim Wanek this season, especially if he's able to avoid the injuries which plagued his early career at Nebraska. One of NU's strongest players, he was in the top four on the team in spring testing in the bench press (391 pounds), clean (385) and squat (595).

1990: Jensen played in nine of 11 regular-season games, plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech, as he helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game).

1989: It was another hard-luck year for Jensen as he tore a knee ligament in spring practice, and was forced to miss the entire season during rehabilitation. He was able to return to practice prior to the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, but did not play against Florida State.

1988: Redshirted in his first year on campus when he needed surgery to repair a torn ligament in his thumb.

At Omaha Creighton Prep HS: A first-team prep All-America selection by Bally, a second-team USA Today All-American, and the Gatorade Nebraska lineman-of-the-year in 1987, Jensen helped Coach Tom Jaworski's Junior Jays to a 34-2 record and three consecutive state championships from 1985-87. As a defensive tackle, he had 62 unassisted stops as a senior, 14 for losses, and broke up three passes. He also played some tight end and lettered in track. Dave is one of three former Junior Jays who figure prominently in NU plans this fall, joining I-back George Achola and tight end Daryl Leise. He visited Arizona State, Notre Dame and UCLA before deciding to sign with Nebraska.

Personal: Business administration major. The son of Jack and Fran Jensen, he was born Feb. 19, 1970, at Omaha. He has one brother and two sisters, all older.

Tim Johnk
Fullback
 Phillips 66
 Academic Honor Roll
 Senior, 5-11, 215
 Schuyler, Neb. 2L

A former walk-on, Tim Johnk will go into camp in August sharing the No. 3 spot on the Nebraska fullback depth chart with Andre McDuffy. They'll provide quality depth behind senior Omar Soto and junior Lance Lewis, who were also the Huskers' top two last year.

1990: NU's No. 3 fullback behind Lewis and Soto, Johnk was also a valuable special-teams player. The former walk-on appeared in all 11 regular-season games (plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech) and rushed for 74 yards on 14 attempts for a 5.3-yard average. He scored his first career touch-down on a 13-yard touchdown run against Northern Illinois. On special teams, he was credited with four tackles to share the team offensive lead with I-back George Achola and was named to the Phillips Academic Honor Roll.

1989: Tim earned a letter as the Huskers' No. 3 fullback behind Bryan Carpenter and another senior, Sam Schmidt. He played in all 11 games, was a valuable special-teams performer, and carried the ball four times for 27 yards.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: After walking on, Johnk became the starting fullback for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team, and finished the five-game season as the team's fourth-leading rusher with 94 yards on 24 carries. He had a varsity appearance against Iowa State, and had one carry for 11 yards against the Cyclones.

At Schuyler HS: A Bally All-American and an all-class, all-state selection for Coach Bill Kucera as a senior in 1986 when he rushed for 2,175 yards in leading the Warriors to a 13-0 record and the Class B state title. He finished his three-year prep career with 4,026 yards. A two-time honorable-mention all-state pick in basket-ball, he also letter-ed in track and was an honor-roll student all three years. He visited Wyoming, Morningside and Nebraska-Omaha before deciding to walk on at Nebraska.

Personal: Physical education/elementary education major in Teachers College, he carries a 3.021 grade-point average. The son of Ron and Joyce Johnk, he was born Nov. 2, 1968 (on that day, Nebraska defeated Iowa State at Ames, 24-13). Tim has one younger sister.

Calvin Jones
I-Back
 Freshman, 5-11, 210
 Omaha, Neb.
 Central

After sitting out a redshirt year as a freshman, Calvin Jones had an impressive spring and will go into 1991 as the Nebraska's No. 4 I-back behind veterans Derek Brown, George Achola and Scott Baldwin—but there's not much of a drop-off, if any, and certainly none in potential, when the Huskers turn to him. Jones capped his spring with a 99-yard rushing effort on 13 carries in the Spring Game, much of it coming against the No. 1 defense.

1990: Redshirt.

At Omaha Central HS: A consensus prep All-American for Coach William Reed, Jones established Class A rushing records for one game (367 yards), a season (2,196) and career (3,965). For the Eagles in 1989, Jones averaged 8.4 yards per game and scored 22 touchdowns. He is the third Central running back to sign with Nebraska in the last decade, following Keith Jones (now of the Dallas Cowboys), and Leodis Flowers, last year's leading rusher for the Huskers. In 1990, Jones won the all-class gold medal in the 100-meter dash at the state track meet with a time of 10.68 and captured the Class A 200 title in 21.92. His personal best of 10.6 in the 100 meters was tied for 10th on the Nebraska all-time charts prior to the 1991 season. He also played some linebacker for the Eagles.

Personal: Business administration major. The son of Pauline Smith, Calvin was born Nov. 27, 1970, at Omaha, and will celebrate his 21st birthday two days before the Huskers' regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma this fall. He has one brother, Paris, and a sister, KeKe.

Donta Jones
Outside Linebacker
 Freshman, 6-2, 210
 La Plata, Md.
 Pomfret McDonough

Personal: A business administration major, he has a 3.192 grade-point average. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Donta was born Aug. 27, 1972, at Washington, D.C. He has one brother, Thomas Jr. He plays the drums, and his full name is Markeysia Donta Jones.

Another redshirt freshman who put together a good spring, Donta Jones will go into the fall listed fourth at right outside linebacker behind veterans David White and Trev Alberts, and David Leader. Both Jones and Leader gained extra experience in the spring when White and Alberts were held out of practice while recovering from rotator cuff surgeries. Jones is the Huskers' fastest linebacker, turning in a 4.67-second timing in the 40 last spring.

1990: Redshirt.

At Pomfret McDonough HS: An all-state and all-metro Washington pick for Coach Larry Johnson, Jones was a two-way starter, catching seven passes as a tight end and recording 15 quarterback sacks, 107 first hits and 65 assisted tackles from his outside linebacker spot. He was named to the "Big 33" team for the August 1990 Maryland-Pennsylvania All-Star Game. An all-around athlete, he started at center for the McDonough basketball team, averaging 10 points per game, and had personal bests in track of 1:58 in the 800-meter run and 49 seconds in the 400-meter dash.

#42

David Leader
Outside Linebacker
 Junior, 6-2, 205
 Bloomfield, Neb.

A former walk-on, David Leader made the most of his chance to prove himself in the spring. With veterans David White and Trev Alberts held out of spring practice because of rotator cuff surgeries, Leader was the Huskers' No. 1 right outside linebacker throughout the spring and developed into a solid performer who will give NU quality depth when White and Alberts return healthy in the fall.

1990: A non-lettered reserve outside 'backer, Leader appeared in three games and was credited with two tackles and a quarter-back hurry.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: After walking on, Leader started the first two games at right outside 'backer for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0 junior varsity team, and had 15 tackles on the season, including 12 unassisted stops, two for losses of 14 yards, and had a pass breakup.

At Bloomfield HS: A two-year all-conference pick and all-state as a senior, Leader lettered four times as a quarterback, tight end, split end, linebacker and defensive back for Coach Alan Gottula. He also lettered in basketball and track, qualified for the state track meet three times, and won the Class C triple jump title.

Personal: Speech communications major in Teachers College. David was born Sept. 17, 1969, at Yankton, S.D. He's the son of Roger and Merina Leader and has four brothers and a sister.

#70

Jamie Liewer
Defensive Tackle
 Junior, 6-4, 250
 Atkinson, Neb. 1L
 West Holt

Personal: Physical education/elementary education major. The son of Merle and Anita Liewer, he was born Dec. 4, 1969, at Atkinson. He has two older sisters.

After lettering as a reserve at defensive left tackle as a sophomore, Jamie Liewer (pronounced lee-ver) moved to the right side last spring and will go into the fall sharing first-team duties there with senior Brian Brown. The two are the top candidates to replace graduated All-American Kenny Walker in NU's rebuilt tackle corps.

1990: Liewer played in two regular-season games and had two tackles, including a 2-yard sack.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: A scholarship recruit, Liewer started at defensive left tackle for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 Husker junior varsity team. He finished with 23 tackles, a whopping 20 of them unassisted, including five tackles behind the line.

At Atkinson West Holt HS: Liewer was a four-year starter for Coach Mike McCabe, on both offense and defense the last three years. An all-class, all-state selection while playing in the third largest of Nebraska's seven classes, he was credited with 97 total tackles, including 13 sacks, and recovered three opponents' fumbles in leading the Huskies to an 8-0-0 regular season. He also played on West Holt's Class C-1 state basketball championship team, where one of his team-mates was Bruce Chubick, who will be a sophomore forward on the Nebraska basketball team this winter. He also lettered in track and won the Class C discus title in 1988.

#77

Lance Lundberg
Offensive Tackle
 Sophomore, 6-4, 280
 Wausa, Neb.

One of several young players who will have a chance to contribute on Nebraska's rebuilt offensive line this fall, Lance Lundberg will start the season listed as the Huskers' alternate left tackle behind veteran Erik Wiegert. Lundberg has good quickness to go with his size, as his 1.71-second 10-yard time in the spring was the second-best among NU offensive linemen.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Lundberg started at offensive right tackle for Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team.

At Wausa HS: Lundberg was an all-class, all-state lineman for Coach Stan Hageman, despite playing eight-man football on a 2-6 team. He was named to the Norfolk Daily News Top 20, and led his team with 160 total tackles as a senior in 1988. He lettered four times each in football, basketball and track.

Personal: Undeclared major. The son of Gary and Ruth Lundberg, Lance was born Aug. 15, 1970, at Osmond, Neb., and he'll celebrate his 21st birthday on the Huskers' first day of practice this fall. He has three brothers, Rick, Craig and Tod, and a sister, Carrie.

#10

Keithen McCant Quarterback

Grand Prairie, Texas 1L

A good runner and passer with good size at 6-2, 205, McCant had some impressive scrimmages in the spring and will be in the picture at quarterback this fall. He'll start out No. 3 on the depth chart behind Tom Haase and Mickey Joseph.

1990: Playing most of the year as the Huskers' No. 3 quarter-back behind Joseph and Mike Grant, McCant earned a letter as he saw action in five games, and completed two of three passes for 32 yards, and had one interception. He also rushed six times for 23 yards.

1989: A non-lettered reserve, McCant saw action in four games, in which he rushed twice for 52 yards, including a 53-yard non-scoring jaunt in the opener vs. Northern Illinois—Nebraska's fourth-longest run of the season.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: A scholarship recruit, he shared starting quarterback duties with Haase on Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team. Keithen completed 10 of 28 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns, with two interceptions. He also rushed 24 times for 92 yards.

At Grand Prairie HS: McCant was the offensive player-of-the-year in his district in 1986, when he completed 72 of 161 passes for 1,500 yards and 18 touch-downs in leading Coach Ken Murray's team to a 7-3 record and the district title. As a junior, he beat out two returning seniors for the starting job and completed 108 of 202 passes for 1,400 yards and eight TD's on an 8-3-1 team. Moved up to the Grand Prairie varsity as a sophomore after he had thrown for 1,005 yards in five games on the junior varsity team.

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of Melba Thompson, he was born March 8, 1969.

Ken Mehlin Offensive Guard

Humboldt, Neb.

One of the surprises in spring practice, former walk-on Ken Mehlin came out of spring drills listed on the first team at offensive left guard with Dave Jensen.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Mehlin (pronounced may-lin) started at left guard for Coach Shane Thorell's 3-1-1 junior varsity team which averaged 398 yards per game in total offense.

At Humboldt HS: Mehlin was a two-time, two-way, eight-man all-state player for Coach John James, playing offensive guard and linebacker on defense. He lettered four times each in football, basketball and track. He's one of two Humboldt grads on the 1991 Husker squad, along with reserve free safety Jamie Weyers.

Personal: Business administration major, he has a 3.547 grade-point average. The son of Merle and Marleen Mehlin, Ken was born Jan. 14, 1971, at Humboldt. He has two sisters, Kim Standerford and Diana Boring.

#90

Bruce Moore
Defensive Tackle
 Sophomore, 6-6, 235
 York, Neb.

Another former walk-on, Bruce Moore had a fine spring and will go into camp in August listed with Matt Hilman on the second team at defensive right tackle, where they'll back up veterans Brian Brown and Jamie Liewer. In the spring, he ran the fastest 40-yard time among defensive linemen at 4.86 seconds.

1990: Redshirt.

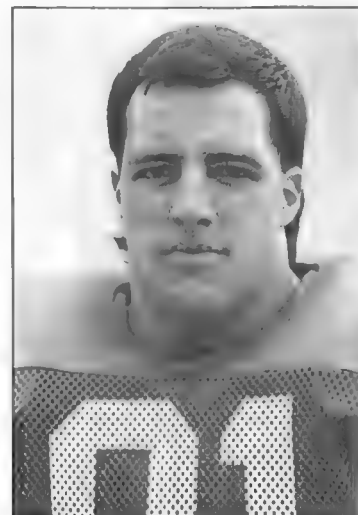

1989: Moore started at defensive right tackle for Coach Shane Thorell's 3-1-1 junior varsity team. He led the junior Huskers in tackles for loss with six for 25 yards, and was second to line-backer Matt Penland in total tackles with 28. He also had a pass breakup and an interception.

At York HS: A three-year letterman at defensive tackle, tight end and offensive tackle for Coach Warren Washburn, Moore was honorable-mention all-state in both football and basketball as a senior, and was third in the state track meet in the high jump.

Personal: Undeclared major. The son of Lyle and Vickie Moore, Bruce was born June 10, 1971, at St. Albans, N.Y. He has a brother, Jerry, and a sister, Brenda.

#73

 Lincoln, Neb. 1L
 Northeast

After lettering as a reserve at defensive right tackle last year, David Noonan switched to middle guard in the spring and moved up to No. 2 on the depth chart. He expected to be the alternate this fall behind returning starter Pat Engelbert.

1990: A redshirt freshman, Noonan played in four regular-season games as a reserve defensive right tackle behind All-American Kenny Walker and Brian Brown, then also saw playing time in the Florida Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech.

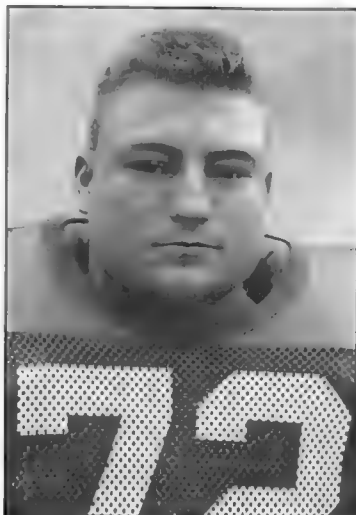

1989: Redshirt.

At Lincoln Northeast HS: Noonan was an all-state defensive tackle and all-regional by Super Prep Magazine on Coach Bruce Reed's team as a senior in 1988, when he record-ed 67 total tackles, four sacks and a fumble recovery. He also played offensive tackle and center.

Personal: Undeclared major. The son of Gene and Donna Noonan, David was born Nov. 11, 1971, in Lincoln. His older brother, Danny, was an All-American nose guard for the Huskers in 1986 and now plays for the Dallas Cowboys.

John Parrella
Defensive Tackle
 Junior, 6-5, 285
 Grand Island, Neb.
 Central Catholic

Personal: Consumer science education major. The son of Joe and Shirley Parrella, now of La Vista, Neb., John was born Nov. 22, 1969, at Topeka, Kan. He has one brother and one sister, both older.

After lettering as a reserve defensive tackle last year, John Parrella took over the starting job on the left side in the spring, and he's slated to replace NFL draft pick Joe Sims in that spot this fall. A converted tight end, his 10- (1.75 seconds) and 40-yard times (4.99) were among the best on the defensive line in spring testing. He's also one of the Huskers' strongest plays. In spring testing, he tied linebacker Mike Anderson (another Grand Island product) for the best bench press on the team at 408 pounds, and also had the team's best lift in the squat at 637 pounds.

1990: Parrella played in eight regular-season games, plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech, and finished the year with four unassisted tackles.

1989: Redshirted as he made the switch from tight end to defensive tackle.

1988: After signing a letter-of-intent with Colorado, the Buffaloes withdrew the scholar-ship offer and Parrella came to Nebraska as a walk-on. He started at tight end for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0 Husker junior varsity and caught two passes for 14 yards and one TD.

At Grand Island Central Catholic HS: Parrella was a two-time all-state selection as well as an honorable-mention All-American as a senior for Coach Carl Tesmer. He was also an honorable-mention all-state basketball player.

#52

Matt Penland
Inside Linebacker
 Junior, 6-1, 215
 Jacksonville, Fla. 1L
 University Christian

Although he missed spring practice while rehabilitating from reconstructive knee surgery, Matt Penland will go into camp in August as the Huskers' alternate at both inside linebacker positions, backing up Mike Petko on the strong side and Mike Anderson on the left side.

1990: A walk-on, Penland emerged at mid-season as the Huskers' alternate strong-side linebacker behind Petko. He played in all 11 games, plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech in his home state of Florida, as a true sophomore, finishing with 22 tackles, including 12 unassisted stops, and two for losses of 6 yards. He recorded a career-best five tackles in the Huskers' season-ending loss at Oklahoma.

1989: After walking on, Penland became a starting linebacker for the Husker junior varsity team, and led the "Little Red" in total tackles (32), solos (19) and fumble recoveries (four) in a 3-1-1 season.

At University Christian School

HS: A four-year letterman as a guard and linebacker for Coach Robbie Pruitt, Penland had 140 tackles and two pass interceptions as a senior in 1988, when he was named all-state and conference MVP. He was a three-time all-conference pick, playing on teams that were 32-4 combined his last three seasons, including a 13-0 state-champion-ship season in 1987. He was also an all-conference baseball player. Visited Liberty University before deciding to walk on at NU.

Personal: History major. The son of Dave and Cynthia Penland, Matt was born Jan. 21, 1971, in Jacksonville, and he has three sisters.

#82

Dan Pleasant
Split End
Senior, 5-9, 180
Craig, Colo. 1L
Moffat County

A former walk-on, Dan Pleasant will head into his senior season listed as Nebraska's No. 2 split end behind leading receiver Jon Bostick.

1990: Pleasant played in all 11 of Nebraska's regular-season games and the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech as he shared the No. 2 split end spot behind Bostick with fellow junior Mark Dowse. A solid blocker, he caught two passes for 24 yards on the year, one for 16 yards vs. Minnesota and another for 8 yards at Oklahoma.

1989: A non-lettered reserve, he saw action in four varsity games, but had no statistics. Playing for Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team, he caught two passes for 46 yards and a touchdown.

1988: Redshirt.

1987: After walking on, Pleasant was the alternate split end for the jayvees, and led the team in receiving with nine catches for 140 yards in the five-game schedule.

At Moffat County HS: Dan was the Colorado athlete-of-the-year in the state's second largest class in 1986. A two-time all-conference wide receiver for Coach Bill Yester, he also played monster on defense. All-conference in basketball and lettered in track.

Personal: Economics major. The son of Pete and Madge Pleasant, Dan was born July 31, 1968, in Craig. He has one brother.

#36

Strong Safety
Junior, 5-11, 200
Clarks, Neb.

A former walk-on, Brian Pollard had a solid spring and will head into the fall as Nebraska's No. 3 strong safety behind Steve Carner and Ernie Beler.

1990: A non-letter reserve strong safety, Pollard played in three regular-season games, recording three assisted tackles, then also saw action in the Florida Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: After walking on, Pollard played as a reserve defensive back on Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 junior varsity team and finished with eight tackles, all unassisted and two of them for losses of 4 yards.

At Clarks HS: Brian was a two-time all-state and three-time all-conference selection for Coach Gene Boeka while playing end, quarterback, running back and linebacker in eight-man football. Clarks was 26-5 his last three years. He was co-captain of the Class D all-state team. He also lettered in basketball, baseball and track, and won the Class D state title in the pole vault.

Personal: An elementary education major, he carries a 3.233 grade-point average. The son of Rod and Loretta Pollard, he was born April 13, 1970, at Tucson, Ariz. He has a brother and a sister, both younger.

Vernon Powell
Cornerback
 Sophomore, 5-10, 165
 East St. Louis, Ill.

Personal: Human development major. The son of Francille Powell, Vernon was born March 26, 1971, at St. Louis, Mo. He has two brothers, Walter and Lorenzo.

Originally recruited as a receiver, Vernon Powell switched to cornerback in the spring and will go into the fall listed third on the right side behind returning starter Tyrone Legette and Mike Heins.

1990: A non-lettered reserve at split end, Powell played in five regular-season games and had one punt return for 3 yards.

1989: Redshirted in his first year at Nebraska.

At East St. Louis Senior H.S.: Powell quarterbacked Coach Bob Shannon's club to back-to-back 13-1 records and the Illinois large-school championship game in 1987 and 1988. An all-district selection, he completed 66 of 144 passes for 1,248 yards, 17 touchdowns and nine interceptions as a senior. He also rushed for 408 yards and four TDs. As a junior, he was third in the 300-meter low hurdles in the Illinois state meet with a personal-best of 37.6 seconds.

#67

Kevin Ramaekers
Defensive Tackle
 Sophomore, 6-4, 285
 Norfolk, Nebr.
 Catholic

After sitting out a redshirt year in 1990, Kevin Ramaekers (pronounced ray-makers) will go into the fall of 1991 listed as the Huskers' alternate left defensive tackle behind John Parrella. Also throws the shot put for the Husker track team.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After sitting out a year in order to meet the NCAA's Proposition 48 guidelines, Ramaekers became the starting left defensive tackle on Coach Shane Thorell's 3-1-1 junior varsity team, and finished as the team's fourth-leading tackler with 23 total stops. He was second on the squad in unassisted stops (18) and tackles for loss (five for 16 yards).

At Norfolk Catholic: A two-time Class C-1 all-state pick, Ramaekers was a Bally All-American and an all-class, all-state selection as a senior in 1987 when he led Coach Jeff Bellar's team to a berth in C-1 state championship game. One of the top prep track and field athletes in Nebraska history, his shot put of 62-10 in 1988 is the fourth-best on the state's all-time charts. He also won the Class C state heavyweight wrestling championship as a senior.

Personal: The son of Bud and Alice Ramaekers, Kevin was born Dec. 18, 1969, at Omaha, Neb. He has five brothers and three sisters. He's a family science and sociology major, and was named the most improved student by the Husker academic counseling division in 1989.

#59

Ray Reifenrath
Offensive TackleSenior, 6-6, 300
Dakota City, Neb. 1L
Sioux City Heelan

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of Ray and Sherry Reifenrath, Ray was born Dec. 29, 1968, at Sioux City, Iowa. He has one brother, Rick.

A former walk-on and the Huskers' biggest player at 6-foot-6, 300 pounds, Ray Reifenrath (pronounced RIFE-en-rath) has steadily worked his way up the depth chart in his career and will go into his senior year listed on the first team at offensive right tackle as the alternate behind returning starter Brian Boerboom. He scored a touchdwn in the first quarter of the Spring Game when he recovered a teammate's fumble in the end zone.

1989: A non-lettered reserve right tackle, he played in two games.

1987: After walking on, Reifenrath played on Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team as the alternate left offensive tackle behind Erik Wiegert, who's slated to start for Nebraska at that spot this fall.

At Sioux City Heelan HS: Honorable-mention all-state in both football and basketball, Reifenrath played offensive tackle for Coach George Shernerbois' state runner-up squad in 1986, and played on Heelan's nationally 17th ranked basketball team as a junior. He also lettered in track and baseball.

John Reece
Free SafetySophomore, 6-0, 205
Houston, Texas 1L
Jersey Village

After sitting out the 1990 season while he recovered from reconstructive knee surgery, John Reece was welcomed back by the Huskers in spring and will head into the fall listed as the No. 2 free safety behind two-year starter Tyrone Byrd.

1990: Reece tore a knee ligament on a punt return in the Huskers' first spring scrimmage, April 7, and took an injury redshirt year.

1989: As a true freshman, Reece moved up to the varsity and played in all 11 regular-season games and the Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. Playing both cornerback and safety, he contributed 20 total tackles, two for losses of 14 yards, had two pass breakups and three quarterback hurries on blitzes during the regular season, then added two unassisted tackles in the bowl. He had one regular-season punt return for 26-yards.

At Houston Jersey Village: John was a three-year letterman and a two-year starter for Coach Rudy Phillips, earning All-Greater Houston and all-district as a senior when he intercepted six passes and recorded 117 tackles. He averaged 20.3 yards on kickoff returns. He also lettered twice in baseball and was an all-district pick.

Personal: The son of John L. Jr. and Ophelia Reece, John L. Reece III was born Jan. 24, 1971, at Crowell, Texas. He has two sisters, Tomekya and Shera.

Interim Chancellor Dr. John W. Goebel

A man with 32 years of experience on the University of Nebraska campus, Dr. John W. "Jack" Goebel became the interim chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) early in 1991, replacing Dr. Martin A. Massengale, who had been named president of the University of Nebraska system in 1990 after 10 years as the UNL chancellor.

Before becoming interim chancellor, Dr. Goebel had served one year as associate chancellor of UNL, and, before that, had been vice chancellor for business and finance since 1981.

As the chief business and fiscal officer for UNL, he was responsible for the administration of all budgets, accounting and payroll, the receipt and disbursement of all funds, supervision of accounting for all research and other grant funds, auditing financial system development and the preparation of all financial reports as required by the Board of Regents, the State of Nebraska and the U.S. government. He was also responsible for the administering of all capital construction projects, the maintenance of the University's physical plant, and all business services. In addition, Dr. Goebel had responsibility for all matters relating to all athletic programs.

Dr. Goebel first came to the University in 1959 as a professor of accounting and business law. From 1970 to 1981, he served as the coordinator of the business law area in the College of Business Administration (CBA), and in the last four years of that stretch served as the chairman of the Accounting Department. Also while at CBA, he served as coordinator of the Residency Ph.D. Program (1974-75), acting chairman of the Management Department (1975-76), director of the Executive MBA Program (1974-79) and acting chairman of the Accounting Department (1976-77).

He is a member of the Nebraska, Iowa and American Bar Associations, the National Accounting Association, the Financial Executives Institute, the American Accounting Association, the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, American Council on Education and the National Association of College and University Business Officers. He also serves on several boards and committees in Nebraska and is involved in numerous civic and University-related organizations and activities.

Goebel received his J.D. degree from the Creighton University Law School in 1954 and was admitted to the Nebraska and Iowa bars in the same year. He received an M.A. degree in accounting from UNL in 1968. He and his wife, Noreen, have five children. A U.S. Army veteran, he served as a first lieutenant in the infantry from 1954-56.

Institutional Representative Dr. James O'Hanlon

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's institutional representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982. He was chair of the Big Eight Conference in 1989-90.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the University of Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an assistant professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was elevated to associate professor in 1967 and to professor in 1970.

While at Nebraska, he has served as the director of the NUSTEP program for teacher education (1969-72), coordinator of freshman programming for the Office of Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs (1973-74), chaired the Governor's Committee on the use of Hiram Scott College (1973), chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75), and served as president of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the NU Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He served in that position until he was named acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982. He was named Dean of Teachers College, May 1, 1983.

In addition, he serves as chair of the Nebraska Education Consolidation and Improvement Act State Advisory Committee; is president of the National Arbor Day Foundation; is a member of the Board of Directors of the Midwest Holmes Group; has served on educational councils appointed by Governors Exon, Kerrey, and Orr, including being co-chair of the Governor's Task Force on Math and Science Education in 1990; as is a member of the UNL Business Services Advisory Committee.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell (Iowa) College and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from Ohio State University in 1958, then served as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

From 1959 to 1962, he was a secondary school teacher in Parma, Ohio, and Fremont, Neb., then served as a part-time instructor at the University of Nebraska and assistant principal at University High School while pursuing a doctorate in secondary education and educational psychology, which he received from the University in 1964. He served as an assistant professor in the Department of Secondary Education at Ohio University from 1964 to 1966, and was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty at Ohio U. in 1965.

Bob Devaney

Athletic Director

Bob Devaney ranks as one of the outstanding athletic directors in the nation as he continues to lead the Nebraska Athletic Department with the same vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence that marked him as one of America's greatest football coaches during his colorful gridiron career.

Devaney is in his 30th year of providing drive, leadership and pride in the Cornhusker athletic program. He arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 for .806 ranked him as the winningest active coach in the nation at the time of his retirement in 1973. Devaney's teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships during the 1962-72 span, with his teams going to nine bowl games. His teams twice won four consecutive Big Eight titles.

Devaney's 1971 title team, which posted a 13-0 record, twice defended its No. 1 ranking against the second-ranked team (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl), and beat the eventual No. 3 team, Colorado, 31-7, has been hailed as the best college team of all time. Bob was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in 1981.

Devaney received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he was tabbed to coach in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All-Stars against the Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

Five years after accepting the challenge of rebuilding the Husker football program, he accepted the additional challenge of rebuilding the overall athletic program, succeeding the man who hired him, Tippy Dye, as athletic director in 1967. And his success in nearly a quarter century on that job has been as phenomenal as was his coaching success.

Devaney spearheaded drives to virtually rebuild and replace Nebraska's aging athletic facilities. Continuing a process begun during Dye's tenure, he oversaw the expansion of Memorial Stadium from its original 36,000 capacity to its present 73,650 (completed in 1972, along with the South Stadium Office Building).

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful, four-and-a-half acre indoor sports building which opened on the Nebraska State Fair Grounds in 1976. The building, which features a 14,302-seat main arena, plus separate swimming and diving pools, an indoor track, and workout areas for wrestling and gymnastics, was renamed the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Also in the mid-1970s, Devaney saw to the construction of Ed Weir Track and Field Stadium, and a new, partially-astroturfed baseball facility, Buck Beltzer Field. More recently, he has overseen the expansion of the Huskers' academic counseling service and the concurrent establishment of the Hewitt Center in the West Stadium; the continued expansion of the strength and conditioning program and its outstanding facility in the West Stadium; the construction of the new NU Softball Complex; the building of the Otto and Gladys Baumann Building at Beltzer Field; the funding and construction of the new full-field Cook Pavilion indoor practice area, and the adjoining Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Facility. The latest project is the complete remodeling of NU's old basketball facility, the Coliseum, into a modern arena for the Huskers' highly-successful women's volleyball program.

At the same time that Devaney was working to provide top-notch facilities for the Husker athletic teams, he also worked to hire the best coaches available and provide those coaches with full-scholarship funding, and did so at the time that women's sports became established at the intercollegiate level. The result of his efforts is an overall athletic program that ranks among the nation's elite, with several sports that are dominant at the Big Eight level and highly-competitive at the national level. The Huskers have consistently won conference all-sports titles for both men's and women's sports.

A graduate of Alma (Mich.) College in 1939, Devaney served as a high school coach at Big Beaver, Keego Harbor, Saginaw and Alpena in his native state before joining Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State in 1953. In 1957, he became head coach at Wyoming, where his teams posted a 35-10-5 record.

Devaney is married to the former Phyllis Wiley. They have a son, Mike and a daughter, Pat, both graduates of the University of Nebraska. Bob and Phyllis also have two grandchildren.

Boyd Epley
Conditioning Coach

Boyd Epley has been associated with the University of Nebraska for 22 years, first as an athlete and later as a leader in the field of athletic strength and conditioning programs. He is the founder and former president of the National Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. In 1980, he was voted national strength coach of the year. Today, many of Epley's former assistants are now head strength coaches at college and professional teams throughout the country. During his tenure at Nebraska, he has developed year-round strength programs for men and women. Epley prepped at Alhambra High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he played football and competed in track. At Phoenix Junior College, he captained the track team and starred as a pole vaulter. He became the Nebraska pole vault record-holder as a junior, but a back injury forced him out of competition in his senior year. He turned his interest to strength training and participated three years in AAU Olympic lifting, powerlifting and physique competition. Epley received his associate's degree from Phoenix JC in 1968 and his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1970. In 1972, he received a master's degree from Nebraska. He is married to the former Jane Lilyhorn of Holdrege, and they have a son, Jay Robert, and a daughter, Jenna.

Academic Programs

Dennis Leblanc is in his fifth year as an academic counselor in the NU Athletic Department. He is responsible for monitoring the academic progress of the football, wrestling and men's basketball squads in addition to the men's and women's track and field teams. Leblanc served as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator for Nebraska's men's and women's track and field programs for the three years prior to taking the position as academic counselor. He came to Nebraska in 1983 as an administrative graduate intern in the athletic administration and track and field offices. Leblanc received his bachelor's degree in business from Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kan., and a master of education degree in athletic administration from Wichita State. Leblanc is married to the former Coreen Eddy and they are expecting their first child in October.

Audrey Moore
Academic Counselor

Athletic/academic counselor Audrey Moore is entering her second year with the academic counseling unit at the University of Nebraska. A native of Upland, Calif., Moore earned her bachelor's degree at the University of Redlands and has a master's degree from Cal State University, Fullerton. In addition to directing the tutorial program, she provides sport counseling to football, baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and the men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

Office Phone: 402-472-2042.

Bill Shepard
Grounds Manager

The man who has the responsibility of keeping the Cornhuskers' physical plant in operating condition is grounds manager Bill Shepard. Now in his 32nd year, Shepard first joined the NU staff in 1960. He is in charge of the upkeep of Memorial Stadium, Schulte Field House, Ed Weir Track, Buck Beltzer Field and the football practice fields.

Shepard and his wife, Eva, are the parents of three children, Pamela, Tom and Kathy.

Glen Abbott
Equipment Manager

A member of the University's Athletic Department staff since 1973, Glen Abbott begins his 15th year as Nebraska's equipment manager. Prior to his current duties, he maintained the Nebraska equipment and locker rooms in Schulte Field House. An 11-year member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, he is in charge of maintaining the Cornhuskers' equipment and locker rooms in the South Stadium Office Building and Schulte Field House, in addition to caring for the equipment of the football team. Abbott is also the equipment manager for the Husker baseball team. A native of Nebraska City, Neb., Abbott has two children, Christopher and Lezlie. He is married to the former Pattie Dukes, and has two stepchildren, John and Gaileen.

Office Phone: 402-472-2274.

Bob Hammons
Head Student Manager

Nebraska Medical Staff

Dr. Lonnie Albers, director of athletic medicine at the University of Nebraska, heads a veteran medical team, which includes team orthopedist Dr. Pat Clare; chief of staff, head trainer and physical therapist George Sullivan; assistant head trainer and physical therapist Jerry Weber; associate head trainer and physical therapist Roland "Duke" LaRue; associate trainer/physician's assistant Jack Nickolite, who returns to the Husker medical staff after two years off pursuing his physician's assistant degree; director of athletic medicine research Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning; and newest staff members Dr. Michael Adams, Dr. Matt Reckmeyer, and Dr. Robert Dugas.

Sullivan, who is beginning his 38th year with the University, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from NU and his physical therapy degree from Iowa. Among his many accomplishments, Sullivan has been honored by the U.S. Olympic Committee by being selected as trainer for the 1959 Pan American Games in Chicago and head trainer for the 1962 Pan Am games in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He was named head trainer for both the Mexico City and Munich Olympic Games but turned these down to be with his Big Red football teams. Other honors include being Honor Trainer for the Drake Relays, the Presidential Citation for Physical Fitness, the Citizen's Saving Trainer's Hall of Fame, Athletic Trainer's Hall of Fame, and KFOR Radio "1980 Sportsman-of-the-Year." Most recently, he was honored by the Nebraska State Physical Therapy Association with its M.E. Sacksteder Award in 1984, the group's highest honor for outstanding contributions to physical therapy. He was admitted to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and awarded a "Special Merit Award." In 1987, he was given the "Outstanding Service Award" from the Nebraska Athletic Directors Association. In 1988, he received the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine Distinguished Service Award. He is often a guest speaker for the AMA, National Athletic Trainers Association, American Physical Therapy Association, and the state coaches associations throughout the Midwest. Sullivan is married to the former Emogene "Genie" Pearson and they have three married sons Greg, Gary, and Glen, and eight grandchildren.

Sullivan heads a staff that includes two therapist-trainers, a trainer/physician's assistant, one other certified athletic trainer, and four graduate certified trainers and 15 student trainers—all required to care for the over 700 student-athletes in both men's and women's athletic departments.

Associate head trainer Jerry Weber is in his 15th year on the staff. A Nebraska native from Sidney, Weber earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Nebraska in 1974. He earned his physical therapy degree from the NU College of Medicine in 1976 and his master's from Western Illinois in 1977. Besides his duties with the NU football team, Weber is in charge of the Isokinetic Testing Center next to the main training room in the South Stadium Office Building, and during the winter he is in charge of Nebraska's outstanding gymnastics teams and other sports at the Devaney Sports Center. Weber is married to the former Sherry Cole.

In his 14th year as assistant trainer and physical therapist is Roland E. "Duke" LaRue. Prior to coming to Nebraska, LaRue was the head trainer-physical therapist at Western Illinois University. He earned his B.A. from Buena Vista College in 1950, his M.A. from Wyoming in 1957, and his physical therapy certificate in 1964 from Iowa. At Nebraska, LaRue is the head physical therapist at the Health Center and director of the athletic training curriculum. He has served the U.S. Olympic Committee at the Winter Games in Japan in 1972 and at the 1980 Winter Games in Lake Placid. He and his wife, Liz, have three children Cheryl, Davene and Lance.

Jack Nickolite returns to the Huskers staff as an associate head trainer in 1991-92 after receiving his physician's assistant degree from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha earlier this year. Prior to taking a leave of absence to pursue that degree, Nickolite served as an assistant trainer for the Huskers for six years, working with the football team and several other sports, including primary responsibility for the men's basketball team. A native of David City, Neb., Nickolite received his bachelor's degree from NU in 1980, and is master's degree in 1984. He is married to the former Diane Rezac, and they have two sons, Bobby and Bret.

This year's staff of graduate assistant trainers includes Andy Accardi, Courtney Schenck, Carol Jarosky and John Thomas. The head student trainer is Bob Hammons of Weeping Water, Neb. The head student manager is Ray Peterson, a business management major from Dallas, Texas.

International Center for Sports Nutrition

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department utilizes the nutritional services of the International Center for Sports Nutrition (ICSN, formerly the Swanson Center for Nutrition) in Omaha.

ICSN has been highly involved in sports nutrition research and education since 1973. The center also serves as nutrition consultant to the United States Olympic Committee. Julie Gallagher, ICSN sports nutritionist, is available to provide computerized diet analysis, nutrition education and counseling to UNL athletes in all sports. This nutrition program is designed to help athletes in their pursuit of optimal health and maximal sports performance. ICSN is located on the University of Nebraska Medical Center campus in Omaha. It is a non-profit, independent institute which has close ties to the Medical Center, but is not part of UNMC.

Dr. Martin A. Massengale President, University of Nebraska

Dr. Martin A. Massengale became President of the University of Nebraska on Jan. 1, 1991. He had previously served as Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1981-90) and as UNL's Vice Chancellor for Agriculture and Natural Resources (1976-81). He was Interim President from August 1989 through December 1990.

Born in Kentucky on Oct. 25, 1933, he earned his bachelor's degree from Western Kentucky University in 1952 and his master's and doctorate degrees from the University of Wisconsin in 1954 and 1956. An internationally-recognized agronomist, Dr. Massengale came to Nebraska from the University of Arizona, where he served as an assistant professor from 1958 to 1962, associate professor from 1962 to 1965, professor from 1965 to 1976, department head of agronomy from 1966 to 1974, and associate dean of the College of Agriculture and associated director of the Agricultural Experiment Station from 1974 to 1976.

President Massengale has had extensive teaching, administrative and research experience and has served as an agricultural consultant in the U.S., Brazil, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, the Soviet Union, Morocco and Indonesia.

The president has served as chairman of the Higher Education and Technology Committee, and on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges and is a past president of the Crop Science Society of America and the Western Society of Crop Sciences. He also has served on the board of directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and currently serves on the boards of the Nebraska Chamber of Commerce & Industry, the Cornhusker Boys State Corporation and several business corporations. He is a counselor of Ak-Sar-Ben.

Dr. Massengale was named Midlands Man of the Year by the Omaha World-Herald in 1982. He has been honored as a fellow of the American Society of Agronomy, the Crop Science Society of America and the American Association for the Advancement of Science; as an Outstanding Educator of America; and as a University of Arizona College of Agriculture Professor of the Year. He has received several awards from the Future Farmers of America. He is a recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Western Kentucky University and the Agronomic Service Award from the American Society of Agronomy.

President Massengale is a certified professional agronomist and a certified professional crop scientist. He is a member of the American Society of Plant Physiology, American Association for the Advancement of Science, National Association of Colleges and Teachers in Agriculture, American Forage and Grassland Council, American Society of Agronomy, and the Crop Science Society of America.

President Massengale has maintained an active interest in intercollegiate athletics at all levels. He is a former chairman of the College Football Association, the President's Commission of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and serves on the Knight Foundation Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics.

Dr. Massengale and his wife, Ruth, have two children, a son, Alan, and a daughter, Jennifer.

The Cornhusker Marching Band.

The Cornhusker Marching Band

The Cornhusker Marching Band is directed by Professor Jay Kloecker. He holds degrees from the University of Kentucky and Florida State University, and has directed nationally-recognized high school bands in Illinois and Kentucky. In addition to his duties with the marching band, Mr. Kloecker conducts the Wind Ensemble and teaches courses in music education.

Mr. Al Rometo is professor of percussion and vice-director of the UNL School of Music and serves as percussion instructor for the marching band. After receiving his bachelor's degree from Indiana University in Pennsylvania, he obtained a master's degree from Ohio University. Mr. Rometo is an active clinician, adjudicator, and performer in both the traditional and jazz idioms.

Other senior staff members are Rose Johnson, administrative assistant; John Gill, technical assistant; Denise Hudson, flag line instructor; Jim Hudson, graduate assistant; and Mike Veak, announcer. Drum majors for the 1991 season are John Balcer of Bellevue, Jessie Sutton of Lincoln, and Becky McGuire of Jasper, Texas. Debbie Dedrick of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Stephannie Wilson of Kennett, Mo., and Kaela Olson of Lincoln are the twirlers.

The Cornhusker Marching Band is one of the oldest marching bands in the country. It was founded in 1879 as an ROTC unit and began playing at football games in 1890. The association with Nebraska football has brought the band much publicity and the program has grown accordingly.

The 1991 marching band has 265 members from every region of the country and the band program also includes two fine concert ensembles, three athletic bands, and two jazz bands. The Cornhusker Band is the only collegiate ensemble that has performed in all of the major post-season bowls: Rose, Orange, Fiesta, Cotton and Sugar, as well as the Citrus, Sun, Astro-Bluebonnet and Liberty. The band also made a performance tour of Europe during the summer of 1974.

The marching band's season begins on Aug. 15 with a 10-day camp that includes over 30 rehearsals and a special exhibition performance in Memorial Stadium. Regular daily rehearsals from 7:45-9 a.m. begin on August 26 and continue throughout the fall to prepare for seven different halftime shows for the home games, plus several parades and special performances. The band will cap its season with a concert in the Lied Center for Performing Arts in Lincoln on December 13.

Game #1

Nebraska 13, Baylor 0

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 1—Before the season, Coach Tom Osborne had made no secret of the fact that he expected the defense to be the strongest part of his 18th Nebraska team, and the "Blackshirts" didn't let him down in shutting out Baylor, 13-0, before a national television audience (ESPN) in the opener for both teams.

It was the first time since 1964 that Nebraska had opened the season with a shutout, as the seventh-ranked (AP) Huskers held the Bears to 13 first downs and 164 total-offense yards. And, in the end, it was a big defensive play which forced a Baylor fumble inside the Husker 10 early in the fourth quarter and enabled NU to win.

"The defense has got to be the strong part of our football team, particularly in the early going," Osborne said. "Tonight, they saved our bacon."

Nebraska took a 6-0 lead into the final period on two second-quarter Gregg Barrios field goals, but, early in the final quarter, Baylor had driven to the Husker 5-yard line, and appeared to be headed in for the go-ahead points. Fullback Frankie Smith took the handoff on second-and-goal, but was immediately slammed by Husker linebacker Pat Tyrance, fumbled, and Travis Hill recovered for Nebraska at the 3.

"That was one of the two big plays of the game," Osborne said. "The other came just after that to get us out of that hole."

That other "big play" came from quarterback Mike Grant and split end Jon Bostick. The Huskers faced third-and-7 at their 6, when Grant rolled to this right after nearly tripping over one of his linemen, and hit Bostick in full stride down the right sideline for a 23-yard gain and a first down.

"That was a miraculous throw and catch," Osborne said. "If we had had to punt from down there, they would have been right back at us and had a chance to go ahead 7-6."

On the first play after the Grant-to-Bostick aerial, sophomore I-back Scott Baldwin sprinted 53 yards to the Baylor 18, and three plays later, made an 11-yard gain to the Bears' 2. But the drive ended on the next play when Baylor recovered Grant's fumble in the end zone.

The Blackshirts forced a punt, and Tyrone Hughes' 18-yard return set the Huskers up at the Baylor 37 with 4:12 left. Nebraska then ground its way to the 2, where Baldwin leaped over the line and into the end zone for the game's only touchdown with 22 seconds left.

"I was very apprehensive going in," Osborne said. "If I had been told before the game that we were going to win by 12 or 13 points, I'd have been very happy. I was really pleased with the shutout. We knew the defense was going to be the strength of our team early, and they showed it. I thought our offense played reasonably well. I wasn't that disappointed."

Tyrance's fumble-causing tackle on Smith was one of his career-high 12 on the night, in a performance that earned him Big Eight defensive player-of-the-week honors. Baldwin, who was celebrating his 21st birthday, finished with 92 rushing yards in his first varsity appearance and was named player-of-the-game by ESPN.

Baylor was in Nebraska territory only three times, getting to the 32 in the second period, to the 44 at the start of the second half, and, of course, to the 5 early in the final period. The Huskers came up empty twice inside the Baylor 10, as Barrios missed a 21-yard, "chip-shot" field goal in the first period, followed by the end-zone fumble in the fourth.

The game was played in late-summer heat. Temperature at the 6:37 p.m. kickoff was 92 degrees, with a heat index of 104.

Game #2

Nebraska 60,
Northern Illinois 14

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 8—After being held to just 13 points and one touchdown by Baylor in the opener the week before, Nebraska's offense exploded for eight touchdowns against Northern Illinois in blasting the Huskies, 60-14.

The 10th-ranked (AP) Cornhuskers upped their record to 2-0 and spread the wealth around, as seven different players got into the NIU end zone, including four who scored their first career touchdowns—fullbacks Omar Soto, Tim Johnk and Robert Glantz, and freshman I-back Derek Brown, who scored on a 1-yard run on his first career carry early in the fourth quarter, then outran the Huskie defense on a 59-yard sprint moments later.

The Huskers, however, had a game on their hands for nearly three quarters, despite the one-sided final. Nebraska didn't let NIU forge a halftime tie, as had happened in 1989 (17-17), but the Huskies threatened to do just as well, if not better.

NU jumped to a 16-0 lead in the first 10 minutes on a 1-yard touchdown run by quarterback Mickey Joseph, a safety, and a 20-yard Joseph-to-Chris Garrett TD pass. But Northern Illinois, 1-1, bounced right back as fullback Adam Dach got the Huskies on the board with a 48-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Stacey Robinson ran for a 2-point conversion, then engineered an 11-play, 59-yard drive that ended in a 42-yard John Ivanic field goal, cutting Nebraska's lead to a precarious 16-11 with 9:33 before halftime. The field goal also made Ivanic NIU's all-time leading scorer at 205 career points.

After that, though, it was almost all Nebraska. The Huskers scored 10 points in the final three minutes of the half to go up 26-11, and, after Ivanic cut it to 26-14 early in the second half, NU ran off 34 unanswered points in the game's final 21 minutes. The only second-half mishap for the Huskers came with 5:29 left in the third period, when place-kicker Gregg Barrios had a PAT kick blocked, ending his school-record string of 82 in a row.

"I was pleased with the final result," said Coach Tom Osborne. "At times during the day, we probably didn't play real well. You think 60-14 would be real good, and the final outcome was pleasing, but when their good people were going against our good people, at times they moved the ball with some consistency."

Flowers ran for a career-high 124 yards on 21 carries, and Joseph, who was making his first career start, replacing Mike Grant (bruised knee), more than doubled his career passing yardage, hitting on four of 11 for 103 yards and the touchdown to Garrett. It was Garrett's sixth career reception, his fifth for a touchdown.

Game #3

Nebraska 56,
Minnesota 0

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 22—Nebraska dominated from start to finish as the eighth-ranked Corn-huskers rolled past long-time foe Minnesota, 56-0.

The Cornhuskers, 3-0, scored on six of their first seven possessions to build a 42-0 halftime lead and, in the process, ran up 22 first downs to five for the 1-2 Gophers, and out-yarded the visitors, 379-66.

Quarterback Mickey Joseph led the offensive charge as he made his second consecutive start. Joseph enjoyed his best passing performance to date, hitting on seven of 11 passes for 117 yards and three touchdowns while rushing 10 times for 32 yards and two scores. The five total-offense touchdowns were just one off the school record.

With regulars Leodis Flowers (knee) and Scott Baldwin (turf toe) held out with injuries, Derek Brown became the first freshman to start at I-back for Nebraska in 16 years and responded with 120 yards and two touchdowns on 21 carries. It was the second-best freshman rushing performance in the Husker record books, and he also became the first NU I-back to catch a touchdown pass in three seasons when he hauled in a 21 yarder from Joseph early in the third quarter. Junior I-back George Achola got his first significant playing time and came up with a game-high 123 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries.

"Our line is coming together," Joseph said. "You can tell that by the yards per carry being over seven per. And you can tell by the way all our backs did well today. I'm no better and the backs are no better than the guys up front."

Despite the offensive superlatives, the Husker defense's performance may have been even more impressive. In recording their second shutout in three games, the Blackshirts gave up just eight first downs and 106 total-offense yards, and never allowed the Gophers to advance beyond their 45-yard line.

"Shutouts are confidence builders, no matter what the situation," said NU defensive coordinator Charlie McBride. "Still, we've talked to our players about not knowing how good your defense is until the end of the year. I don't think they'll get to thinking they're good. We made enough mistakes today to solve that problem. But if this gets to be a habit, this is good."

"We had it in hand so completely so early," Husker Coach Tom Osborne said. "I can't remember a game against a major-college opponent where we were in as good a shape early as we were."

Nebraska used 104 players, including six quarterbacks, in winning its 16th-straight home game, its 17th-straight nonconference home win. The Huskers scored in their 200th consecutive game, extending their Big Eight record, and did it before their 171st consecutive home sellout, extending their NCAA record.

Game #4

Nebraska 31,
Oregon State 7

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 29—It wasn't supposed to be this tough.

Eighth-ranked (AP) Nebraska was a prohibitive favorite to demolish winless Oregon State, a team which had been outscored 142-50 by four previous opponents, none of which were top-25 candidates.

However, the Beavers, starting to get healthy after a rash of pre-season injuries, held Nebraska to a field goal in the first half as they took a shocking 7-3 halftime lead and extended the Cornhuskers to the limit before finally falling, 31-7. NU upped its record to 4-0 and dropped OSU to 0-5.

Playing before the 172nd-consecutive sellout crowd in Memorial Stadium (76,061), OSU took advantage of a fumbled punt to drive 18 yards to the game's first score, a 4-yard Matt Booher-to-Dwayne Owens pass with 7:35 left in the first quarter.

Later in the first period Nebraska drove to a first down at the OSU 11, helped by a 43-yard run by fullback Omar Soto, but the drive stalled on the five and the Huskers had to settle for a 22-yard Gregg Barrios field goal, then didn't manage another first down until the final two minutes of the half.

"So much for 51-point spreads," NU Coach Tom Osborne said. "I told the team at halftime they were on the verge of the biggest embarrassment in the history of the school and possibly the biggest upset of the year if they didn't get with it."

The Huskers got with it in a hurry in the second half, taking the opening kickoff and driving 82 yards in three plays to take the lead for good. Wingback Nate Turner, playing in his first game after coming back from a broken collarbone, started the half with an 11-yard reverse to the NU 29. I-back Leodis Flowers then broke free up the middle on a 66-yard sprint to the OSU 5, picking up the biggest chunk of his career-high 151 yards. After a 4-yard penalty for too many Beavers on the field moved the ball to the 1, Scott Baldwin went over the top for the score.

The game still wasn't in control until the fourth quarter. Nebraska lost the ball on a fumble at the Oregon State 21 late in the third period, but got the ball back and went up 17-7 after Mike Grant hit Tyrone Hughes with a 24-yard touchdown pass on the third play of the fourth quarter.

Another scoring opportunity went by the boards moments later on a fumble at the OSU 13, but Flowers and Baldwin each scored in the game's last seven-and-a-half minutes to finally put the Beavers away.

For the second time in four games, it was the defense, led by tackle Kenny Walker, that saved the Huskers' bacon, as the Beavers were limited to 133 total-offense yards in the game—50 in the second half, 8 in the fourth quarter.

"We can talk until we're blue in the face, but this is a good lesson," said Charlie McBride, NU's defensive coordinator. "We started out like we were playing bridge. The first series (when OSU drove from its 29 to the Nebraska 39) was the most disturbing of all. But after that, we played well. I thought our kids really played well in the second half."

One bright spot throughout the game was the play of Walker, a 6-4, 240-pound senior from Crane, Texas, who spent most of the day in the Oregon State backfield. Of a team-high seven tackles, Walker had five behind the line for 33 yards lost, including four sacks for 29 yards. In addition, he had four hurries and two pass breakups.

Booher, the OSU quarterback, said he was glad to see the last of No. 57.

Nebraska suffered one serious injury in the game, when starting tight end Chris Garrett broke his left ankle in the first quarter, and was lost for the rest of the regular season.

All-America defensive tackle Kenny Walker makes one of his four sacks of Beaver quarterback Matt Booher. Walker led the Husker Blackshirts in holding OSU to 133 yards total offense.

Game #5

Nebraska 45,
Kansas State 8

Manhattan, Kan., Oct 6—For the second-straight week, Nebraska struggled through the first half before righting itself and pulling away, this time for a 45-8 win over Kansas State in the Big Eight opener.

Playing on the road for the first time in 1990, eighth-ranked (AP) NU faced a greatly-improved K-State team that had won three of its four nonconference games and had already scored more points (152) than the 1989 Wildcats had in a whole season (134).

The Wildcats throttled the Husker offense in the first 28 minutes and appeared to be heading for the locker room trailing just 3-2. However, Nebraska worked the two-minute drill to perfection, driving 81 yards in 11 plays, and went up 10-2 on a 5-yard Mike Grant-to-Jon Bostick touchdown pass with 11 seconds left in the half.

Nebraska's Blackshirt defense played another outstanding game, limiting K-State to 159 total-offense yards and keeping a third opponent out of the end zone. Tackles Kenny Walker and Joe Sims spent much of the afternoon in the Wildcat backfield, as they combined for 17 tackles, six of them behind the line for 29 yards lost, and five of those sacks for 25 yards lost. Sims also had an interception behind the line.

Senior safety Reggie Cooper also contributed four tackles, giving him 153 in his career to tie the school record for defensive backs set by All-American Larry Wachholtz from 1964-66.

But, in the end, it was the kicking game that made the difference as the Huskers piled up 323 yards on punt and kickoff returns.

"The big difference in the game was the kicking game," said Husker Coach Tom Osborne. "We had a punt blocked that cost us two points, but, other than that, our kicking game was dominant."

Sophomore wingback Tyrone Hughes led the charge as he returned eight total kicks 247 yards, tying the NCAA Division I-A record for kick-return yards set by Brigham Young's Golden Richards against North Texas State in 1971. Hughes, who would later be named Big Eight offensive player-of-the-week, returned three kickoffs 153 yards to break the old school record of 140 set by Bob Smith at Missouri in 1951. He capped the day by applying the coup de grace to the Wildcats with a 99-yard kickoff return touchdown with 3:52 left. It was the first kickoff-return touchdown by a Husker in five years and the longest for NU in 41 seasons. Hughes also had a career-long 66-yard punt return, which set up the Huskers' first-period field goal.

However, another slow start, one in which the Huskers managed one field goal in their first six possessions, left Osborne feeling frustrated.

"I know it sounds crazy to score 45 points and be mad, but I'm not happy," he said. "We kept Kansas State from its 45-point average and didn't give them big plays. We won the kicking game, and without a couple of plays, we would have won by 10 or 14 points."

"We're not operating as a unit on offense," he continued. "Right now, we've got to worry about winning. We can't worry about beating people bad."

Junior wingback Nate Turner agreed: "We didn't come out and play like we should have early in the game. To win the big games, we've got to start kicking it in gear a lot earlier."

Nebraska raised its record to 5-0 while Kansas State fell to 3-2.

Game #6

Nebraska 69,
Missouri 21

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13—Junior quarterback Mickey Joseph ran for four touchdowns and passed for another as he led a Nebraska option offense that demolished Missouri, 69-21, in the Cornhuskers' 80th Homecoming game.

Making his third start of the season, and his first when Mike Grant wasn't injured, Joseph led the seventh-ranked (AP) Huskers to touchdowns on their first five possessions, a field goal on their sixth, and 11 scores in the first 13 possessions.

Nebraska finished with 33 first downs, 622 total-offense yards and 500 rushing yards against a team that had beaten then-21st-ranked Arizona State, 30-9, two weeks earlier, then had lost to 12th-ranked Colorado, 33-31, only when the Buffaloes scored the winning touchdown on fifth down on the final play of the game. The Huskers went to 6-0 overall and 2-0 in the conference. Mizzou fell to 2-4 and 0-2.

Joseph ran for 95 yards on nine attempts, and completed four of eight passes for 65 yards and a touchdown—but threw two interceptions. His four rushing touchdowns equaled the most ever scored by an individual against Missouri, and tied the NU school record for quarterbacks. The effort earned him Big Eight offensive player-of-the-week for the second time in 1990.

"I think Mickey Joseph's performance was spectacular," said Missouri Coach Bob Stull. "You look at some of the incredible plays that he made. Not the average ones—he made some great plays. On some plays, we seemingly had him stopped, and all of a sudden, 'boom', he came out of it or pitched it late."

Nevertheless, the Marrero, La., native and his coach, Tom Osborne, weren't totally satisfied with his performance, particularly with the interceptions.

"I thought Mickey played very well up until about the middle of the third quarter, but the wheels came off there a little," Osborne said. "One of the things that makes Mickey good is he is confident and has a little flamboyance," Osborne continued. "But that's also one of the things that can cause Mickey problems. He still needs to play within the system."

"When I got out of the play a bit in the third quarter, that's when I threw an interception," Joseph said. "It could have been Mike Grant or anybody else at quarterback because we have the offense. It's the team that gets it all done."

Nebraska also got standout performances from I-back Leodis Flowers and guard Jim Wanek. Flowers became the first Husker in six years to have four-straight 100-yard rushing performances, finishing with 111 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries, while the 245-pound Wanek was credited with neutralizing 317-pound Missouri defensive tackle Mario Johnson.

Defensively, Nebraska yielded its six-game highs in yards (325) and points (21), but still sacked Tiger quarterback Kent Kiefer four times and hurried Mizzou passers into 14 incompletions and one interception.

Senior strong safety Reggie Cooper had six total tackles to increase his career total to 159 and break the old Nebraska defensive backs record for career tackles of 153 which he had shared with All-American Larry Wachholtz (1964-66).

Game #7

Nebraska 31,
Oklahoma State 3

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 20—

S-P-E-C-I-A-L. That's what Nebraska's special teams were as the fourth-ranked (AP) Huskers outscored Oklahoma State, 31-3, for their 19th-consecutive homefield win.

The determined Cowboys held NU to 315 total-offense yards in the game, and had pulled within 7-3 early in the second half on a 35-yard Cary Blanchard field goal. Then the Nebraska special teams struck, contributing 24 unanswered points, directly or indirectly, as the Huskers pulled away.

Tyrone Hughes started the onslaught with a 40-yard kickoff return to the Oklahoma State 45, setting up a four-play drive to a 31-yard Gregg Barrios field goal.

The Husker defense then stopped Oklahoma State without a first down, and Hughes returned a punt 19 yards to the Cowboy 39. On the next play, quarterback Mickey Joseph sprinted around left end on the longest run of his career, giving NU a 17-3 lead.

Late in the third quarter, the Cowboys fumbled a Nebraska punt and Husker linebacker Mike Anderson recovered at the OSU 32. Four plays later, Joseph hit tight end Johnny Mitchell with a 3-yard touchdown pass four seconds into the fourth quarter for a 24-3 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Oklahoma State again fumbled, and Nebraska's Robert Hicks recovered in the end zone to give the Huskers their final 31-3 margin. The win left NU at 7-0 overall and 3-0 in the Big Eight. OSU fell to 2-5 and 0-3.

"The kicking game was probably the biggest difference," said Husker Coach Tom Osborne. "That was really a big plus for us. I can really only remember one game this year where I didn't feel we had a clear-cut plus in kick-ing. The rest have been very good."

The reason, according to strong safety Reggie Cooper, is the kicking game is a priority for the Huskers.

"We've worked hard on the special teams more this year than we have in the past years I've been here," Cooper said. "We have a lot of confidence in it. The coaches make sure we're intense during the kicking game. Other-wise, we'll be doing it all day."

"We looked at Colorado's season last year," the Slidell, La., senior continued. "They had a real good season because of the kicking game. Heck, they beat us on two punt returns. We took that as a steppingstone to making our team better with the kicking game."

Cooper and the Husker defense kept a fourth opponent out of the end zone, and held OSU to just 227 total-offense yards, while limiting Cowboy tail-back Gerald Hudson to 47 rushing yards on 17 carries. Hudson went on to lead the nation in rushing at 149.27 yards per game.

Cooper contributed with nine total tackles to increase his school defensive backs career record to 168. Four of the stops were unassisted, giving him 104 solos in his career to break the old defensive backs record of 101 set by All-American Bret Clark from 1982-84, and he opened the game by tackling OSU's Vernon Brown for a 1-yard loss. It was the 16th behind-the-line tackle in Cooper's career, tying the school position record set by Jim Pillen from 1976-78.

Defensive tackle Kenny Walker earned Big Eight conference defensive player-of-the-week honors for this career-high 12 tackles, including three unassisted stops. He also had a quarterback hurry, which resulted in an interception.

I-back Leodis Flowers sparked on offense, running for 138 yards and the game's first touchdown. It was the Omaha junior's fifth-straight 100 yard game, the longest such string for the Huskers since Heisman winner Mike Rozier's record 11-straight in 1983.

The win was Nebraska's 17th-straight over Oklahoma State as the Huskers remained unbeaten against the Cowboys since 1961.

Game #8

Nebraska 45,
Iowa State 13

Ames, Iowa, Oct. 27—After being stung twice early by Iowa State, fourth-ranked Nebraska went to its ground attack on a mild but blustery day and pulled away for a 45-13 win before a record Cyclone Stadium crowd of 54,475.

The win upped the Huskers to 8-0 on the season and 4-0 in Big Eight play, while the Cyclones dropped to 3-4-1 and 1-2-1.

Iowa State took a 7-0 lead on the third play of the game when quarterback Chris Pedersen connected with a wide-open Brandon Hughes on a 64-yard touchdown pass. Nebraska then moved from its 11 to the Cyclone 21, but the drive stalled and Gregg Barrios pulled NU within 7-3 with a 37-yard field goal.

On the next possession, ISU drove from its 24 to the Husker 8, but stalled and Jeff Shudak gave the home team a 10-3 lead with a 26-yard field goal with 2:40 left in the half.

After that, though, the Huskers put it together on both sides of the ball, scored five unanswered touchdowns, and put the game away by building a 38-10 lead at the end of three quarters.

I-back Leodis Flowers and quarterback Mickey Joseph did the most damage, as Flowers enjoyed the best day of his career, rushing for 208 yards and three touchdowns on 25 carries, including the longest run of his career—a 70-yard touchdown sprint on the third play of the second half. It was his sixth-straight game over the 100-yard mark, equaling the third longest string of 100-yard games in Nebraska annals.

Joseph also had the best statistical day of his career, rushing for a career-high 123 yards on eight carries, including a career-long 70-yard run to the Cyclone 18 to set up a third-period touchdown. And, while he didn't throw often, he was perfect when he did, completing four of four for 67 yards and two touchdowns, both to freshman tight end Johnny

Mitchell—the first a finger-tip catch and tackle-breaking run to give the Huskers the lead for good at 17-10 with 38 seconds left in the first half.

The two juniors led Nebraska to 624 total-offense yards, including 557 on the ground, both season highs.

Meanwhile, NU's Blackshirt defense bounced back from its early problems to shut down Iowa State's more-than-respectable offense. The Huskers gave up 132 total-offense yards and seven first downs on the Cyclones' first two drives, but just 185 yards and six first downs over the last three quarters.

"The first touchdown was a fluky kind of pass," said Husker defensive tackle Joe Sims. "It was a windblown touchdown. The second time they scored, we got to yelling at each other because we weren't stopping them. Then, we picked it up, the offense picked it up, and we got down to business."

Game #9

Colorado 27,
Nebraska 12

Lincoln, Neb., Nov 3—Colorado tailback Eric Bieniemy went from goat to hero in the fourth quarter as the ninth-ranked (Associated Press) Buffaloes erupted to knock off third-ranked Nebraska, 27-12, in the battle for the Big Eight Conference lead.

Playing in wind-driven rain for most of the game, and in temperatures hovering under 40 degrees, Bieniemy fumbled five times in the first three periods, three of which were recovered by Nebraska.

The first lost fumble stopped a CU drive at the Husker 3 on the Buffs' first possession, and the third ended another drive at the NU 20 in the third quarter. Five plays after that fumble, Husker quarterback Mickey Joseph found freshman tight end Johnny Mitchell wide open on a 46 yard touchdown pass that gave NU a 12-0 lead with 2:38 left in the third period.

It was then that Bieniemy made his transformation. In the game's final 17 minutes, he picked up 75 of his game-high 137 rushing yards and scored touchdowns on each of Colorado's next four possessions following the Husker TD, as the Buffs came from behind to win for the eighth time in an 8-1-1 season and hand Nebraska its first loss in nine games. CU went to 5-0 the conference and dropped the Huskers to 4-1.

Colorado also ended the Huskers' 19-game home win string and won at NU's Memorial Stadium for the first time since 1967, ending a 10-game losing streak in Lincoln. The Buffs' 27 points in the fourth quarter were a record against NU, and the win virtually assured them of a return trip to the Federal Express Orange Bowl, making them the first Big Eight team other than Nebraska or Oklahoma to make back-to-back Orange Bowl trips.

"At the end, I thought we'd be the stronger team," NU Coach Tom Osborne said. "But they got their running game going, and we didn't get it untracked. Once they got ahead, they made a couple of big plays and big catches and that was the difference."

Nebraska took advantage of a short Colorado punt to take a 3-0 lead on a 26-yard Gregg Barrios field goal early in the second period, then went up 6-0 moments later on a 44-yard Barrios field goal following a Mike Petko interception at the CU 34.

That lead held up until halftime, then the Huskers missed a chance to get some breathing room early in the third quarter. On the third play after intermission, outside linebacker Travis Hill recovered a Bieniemy fumble at the Colorado 45, and, on the first play, Joseph kept around right end and sprinted all the way into the end zone but officials ruled he had stepped out of bounds at the 9.

Three running plays got the Huskers to the 3, but Barrios then missed a 20-yard field goal at a severe angle, and Nebraska came up empty.

Bieniemy finally got the Buffs on the board, capping a 71-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run on the third play of the fourth quarter, then put the Buffs up for good at 13-12 with a 2-yard plunge with 8:37 left in the game.

Colorado scored its last two touchdowns in the closing minutes after the Huskers missed on a pair of fourth-down conversions. The first was a fake punt on fourth and 3 at the NU 28, when reserve fullback Tim Johnk was stopped a yard short, and five plays later, Bieniemy scored from the 3 to give CU a 20-12 lead with 4:35 to go.

On Nebraska's next possession, Joseph was sacked on fourth and 15 at the 15, and three plays later, Bieniemy scored from the 5 for a 27-12 lead with 1:31 left.

Game #10

Nebraska 41,
Kansas 9

Lawrence, Kan, Nov. 10—It took Nebraska most of the first half to get past the previous week's loss to Colorado, and when the Huskers finally did, they rolled to a 41-9 win over Kansas.

Out of the Associated Press top 10 for the first time in 67 games, the 13-ranked Huskers raised their record to 9-1 and extended both their NCAA-record string of nine-win seasons and their win string over the 3-6-1 Jayhawks to 22.

"The first-half score was done with mirrors," Osborne said. "We did not dominate the line—Kansas did more of that than we did. We primarily got our scores after they missed an onside kick and when the coverage broke on (tight end Johnny) Mitchell. Other than that, we didn't do much."

Nebraska managed just one first down on its first two offensive possessions, then Kansas put together an 11-play, 46-yard drive to take a 3-0 lead on a 26-yard Dan Eichloff field goal with 3:16 left in the first period.

Eichloff then gave NU its first gift on the ensuing kickoff when his attempted onside kick sailed out of bounds at the Kansas 41. The Huskers moved to the Jayhawk 35 in three plays, and decided to go for it on fourth down when the KU defense lost track of Mitchell and the freshman hauled in a 35-yard TD strike from Mickey Joseph for a 7-3 Nebraska lead with 2:28 left in the first period.

It was the fifth-straight game in which Mitchell had caught a touchdown pass, the longest such string for a Husker since Johnny Rodgers had a five-game string in his Heisman Trophy-winning 1972 season, and one off Rodger's record of six-straight games in 1971.

Kansas threatened again midway in the second period, driving from its 22 deep into Husker territory. The Jayhawks picked up 54 yards on their first two plays on a 23-yard pass from Chip Hilleary to Dwayne Chandler and a 31-yard run by Chaka Johnson, who finished the first half with 102 yards on 11 carries, but the drive stalled at the NU 19, where the Huskers got another break as Eichloff missed a 36-yard field goal. The freshman had hit 14 of 17 field goals in KU's first nine games, and was nine-of-nine inside 40 yards.

Moments later, the Jayhawk defense once again lost track of Mitchell and the 6-foot-5, 250-pounder hauled in a 45-yard pass from Joseph which carried to the KU 23. The Huskers couldn't capitalize, however, and had to settle for a 30-yard Gregg Barrios field goal for a 10-3 lead with 6:10 left in the half.

Kansas came right back and drove from its 26 to the Husker 22, but Nebraska got another break when Eichloff missed a 39-yard field-goal attempt with 1:29 left.

The Huskers, hoping merely to get in field-goal range in the closing seconds, did just that as I-back Scott Baldwin picked up 22 yards to the NU 43 on third-and-10, then Joseph hit wingback Nate Turner for 29 yards to the Jay-hawks 28 on the next play. Once again, Mitchell beat the Jayhawk defense and Joseph found him with a 28-yard TD pass with 11 seconds left on the clock.

Nebraska got off to a quick start in the second half, as Baldwin scored on a 67-yard run on the Huskers' first play, then went on to finish with a career-high 170 yards and two TDs in his first career start (replacing the injured Leodis Flowers).

Barrios added a field goal for a 27-3 lead late in the third period, his 13th of the year, tying the school record. After Kansas pulled within 27-9 on a Hilleary-to-Pete Vang TD pass in the fourth quarter, the Huskers pulled away with TD runs by Baldwin and George Achola, and the PATs Barrios added afterwards upped his 1990 point total to 83, the NU record for kickers.

Joseph enjoyed the best day of his career as a passer, hitting seven of 16 for 164 yards, two TDs and no interceptions. Kansas finished with 21 first downs and 410 total-offense yards, the most against Nebraska in 1990.

Tight end Johnny Mitchell caught three passes for 108 yards including a 35-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter and a 28 yard reception for a score in the second quarter. (Lincoln Journal-Star photo by Ted Kirk).

Game #11

Oklahoma 45,
Nebraska 10

Norman, Okla., Nov. 23—All in all, Nebraska's 45-10 loss to unranked Oklahoma may have been the worst afternoon in the modern history of Cornhusker football.

The 10th-ranked (AP) Huskers went into the nationally-televised game (CBS) on the day after Thanksgiving as the nation's top rushing team at 362.2 yards per game and needed just 170 yards to win a third-straight NCAA title. NU managed a season-low 118, to go with season lows of 10 points and 229 total-offense yards. I-back Leodis Flowers was held to 13 rushing yards on nine carries, and came up 60 yards short of a 1,000 yard season.

The Huskers went into the game ranked third in the NCAA in scoring defense (10.2 points per game) and sixth in total defense (250.2 yards per game), but yielded their most points in 22 years (the seventh-most ever) and gave up 396 total-offense yards.

NU had given up just 18 turnovers, including a mere four interceptions, in its first nine games, but turned the ball over to the Sooners eight times, including four interceptions, each figure one under the school single-game records.

"I have to say it was one of our poorer performances in my 28 years at Nebraska," Husker Coach Tom Osborne said. "I'm totally embarrassed. I have to take the blame for that performance."

Adding to the Huskers' gloom was the loss of starting quarterback Mickey Joseph six minutes into the game. The junior had just picked up 13 yards on third-and-8 from the NU 33, but was hit out of bounds on the Oklahoma sidelines at the end of the play, slid into an aluminum bench, and suffered a severe laceration to his lower right leg. His calf muscles were cut to the bone, and he required a one-and-a-half hour surgery that night in Lincoln to repair the damage.

The Huskers started well, taking a 3-0 lead on a 30-yard Gregg Barrios field goal with 2:24 left in the first quarter. It was his 14th field goal of the season, setting a school record, and made him the top kick scorer in NU history at 204 points, breaking the old record of 203 set by Rich Sanger from 1971-73. Barrios later added a PAT to finish with 205, the fourth-best overall total in Husker annals. He finished the season with a school-record 87 points via kicking.

After Barrios' field goal, though, it was all Oklahoma as the Sooners scored three unanswered touchdowns to take a 21-3 halftime lead on a 36-yard pass from freshman quarterback Cale Gundy to Adrian Cooper, a 1-yard run by Gundy, and a 9-yard run by Mike McKinley.

Nebraska made one more effort to get back in the game right after the second-half kickoff. Linebacker Mike Croel forced a Gundy fumble on the second play of the half and cornerback Tyrone Legette pounced on it at the Sooner 35.

The Huskers took just five plays to score, the big play a 24-yard Mike Grant-to-Jon Bostick pass which carried to the Sooner 5 on third and 4. Two plays later, Flowers went over from the 2 to get the Huskers back within 21-10, but it was all downhill from there.

McKinley scored two more times on runs of 7 and 48 yards to give OU a 35-10 lead after three quarters, then Sooner strong safety Greg DeQuasie picked off a Grant pass on the second play of the fourth quarter and returned it 43 yards for a 42-10 lead. Sooner kicker R.D. Lashar then became the top kick scorer in Big Eight history (320 points) when he kicked a 24-yard field goal with nine seconds left.

The loss left Florida Citrus Bowl-bound Nebraska and Oklahoma tied for second at 5-2 in the final Big Eight standings. NU headed for Orlando at 9-2 overall, while the Sooners finished 8-3.

The Bowls

1941 Rose Bowl Stanford 21, Nebraska 13

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941—Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl.

Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallameau bolted over from nine yards out.

In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallameau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand still represent the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play.

1955 Orange Bowl Duke 34, Nebraska 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1955—If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule.

Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus 2-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 Gotham Bowl Nebraska 36, Miami, Fla. 34

New York, Dec. 15, 1962—Playing under Coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter.

Willie Ross' 1-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards, led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

1964 Orange Bowl Nebraska 13, Auburn 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1964—Nebraska made its second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries.

Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen broke another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

1965 Cotton Bowl Arkansas 10, Nebraska 7

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1965—Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history.

Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McNelly field goal in the first quarter. But sophomore Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

1966 Orange Bowl Alabama 39, Nebraska 28

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1966—With the national championship riding on the line, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national-title game in the Orange Bowl.

Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and make the final score respectable.

1967 Sugar Bowl Alabama 34, Nebraska 7

New Orleans, La., Jan. 2, 1967—Never ones to duck a challenge, Coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping.

The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 20, 1969—Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Sun Bowl-record four field goals—all in the first quarter—and Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl.

Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109 yards.

After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started a run of 22-straight bowl appearances for the Huskers.

1971 Orange Bowl Nebraska 17, Louisiana State 12

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1971—Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances.

Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a 3-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead.

Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, and after quarterback Jerry Tagge stretched the ball over from the 1-yard line with 8:50 left, the Huskers clinched their first national title.

1972 Orange Bowl Nebraska 38, Alabama 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1972—It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide was No. 2 and the OB had a dream game for a little less than a quarter.

The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1. Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second-straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama Coach Bear Bryant.

1973 Orange Bowl Nebraska 40, Notre Dame 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1973—Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come.

"Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his 50 career TDs (including bowls) by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to pay dirt.

1974 Cotton Bowl Nebraska 19, Texas 3

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1974—Tom Osborne's Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight's runner-up and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn 1-yard-line stand just before the gun.

But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays after that Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring.

Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 Sugar Bowl Nebraska 13, Florida 10

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31, 1974—Rallying from a 10-0 deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the fourth quarter to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory.

From the very start, it was an uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, his 39-yard kick gave the Huskers their sixth-consecutive post-season win.

1975 Fiesta Bowl Arizona State 17, Nebraska 14

Tempe, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975—Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1-ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2-ranked Sun Devils.

1976 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Nebraska 27, Texas Tech 24

Houston, Texas, Dec. 31, 1976 —In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard TD run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito—who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game—for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

1977 Liberty Bowl Nebraska 21, North Carolina 17

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977—Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to rally Nebraska from a 17-7 fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig with a 10-yard touchdown pass (a sensational diving catch) with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14, then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that frustrated UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. Then, after the Huskers had tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half, giving North Carolina a 14-7 halftime lead.

Carolina upped its lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

1979 Orange Bowl Oklahoma 31, Nebraska 24

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1979 —In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. But the Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little over a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42 and the Huskers were definitely back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but rose up to stop I-back Craig Johnson on fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go—virtually sealing the win, although the Huskers marched 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a 2-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the final play of the game.

1980 Cotton Bowl Houston 17, Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1980 —Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a 6-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heart-breaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game—another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and 72,032 on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes, and the goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a 9-yard run late in the first period, but Houston came back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an 8-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's 6-yard touchdown pass with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Terry Elston, though, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive himself, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards (three for crucial first downs) and rushing three times for 10 yards.

1980 Sun Bowl Nebraska 31, Mississippi State 17

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980 —A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by dawning Mississippi State 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when—on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt—split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter—on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an 8-yard Quinn to Jeff Finn pass—to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2-yard TD run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

1982 Orange Bowl Clemson 22, Nebraska 15

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1982 —Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier—and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled top-ranked Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was almost all Clemson as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points and take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two-point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1983—The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest the oddsmakers had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff, forcing a punt, then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's 2-yard run 4:03 into the game.

At that point, however, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker 7, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger TD. The Huskers then fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt, and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another Tiger TD. A fake punt then went awry, LSU forced another punt, and the Huskers threw an interception, and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half didn't start out any better as NU missed a field goal, then fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But once down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to finally regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a faked field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20, but the Husker offense sealed the win eating up the final 5:05.

1984 Orange Bowl Miami, Fla., 31, Nebraska 30

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1984—In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home-field win in the 50th Orange Bowl. The Miami win snapped a 22-game win string for Nebraska and, for the second time in three years, Husker national-title hopes died on the Orange Bowl turf.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the 'Canes jumped to an easy 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami scored twice in a five minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly-bruised ankle, but junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne then eschewed the PAT kick (and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title) and decided to go for it all but, thanks to Calhoun, Gill and Smith came up just short.

1985 Sugar Bowl Nebraska 28, Louisiana State 10

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1985—Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at mid-season, Sundberg completed 10 of 15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score himself on a 9-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half. Sundberg's three TD passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

1986 Fiesta Bowl Michigan 27, Nebraska 23

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986—After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled it away again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU 6-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14, Michigan, after 8:18 of the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

1987 USF&G Sugar Bowl Nebraska 30, Louisiana State 15

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1987—Louisiana State had a 66-yard touchdown drive in the first three minutes of the contest and another 66-yard touchdown drive in the last three minutes of the game. But in between, Nebraska completely dominated the Tigers, running off 30 unanswered points and posting a 30-15 win in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, the Huskers' 25th bowl appearance.

Between those two Tiger drives, Nebraska out-yarded LSU, 352-62, and had a first-down advantage of 22-3 as the Huskers made a remarkable recovery from a disheartening loss to Oklahoma at the end of the regular season. It was Nebraska's fourth bowl win over LSU in as many tries and the third in five years.

Steve Taylor became the second Nebraska quarterback in three years to win the Miller-Digby Trophy as the Sugar Bowl MVP. He completed 11 of 19 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown, and rushed 20 times for 63 yards and another score. Of Taylor's 173 total offensive yards, 90 came in two drives in which the Huskers went from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead.

1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl Florida State 31, Nebraska 28

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1988—Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit flanker Ronald Lewis with a 15-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass with 3:07 left in the game to give Florida State a 31-28 win over Nebraska in the 17th Fiesta Bowl. McManus' third touchdown pass of the afternoon capped a 97-yard touchdown drive by the Seminoles, who had taken over at their 3 with 6:58 to go when a fumble kept the Huskers from putting the game away.

It was a frustrating day for Nebraska, which jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead on a short drive set up by a Richard Bell punt return, and a 52-yard punt return touchdown by Dana Brinson. The Husker defense held FSU to just 82 yards on the ground, 28 by standout tailback Sammie Smith, but McManus threw for 375 yards, his career high by an even 100 yards. He was named offensive player-of-the-game, while Husker tackle Neil Smith was named the top defensive player.

Even after Florida State took the late lead, the Huskers almost rallied, but Steve Taylor's 58-yard pass to Morgan Gregory, which carried to the Seminole 2, was called back because of a penalty.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1989—Second-ranked Miami's quickness, particularly on defense, proved to be too much for sixth-ranked Nebraska as the Hurricanes dominated the Huskers to the tune of 23-3 in the 55th Orange Bowl Classic. Despite the win and a final 11-1-0 record, the Hurricanes were unable to lay claim to a second-straight national title due to undefeated Notre Dame's 34-21 Fiesta Bowl win over West Virginia earlier in the day.

Although the Nebraska defense held the Miami offense to 354 total-offense yards, nearly 100 under its season average, the Huskers never could get untracked against the Hurricanes' second-ranked defense. After leading the nation in rushing at 382.3 yards per game during the regular season, NU managed only 80 yards rushing against Miami, and finished with 10 first downs. Nebraska needed a career-long 50-yard field goal by Gregg Barrios to capitalize on its only serious scoring threat. Early in the third quarter, Tahaun Lewis picked off a Steve Walsh pass and returned it 31 yards to the Miami 37. But after Ken Clark gained 16 yards to the 21, Steve Taylor was sacked for a 13-yard loss, and the Huskers had to settle for Barrios' field goal, which prevented Nebraska's first shutout since the 1973 season.

1990 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl Florida State 41, Nebraska 17

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1990—Fifth-ranked Florida State rode the arm of quarterback Peter Tom Willis and the talents of a bevy of quick, talented receivers to a 41-17 win over sixth-ranked Nebraska in the 19th Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers had the lead twice in the first half, 7-0 after driving 69 yards for a touchdown on their first possession (helped by 41-yard Mike Stigge-to-Mark Dowse pass on a fake punt), and 10-7 on a Chris Drennan field goal early in the second period.

From then on, it was all FSU. The Seminoles scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions to build a commanding 41-10 lead at the end of three quarters. In the process, Willis had the best passing day ever against Nebraska, completing 25 of 40 for 422 yards and five touchdowns. The yardage topped the previous high vs. the Huskers of 375 by the Seminoles' Danny McManus in the 1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, and the five TD passes were also the most-ever against NU.

For the second-straight year, the Huskers faced a bowl opponent which was probably the best team in the nation, but which had virtually no hope of winning the national title due to untimely defeats early in the season. Florida State lost its first two games in 1989 to Southern Mississippi and Clemson, then roared back to win its last 10, including 24-10 over eventual No. 1 Miami.

1991 Florida Citrus Bowl Georgia Tech 45, Nebraska 21

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1991—Despite a second-quarter rally, Nebraska was unable to overcome a 21-0 deficit as the Huskers fell to undefeated Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Yellow Jackets finished 11-0-1 with the victory and edged Colorado for the UPI national title, while the Buffaloes, who had beaten NU, 27-12, in November, claimed the AP crown.

Two freshmen gave Husker fans a ray of hope after Tech took its three-TD lead. All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell hauled in a 30-yard TD pass from Tom Haase, then I-back Derek Brown sprinted 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-14 with 5:07 left in the half. But that was as close as Nebraska would get, and runningback William Bell's two fourth-quarter TDs sealed the Huskers' fate.

Mitchell finished the game with five receptions for an NU bowl-record 138 yards, while Brown rushed for 99 yards, and Haase came off the bench to complete 14 of 21 passes for 209 yards and two TDs.

Huskers' 22-Year Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama did not receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over from the Crimson Tide as the school with the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances. Alabama had appeared in 25-straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959, but the Tide slipped in 1984 and did not get a bowl bid. Nebraska, under first Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, has appeared in a bowl game in 22 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Spill end Tyrone Hughes.

All-pro running back Roger Craig earned four Super Bowl rings with the San Francisco 49ers, and is now a member of the Los Angeles Raiders. He's No.6 on the Nebraska career rushing chart with 2,446 yards

History

Johnny Rodgers

Husker Heisman Winners

Rodgers, Rozier

NU Heisman Winners

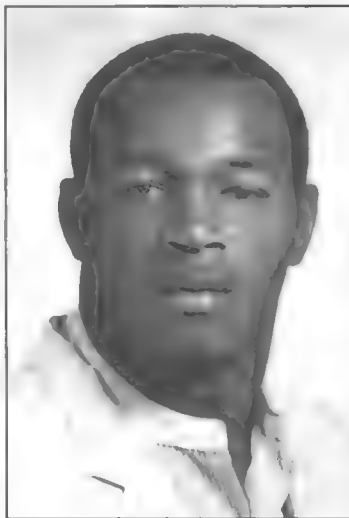

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier out-distanced BYU quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the award.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and Husker teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award given to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland lineman awards in 1983, Nebraska is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler.

The 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Outland & Lombardi Awards

Huskers have won the most

Nebraska players have won more Outlands (five) and more Lombardis (three) than those of any other school. The Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; and Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas, with two Lombardi winners each.

All-America offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler swept national honors in 1983 winning both the Outland Award and the Lombardi Trophy.

In winning the Outland, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Trophies, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a feat that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

NCAA TODAY'S TOP SIX HONOREES

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is to honor the student-athlete as one of Today's Top Six. The award is based not only on outstanding athlete accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities. In 1991, for the second-straight year, Nebraska had two student-athletes among Today's Top Six, as football's Pat Tyrance and gymnast Patrick Kirksey were honored at the annual NCAA honors dinner at Nashville, Tenn., in January. They followed volleyball All-American Virginia Stahr and football All-American Jake Young, NU's 1990 winners, and gave a Nebraska a total of eight honorees since the award was founded in 1973—the most for any school (two more than Southern California). Tyrance was the fifth Husker football player to be honored, making the NU football program the most-honored of any individual sport program. Tyrance, from Omaha, Neb., was Nebraska's leading tackler in 1989 and 1990 and finished as the Huskers' No. 12 career tackler with 208. A two-time All-Big Eight selection with a 3.452 grade-point average in pre-medicine, he earned GTE Academic All-America honors as a senior, was named a National Football Foundation/Hall of Fame scholar-athlete and won an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. An eight-round NFL draft selection by the Los Angeles Rams, he has also been accepted by Harvard Medical School. Tyrance is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and has been part of the Best of America Say No to Drugs campaign. He received the athletics/academic counseling unit distinction award. Kirksey, from Decatur, Ga., took top honors on the parallel bars in the 1990 NCAA men's gymnastics championships and helped Nebraska win its seventh team title in 12 years. He was the NCAA all-around champion in 1989 and was a member of Nebraska's 1988 championship team. He won 10 Big Eight Conference titles during his career, including five of the championship's seven individual titles in 1990. He was a two-time conference all-around champion and a finalist for the IBM/George Nissen award for the top senior gymnast. The recipient of an NCAA post-graduate scholarship, Kirksey received a degree in finance and had a grade-point average of 3.632. He was on the Big Eight academic honor roll and received the Nebraska athletics/academic counseling high medal of distinction. A two-time recipient of the Hartung Award as Nebraska's male gymnast of the year, Kirksey gave a motivational speech at the 1990 Future Farmers of American convention. He continues to train and compete nationally and internationally, and will be a strong contender for the 1992 U.S. Olympic Team. Nebraska is one of just four schools to have had two of Today's Top Six (it was Today's Top Five through 1985), and is the only school to have had more than one year with two selections. With gymnast Tom Schlesinger in 1989, NU has had at least one honoree in three-straight years.

Football Hall Of Fame

Wayne Meylan Becomes Eighth Husker Player Enshrined in Grid Hall

The late Wayne Meylan will become the eighth former Cornhusker player to be enshrined in the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame this winter. Meylan will be inducted posthumously during ceremonies at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York on Dec. 10.

Meylan, who was Nebraska's second two-time All-American (joining 1924-25 tackle Ed Weir, another Hall-of-Famer), was the All-America middle guard in 1966 and 1967. He was elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

A native of Bay City, Mich., Meylan made his fame as a middle guard for Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney after lettering as a tackle as a sophomore in 1966. He earned All-Big Eight honors his final two years, in addition to consensus All-American laurels. He becomes the first player from the Bob Devaney-Tom Osborne era to be inducted into the national Hall.

Following graduation from Nebraska, Meylan played two years with the Cleveland Browns and one year with the Minnesota Vikings of the NFL before injuries ended his career. He then became president of Wayne Meylan Enterprises in Omaha, a firm that had industrial contracts in 18 states. He was killed in a crash of a World War II fighter plane (which he had piloted in air shows) on June 26, 1987. His son, Wayne Jr., was an all-state offensive tackle at Elkhorn, Neb., High School last fall, and will walk on at NU this fall.

Meylan still holds the Nebraska career defensive line records for total tackles (238) and unassisted tackles (118), as well as defensive line season records in both categories (119 and 59), both in 1967). He ranks ninth on the career total tackle list with 238. During his career, Meylan blocked three punts, two of which he recovered for touchdowns. He received the Tom Novak Trophy following the 1967 season and played in the Hula Bowl and the College All-Star

Wayne Meylan

Game before starting his NFL career.

When Meylan is inducted, he will join Forrest Behm, Guy Chamberlin, Sam Francis, Bobby Reynolds, George Sauer, Clarence Swanson and Weir in the players division of the Hall. Five former Husker coaches are also in the Hall, including Devaney, Dana X. Bible, L. McC. "Biff" Jones, E.N. Robinson and Fielding H. Yost.

Novak Trophy

Kenny Walker 1990 Winner

Defensive Tackle Kenny Walker was voted the 1990 winner of the Tom Novak Trophy.

The trophy, established by J. Gordon Roberts in 1950, is presented to the Husker senior who "best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska All-America center Tom Novak." Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

Chamberlin Trophy

Pat Tyrance 1990 Winner

Linebacker Pat Tyrance was the recipient of the 24th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, presented April at the Spring Game. The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All-America football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln Radio Station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient receives a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

Nebraska Lifters-of- the-Year

Sophomore inside linebacker Mike Anderson was the 1991 recipient of Nebraska's Lifter-of-the-Year Award, given annually to the player who has shown the greatest dedication in improvement in the Cornhuskers' strength and conditioning program.

The first linebacker to win the award in its 18 year history, Anderson also joined I.M. Hipp as the only sophomores to be honored. (Rod Horn earned the award as a redshirt freshman in 1976.)

Anderson's win was highlighted by a strength-index performance of 1,837 points during testing last March. The 6-1, 229-pound native of Grand Island, Neb., improved from 279 to 391 pounds in the clean, from 240 to 408 pounds in the bench press, and recorded lifts of 552 pounds in the squat.

Anderson won the award in a vote of his teammates over these six other finalists: center Terris Chorney, I-back Derek Brown, strong safety Curtis Cotton, tight end Daryl Leise, tight end Johnny Mitchell, and defensive tackle John Parella.

Six Huskers Jerseys Retired

When I-back Mike Rozier won the 1983 Heisman Trophy while guard Dean Steinkuhler was claiming the Outland/Lombardi Trophy double, the two added their jersey numbers—30 and 71, respectively—to a list of four that had been retired earlier.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added Nos. 30 and 71 to the No. 60 worn by Tom Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers, the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, and the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington. Novak's jersey was retired following the 1949 season on a vote of the N Club after "Train Wreck" had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice as either a fullback or center and a 1949 All-American. Rodgers' and Glover's jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi Trophies. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the 1982 Lombardi.

Nebraska Football Hall of Fame

Six New Members to be Enshrined

Six new members of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame will be enshrined during ceremonies in conjunction with the Nebraska-Colorado State football game, Sept. 14.

Newly-elected members of the Hall of Fame, sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, are the late Les McDonald and the late Pat Panek from the pre-1941 era; Clayton (Kay) Curtis from the 1941-61 era; Tony Davis from the 1962-74 era; and Danny Noonan from the 1975-86 era. Also elected to the Hall of Fame coaches roster is the late Ross Armstrong of Chadron State College.

Special 1991 honorees will be Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning, director of athletic medicine research at the University of Nebraska, who will receive the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award, and Lee Sapp of Omaha, who will receive the Clarence E. Swanson Memorial Award.

The honorees will be enshrined at a reception Friday night, Sept. 13, and will be introduced to the Memorial Stadium crowd in pre-game ceremonies prior to the Colorado State game.

1991 Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Inductees:

Les McDonald, University of Nebraska, end—lettered 1934-35-36; earned All-Big Six honors in 1936 while playing for National Hall of Fame Coach Dana X. Bible.

Pat Panek, Kearney State College, fullback-kicker—lettered in 1922-23-24; earned basketball letters in 1923-24-25 and track letters (pole vaulter) in 1923-24-25. Later coached at Fullerton, St. Paul and Norfolk High Schools in Nebraska, and at East and Machebeuf High Schools in Denver, posting a career record of 328-117-29. He was inducted into the Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame in 1976 and into the National High School Hall of Fame. Pat also earned nine letters at Kearney High School.

Clayton (Kay) Curtis, University of Nebraska, guard—lettered in 1950-51-52 and earned All-Big Seven honors in 1952.

Tony Davis, University of Nebraska, I-back/fullback—lettered in 1973-74-75; rushed for 1,008 yards and 12 touchdowns as a 1973 sophomore I-back, then shifted to fullback and became a thundering blocker as well as a tough runner. Most Valuable Player in the 1974 Sugar Bowl game, leading Nebraska to a 13-10 win over Florida. Rushed for 2,153 yards and 17 TDs during his Husker career, and was the No. 3 rusher in school history when he finished (he's now No. 11). Played six years in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and was the Bengals' MVP one year.

Danny Noonan, University of Nebraska, middle guard—lettered in 1984-85-86; earned All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1986. A first-round NFL draft choice in 1987, Danny plays for the Dallas Cowboys.

Coach Ross O. Armstrong, Chadron State College—Affiliated with Chadron State in numerous capacities for 57 years. He coached football from 1937 to 1953 (51-52-1) and basketball from 1935 to 1950 (157-76). His 1947-48-49 teams posted a 21-5-1 record and won two conference titles.

Lyell Bremser Merit Award—Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning, himself a former Nebraska football player, has had a distinguished career in the field of athletic medicine. During his long career at UNL, he served as Director of Student Health Services, Director of Athletic Medicine and Director of Athletic Medicine Research. He is one of the leading experts in the field of athletic medicine, training techniques and the treatment of athletic injuries.

Clarence E. Swanson Memorial Award—Lee Sapp, Omaha businessman, and long-time supporter of the University of Nebraska and its intercollegiate athletic program. A major donor to UNL programs, the Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Facility on the Lincoln campus is named in their honor.

1991 NFL Draft

Pickens, Croel are Third, Fourth Overall Picks

In one of Nebraska's best-ever showings in the first round of the National Football League draft, Huskers were the third and fourth players taken in the 1991 draft, April 21-22, in New York. Cornerback Bruce Pickens was the first taken, going to the Atlanta Falcons on the third selection, followed by outside linebacker Mike Croel to the Denver Broncos on the fourth.

It was NU's best showing since 1984, when wingback Irving Fryar and offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler became the first pair from the same school to go one-two in the NFL draft in 17 years (and that didn't count Heisman Trophy-winning I-back Mike Rozier, who had signed with the now-defunct USFL, and was the No. 1 pick in a supplemental NFL draft that year).

Pickens and Croel became the 22nd and 23rd first-round picks from Nebraska as 1991 marked the sixth year in which the Huskers had multiple first-round choices. Nebraska had three first-rounders in 1937 and 1972—and 1984 if Rozier is counted. The fourth and fifth Nebraska defenders to go in the first round in the last five drafts, Pickens and Croel headed a record six Black Shirts taken in the 12-round draft.

It was also the first year since the advent of two-platoon football in 1965 that no Nebraska offensive players were selected.

On the second day of the draft, April 22, more history was made when All-America defensive tackle Kenny Walker was selected by Denver in the eighth round, becoming the first deaf player ever drafted by an NFL team. Walker was followed on the very next pick by linebacker Pat Tyrance, who went to the Los Angeles Rams. Cornerback Tahaun Lewis then went to the Los Angeles Raiders in the ninth round, before defensive tackle Joe Sims completed the Husker draft, going to Atlanta in the 11th.

Nebraska had two of the first four picks overall in the 1991 NFL draft, with cornerback Bruce Pickens (above) going to Atlanta on the third selection and linebacker Mike Croel going to Denver on the fourth.

Elmer Dohrmann Top NU Letterman

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All-America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters from 1936 to 1939. He won monograms in football, basketball, track, and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball, and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

Multiple letter leaders:

Bob Russell	(1919-23)	9 letters
Steve Hokuf	(1929-33)	9 letters
Paul Amen	(1935-38)	9 letters
Willard Witte	(1927-30)	8 letters
Bob Cerv	(1946-50)	8 letters
Tom Novak	(1946-50)	7 letters
Mike DiBiase	(1946-50)	7 letters
Chuck Malito	(1972-76)	7 letters
Lee Kunz	(1975-80)	7 letters
Steve Elliott	(1978-82)	7 letters

Huskers who have won six letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins, and Adrian Fiala.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball, and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns. The latest addition is Steve Elliott, who lettered four times in gym-nastics and three times in diving.

Nebraska Lettermen

1892-1990

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as we have been able to make it. Corrections and additions will and can be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Letterman lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons.

Memorial Stadium

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record Hits 175 Consecutive Games

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts will hit the 182 mark with the Huskers' seven already-soldout-home games in 1991. In 1988, Nebraska set a single-season home attendance record by averaging 76,342 fans for six home games, breaking the old record average of 76,341 set in 1974.

The string of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 showed up for the Homecoming contest vs. Missouri. The last non-sellout in Memorial Stadium was Oct. 20, 1962, when the Huskers and Kansas State drew 30,701.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 73,650 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 17 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six, nationally, in attendance for many years.

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects were completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf—All-Pro Turf—was installed in 1984 and the new million-dollar Hewitt Center training table/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex. The weight room and the Hewitt Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure, which was built in 1923:

1946—Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1970—Installation of AstroTurf.

1973—Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1981—New west stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in Schulte Field House.

1982—Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.

1984—New artificial All-Pro Turf playing surface installed.

1985—Completion of Hewitt Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.

Husker Have Done Well in 68 Years at Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska football teams for the past 68 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is a 261-97-13 (.721) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Husker Fact

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home was the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 21-6-2 all-time under the lights, including 3-0-0 at home.

Notes on the Associated Press (AP) Poll: The rankings indicated are those at the time of the game, with Nebraska's ranking on the left of the slash mark, with the opponent's on the right. No number means the team was unranked. From 1936-60 and from 1968-88 AP published a top 20; from 1961-67 AP published only a top 10; since 1989, AP has published a top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College Teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.: McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

A Brief History of the University of Nebraska

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is one of the nation's most dynamic universities. Rich in pioneering history and spirit, the University was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869. The University established the first graduate program west of the Mississippi River in the mid-1880s and was selected for membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities in 1909.

Over the years, alumni such as Willa Cather, Mari Sandoz and Roscoe Pound have enriched the University's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence. Other illustrious alumni include two Nobel Prize winners—George Beadle and Donald Cram, anthropologist Loren Eiseley, scientist and inventor Harold Edgerton, and entertainer Johnny Carson.

Today, more than 24,000 students from all parts of the world attend classes on UNL's City and East Campuses in Lincoln, Nebraska's All-American capital city.

The University is the intellectual center of the region. As Nebraska's comprehensive, land-grant university, UNL serves a tripartite mission of teaching, research and service.

Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's eight undergraduate colleges and the professional graduate College of Law.

The Colleges of Agriculture, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Home Economics, Journalism and Teachers College offer more than 100 degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities, and the professions. The UNL faculty includes many prominent scholars.

In research, UNL faculty and students stand at the forefront of discovery in many fields. Among well-known research activities at the University are projects involving mass spectrometry, cell biology, electronic and optical storage materials, superconductivity, materials science, speech pathology and audiology, genetics, biochemistry, transportation, videodisc development, educational television, livestock and crop production, agricultural meteorology and climate studies, conservation, meat technology, animal and plant health food processing, agricultural marketing and economics.

In service, UNL reaches thousands of citizens each year through programs conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and the Division of Continuing Studies. The Cooperative Extension Service provides all Nebraskans with information and assistance in agriculture and natural resources, home economics and family living, 4-H and youth development and community resource development. Continuing Studies offers alternatives to formal on-campus education with programs such as summer reading, evening classes, independent study by correspondence, telecourses and study tours.

Modern educational facilities and a diverse cultural life add to the environment for teaching and learning at UNL.

The Lincoln campus is home to the nationally-renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Lied Center for Performing Arts, the University of Nebraska State Museum, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and to the University's championship Big Eight Conference men's and women's athletic teams.

An exciting university with a tradition of historic excellence, a quality presence and a dynamic future: That's the University of Nebraska!

Campus Points of Interest

Lied Center for Performing Arts: The Lied Center is a brand-new state-of-the-art performing arts facility designed to be a regional showcase for major regional, national and international events. It has a 2,210-seat auditorium, and the smaller Johnny Carson Theater for public performances and rehearsals. The 15,000-square-foot building also includes conference rooms, teaching spaces and other facilities. The perfect acoustics and design of the auditorium make it an instrument in itself.

Museum: The University of Nebraska State Museum has an outstanding collection of fossil mammals and is world-renowned for its Elephant Hall. There are galleries of health science, Nebraska wildlife, zoology, geology and anthropology. In addition to its exhibits on three floors of Morrill Hall at 14th and U Streets, the museum has extensive research collections in Nebraska Hall.

Art: The Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery has one of the finest collections on a university campus. Its sculpture garden is also one of the finest in the nation.

Music: School of Music students and faculty perform regularly in Kimball Recital Hall, the Lied Center, and throughout the state. There is an active schedule of concerts by University choral and instrumental groups, musical theater productions and a wide range of musical and dance events by visiting artists.

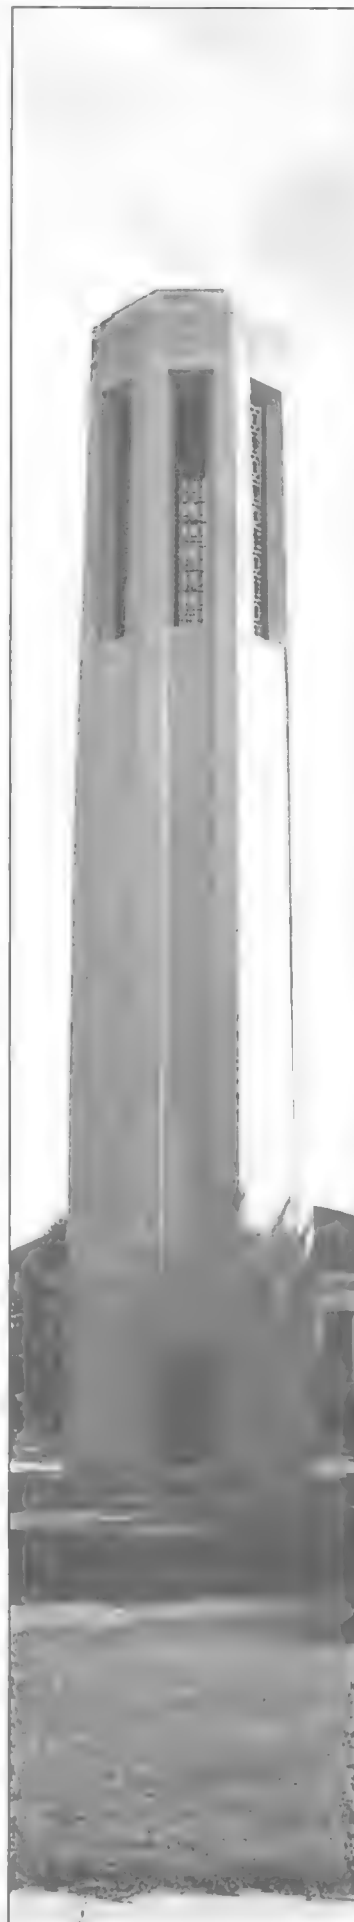

Theater: During the school year, there are periodic performances by University companies in Howell Memorial and Studio Theaters in the Temple Building, and in the Lied Center. The Nebraska Repertory Theater, a theater that employs both students and professional actors, directors and other theater professionals, performs throughout the summer months.

Carillon Tower: Built in 1948, the gift of alumnus Ralph S. Mueller, the tower has become a symbol of the UNL campus. It houses a two-and-one-half-octave electronic English bells carillon, played on ceremonial occasions from a keyboard.

Historical Museum: The State Historical Society has its museum near the UNL campus. It features Nebraska lore dating from early Indian relics.

Center for Continuing Education: Conference and hotel facilities at 33rd and Holdrege Streets provide a site for hundreds of adult and youth meetings each year. Continuing education programs are planned by a professional staff. The Center was financed through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation and by public support.

Planetarium: Public sky shows are presented regularly throughout the year. Special shows are also provided for University classes and visiting school groups.

University of Nebraska Licensing Program

In 1981, the University began a licensing program to protect the use of its name and symbols, and to ensure that the public properly identify and associate University logos on products bearing the institution's marks. The licensing program is further designed to establish a cooperative relationship with licensees to assist in the development of a market of "Officially Licensed Products of the University of Nebraska." Since its inception, the program has been very successful, receiving cooperation from manufacturers, retailers, and consumers in setting and maintaining high standards. The University has joined a consortium of other universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially licensed collegiate products, protect the names and logos of the universities and to generate additional revenue support for the scholarship programs of those universities.

Look for the Label

How does one tell if merchandise seen in stores or on the street is authorized by the University? Just look for the "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products" label shown above. If the label is not there, the merchandise is not licensed. For further licensing information, please contact International Collegiate Enterprises, Inc., 1110 Eugenia Place, P.O. Box 5014, Carpinteria, CA 93013. Telephone 805-566-6600.

The Cornhusker Mascot, Herbie Husker.

Cornhusker Legend

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters. But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and help originate the Associated Press poll, tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman.

Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker" (right), evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character who now serves as a mascot for all Husker men's teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. Artists West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In recent years, the University has also used the Cornhuskers' football helmet superimposed on a script "Huskers" for a football logo (far left). It is also a registered trademark of the Athletic Department.

Memorial Stadium Press Box.

Media Information

Media Credentials: All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials should be directed to Don Bryant, Assistant Athletic Director, 103 South Stadium, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. 68588. Requests should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week prior to the game. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below). As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers. Weekly press representatives and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated in the Press Box because of space limitations. Free-lance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

Media Will Call: In most cases, credentials will be mailed. Credentials that are not mailed will be held in the Nebraska Sports Information Office (Room 116 in the South Stadium Office Building) from 9-11:30 a.m. on game day, after which they will be held at the Press Will-Call window located outside at the west end of the South Stadium Building. Credentials, including parking, may be picked up Friday until 4:30 p.m. at the Sports Information Office.

Media Access: The easiest Memorial Stadium access for the media is the Press Gate (Gate 8) on the west side of the stadium, directly under the Press Box and located a few feet north of the Press Box elevator. The working press area is at Level 1 in the Press Box. Photo and television decks can be reached via Level 2.

Media Parking: Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is in the lot to the east of the intersection of 10th and T Streets, at the south end of the stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the media lot later than one hour and 15 minutes before kickoff. No cars will be admitted without a media parking pass.

Tuesday Media Luncheons: Each Tuesday during the football season (except weeks of open dates), Nebraska hosts a media luncheon in the N Club Lounge on the first floor of the South Stadium Office Building. A sandwich buffet lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by Coach Tom Osborne's weekly news conference at 12 noon. The news conference will end by 1 p.m., and requested Nebraska players will be available afterward, pending class and meeting schedules. Participating media requesting Nebraska players must do so on Monday.

Tom Osborne Teleconference: Out-of-town media wishing to participate in the weekly Tom Osborne news conference may do so via telephone by contacting the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) no later than Monday afternoon. A University operator will connect participants shortly before noon Central time. A limited number of lines is available and, in the event demand exceeds supply, priority will be given to those who have requested credentials to that week's game.

Media Hotels: The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office reserves a limited number of hotel rooms for out-of-state media for home football weekends. The rooms may be request-ed through the office of Assistant Athletic Director Don Bryant (402-472-5959), but requests must be made by noon on the Wednesday the week of the game. Credit card numbers will be requested to confirm late arrivals.

Stadium Directions: Memorial Stadium is located on the east side of 10th Street, between T Street on the south and Avery Avenue on the north. To reach it from Lincoln Municipal Airport, turn right on Northwest 12th Street as you drive out of the airport. Northwest 12th becomes Cornhusker Highway, which intersects with Interstate 180. Exit south (downtown) onto I-180, which empties onto one-way, southbound, Ninth Street in downtown Lincoln. Drive two blocks and turn left at P Street (just past the Lincoln Journal & Star Building), go one block and turn left on 10th Street, then keep to the right for four blocks to Memorial Stadium (DO NOT enter I-180 north). From Omaha's Eppley Airfield, follow the signs to downtown Omaha and Interstate 480. Take I-480 west to Interstate 80, then take I-80 west approximately 60 miles to I-180. Exit south (downtown) on I-180, and follow the above directions.

Sports Information Office: The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office is in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located under the south stands of Memorial Stadium. Room 116 is to the left inside the building's main entrance, at the foot of the stairs.

Interview Policy: During the season, the only times Coach Tom Osborne will be available for media interviews during the week will be at the Tuesday news conferences and on the field after practice each day. Coach Osborne is also available each Monday on the Big Eight Briefing teleconference. Please contact the Big Eight office (816-471-5088) for details. Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice until two days before a game during the season (i.e., through Wednesday for a Saturday game). Depending on class and meeting schedules, players are often available before practice, but requests must be made at least one day in advance. All requests for player interviews must go through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263). No player interviews will be granted on the two days prior to a game, or prior to the game on gameday. No interviews are to be conducted on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building, including the hallway and the tunnel leading to the field. Interviews with assistant coaches in their offices on the second floor of the South Stadium Building must be set up in advance either through the coach or Sports Information.

Daily Practices: During the season, Nebraska practices are normally conducted in Memorial Stadium starting at 3 p.m. All practices are closed to the public and the media after the first 15 minutes. Media wishing to interview Coach Tom Osborne or Nebraska players after practice should come to the Sports Information Office shortly before the end of practice and be escorted to the field. Practices usually last two hours, but the length sometimes varies, so media should check with Sports Information (402-472-2263) at about 4 p.m. to verify the time practice ends that day.

Post-game Interviews: Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Tom Osborne and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Osborne and requested personnel will be brought to the N Club Lounge in the South Stadium Office Building. Admission to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media members may reach the N Club Lounge through the center door of the South Stadium Building. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Associate SID Tom Simons at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as a matter of course.

Pro Scouting Tickets: Per Big Eight Conference rules, the University of Nebraska does not provide Press Box access or media credentials for professional scouts. Scouts may arrange through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) to purchase high-row tickets for Nebraska home games. Tickets will be held in Will Call in the South Stadium Ticket Office unless other arrangements are made.

Big Eight Satellite Feed: Videotape highlights of Nebraska football games are available weekly during the football season via the Big Eight Conference satellite uplink. The half-hour feed runs each Tuesday, Sept. 3-Nov. 19 at 3 p.m., Central time. Coordinates for the feed were not available at press time, so please contact Nebraska Sports Information (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight Office (816-471-5088) for the coordinates.

Telephones: Nebraska provides some 22 modular telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium Press Box, 17 on the first row of the main press area, two more on the second row, and three on tables in the rear of the press area. All long-distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media sources wishing to install a private telephone in the Press Box should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks prior to the game.

Press Box Services: The Nebraska Sports Information Office will provide game programs, pre-game notes, flip cards and media guides prior to the game. Play-by-play accounts, quarter "flash" stats, final stats, player and coach post-game quotes from both locker rooms, and post-game notes are distributed as they become available, as are complete sets of all of the above. A verbal play-by-play account of down and distance is provided over the interior public address system. Injury information, record and stat updates, and scores of other games are also provided, as available. A complimentary meal is served, normally starting two hours before kickoff and ending one-half hour before kickoff. Soft drinks are available until the Press Box (continued) closes. A Sports Information Office representative will be in the Press Box until all visiting writers have finished.

Big Eight Sideline Policies: The Big Eight Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as clear of people as possible. All sideline photographers must have a sideline armband and a media tag, and both must be clearly visible. Armbands can be picked up in the Press Box prior to game time—providing photographers have made prior arrangements. The Big Eight sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station, or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication shall be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests shall be submitted to the Assistant Athletic Director for his review, but such requests, if honored, will be limited to one photo pass). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (media tag and armband) at all times. Failure to do so will result in expulsion from the stadium. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sidelines to insure that all credentials are properly displayed and to watch for any abuse of privileges by photographers. Those possessing bench passes must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the Press Box during halftime.

FAX access: The Nebraska Sports Information Office has an automatic fax machine which can transmit or receive documents. The telephone number for the fax is 402-472-2005. The machine is available, on request, in the Press Box after the game, with a $10 fee payable to the operator.

Jack Payne, Kent Pavelka, and Gary Sadlemyer of the Nebraska Football Network.

Husker Football Network Enters Ninth Season

The Nebraska Football Network will be in its ninth year of operation in 1991 and is expected to feed some 42 stations in Nebraska and nine other states.

Kent Pavelka will be back for his 18th season as part of the football broadcasts, his eighth as the play-by-play "Voice of the Huskers." Pavelka, sports director and operations manager at network flagship station KFAB in Omaha, also called Husker basketball for KFAB and the Nebraska Basketball Network for 15 seasons prior to 1989-90, and is a six-time Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year.

Pavelka's color man will be Gary Sadlemyer of KFAB. Another KFAB veteran, Jack Payne, will continue to help out in the broadcast booth, while two-time state sportscaster-of-the-year Larry Mochlenbrink of Lincoln's KFOR will provide sideline reports. Sadlemyer will also team with NU assistant athletic director and sports information director Don Bryant on the post-game locker room show.

The 42 stations on the network include 29 in Nebraska and 13 from out-of-state, including three in South Dakota, two each in California and Texas, and one each in Arkansas, Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Nevada, and New Mexico.

Credits: The 1991 University of Nebraska Football Media Guide was written and edited by associate sports information director Tom Simons, with the aid of assistant athletic director/sports information director Don Bryant, assistant SID Chris Anderson, assistant SID Nick Joos, and sports information assistant Bill Doleman. The layout and design of the guide was done by Brent Dietrich, publications specialist in the UNL Publications Services & Graphic Design. The guide was printed by University of Nebraska Printing Services. The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office would like to thank the following photographers for the use of their work in the guide: Richard Voges and Tom Slocum of UNL Publications/Photography Services; John Bills; and Randy Hampton, Ted Kirk and Ian Doremus of the Lincoln Journal & Star.

Memorial Stadium

—Every time Nebraska plays football at home, Memorial Stadium becomes the third largest population area in the State of Nebraska (behind Omaha and Lincoln.)

—When the Huskers play at Memorial Stadium, six percent of the state's population gathers to watch.

—Nebraska's Press Box cost more than $500,000 in 1967, but no tax funds were used. Husker Award members pledged additional funds (above scholarship contributions) to help provide the structure, which includes 316 theater seats in the enclosed Section 300 donor area.

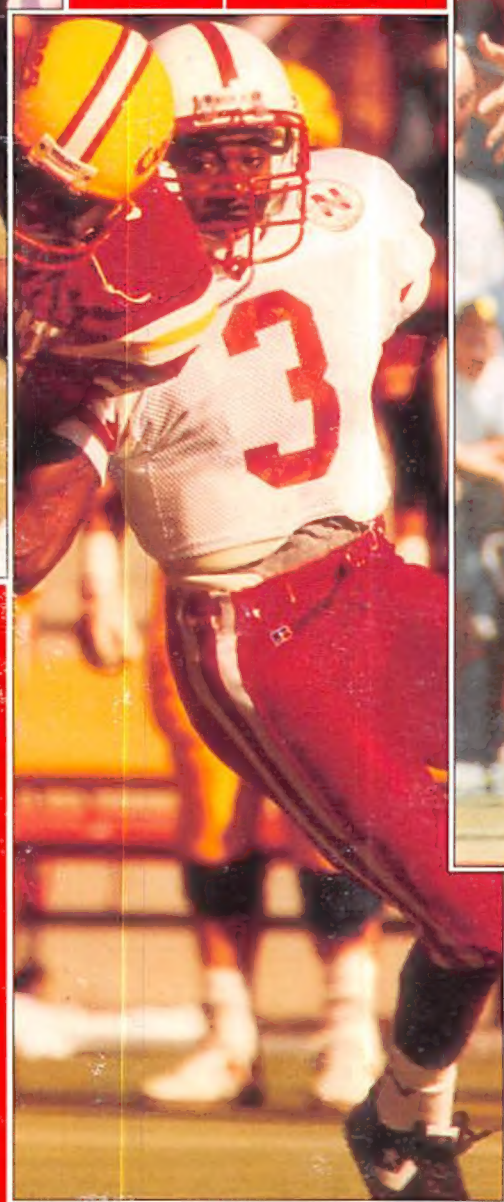

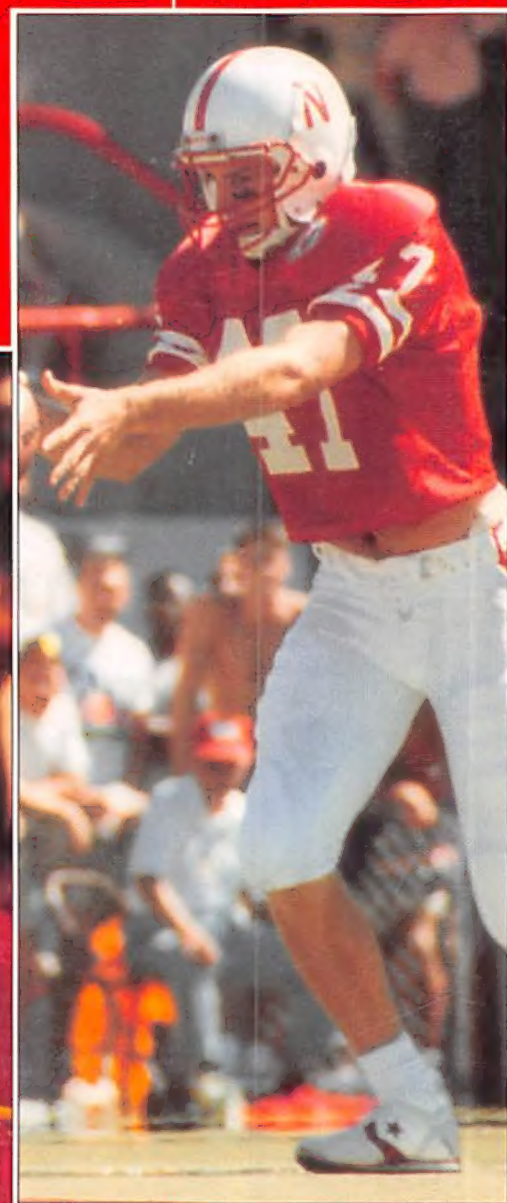

—The Nebraska Press Box fund was also aided by donors in Section 200, located underneath the structure in the West Balcony area of the old press box.

—There are three levels in the Nebraska Press Box:
